4-H Club Achievement Night Held

An achievement program of a number of the 4-H Clubs of Allegany County was held at Alfred-Almond Central School, Thursday, October 17, at 8:30 p. m. The program was held in the cafeteria. An interesting demonstration was given on "Selecting a Breed of Poultry" by George Geotschius of Wellsville, who had just placed second in the state with his demonstration at Albany, N. Y. A report of what each of the different clubs had done during the year was given and an introduction of leaders. The opportunities of 4-H Club membership were given by Mr. Maynard Boyce of Scio, N. Y. Presentation of awards and achievement chevrons followed.

New club members who attended but did not receive awards were: Michael Connor, Richard Nye, Ronald Monahan, Roger Wright, Ronald Howland, Maurice Snyder, Ernest LaFollette, Leslie Monahan, James Conde, Evan Dolan, Richard Fulton, Gerald Green, Dale Pelton, Edward Harkenrider and Dave Conde.

Special awards were presented to two boys and one Andover girl. Dale Green received $19 for the pheasants which he raised to the age of five weeks in his pheasant raising project. Robert Marsh received one dollar for his Sears, Roebuck Garden project. Rose Mary Baker received one dollar for her Sears, Roebuck Garden project and two dollars for her Sears Canning project.

The Andover Boy's 4-H Club received an outstanding achievement award ribbon for having the greatest number of members present.

Refrehments were served after the program and a good time was reported by all. RMB

Your Roving Reporter

The first question we'd like to ask in this new column is "Would you like to see the Student Council Get Started Right Away?" If this idea is approved by everyone we'll be back next week with another question and some more answers furnished by you.

Our first victim was Mr. Conde. He replied, "Surely would."

Next we cornered Doris Wintemberg, senior class president, who enthusiastically answered, "Yes, I would, definitely."

We then got out our stool and clambered up to ask George Phillipson what he thought about the whole idea. His brilliant reply was "Yeh."

"Certainly would," mumbled Phyllis Burdick, a member of the Jolly Juuior Class.

Junior Class President Jim Burgett's reply was "Yes." (real talkative bunch, these A. C. S. students.

The answer we got from Sophomore Mary Ellen Driscoll was "Best thing I have heard of."

Next we asked Bob Gorsuch, from whom we expected a lone "Yeh" but from whom we got a whole sentence. Here it is: "Yes, I'd like to see it do better than it did last year, though."

Betty Howland popped up with a very enthusiastic "Yes, to tell the truth I would."

Freshman Duane Hackett answered our question with "Yes, that would be swell."

So, from the replies you see here, you can come to your own conclusion about whether the students of Andover Central would like to see the Student Council started or not.

Senior Class Selects Class Rings

The Senior Class was called together Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 15, for the purpose of choosing class rings and announcements. The representative proved most helpful in every way and gave the class a large variety to select from. Our rings are expected to be "flashing around" the last of January or the first of February.
