LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Lenford Horton is a medical patient in the Jones Memorial Hospital, in Wellsville.

Mrs. Anna Carson underwent an operation in the Bethesda hospital, Hornell, Monday morning.

Mrs. Bell Bloss has rented her apartment to Mrs. Mae Sisson who is moving there this week.

Dr. Leon Roper has purchased the late Dr. W. J. Hardy property in Belmont and moved from Scio to that village.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes entertained at their home Wednesday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. O'Laughlin and family of Coleman, Mich.

Mrs. H. E. Robinson has returned to her home on Barney street from the St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell where she has been a surgical patient.

Maurice Reisman, 27, of Wellsville, was painfully injured last Wednesday when accidentally hit in the legs and stomach with a charge of shot while hunting near Elm Valley with Donald Coyne of Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cornell have moved from Hornell to rooms in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Davis, on Barney Street. The house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Cornell has been sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nye and family and Mrs. Helen Dunham of Andover, Charles Dunham of Elm Valley and Mrs. Forence Babbitt and daughter of Wellsville were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dodge, honoring the 31st wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Dodge.

The S. D. Baptist Ladies Aid held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. F. S. Potter Wednesday afternoon. Hostesses were Mrs. Ida Williams, Mrs. Fred Stebbins and Mrs. Potter. A business meeting was held and the afternoon passed in sewing articles for their annual fair. Supper was served at 5:30. Mrs. Marshall Gurnsey of Hornell was the out-of-town visitor.

An ingenious new fire and cold alarm system has been announced. The system works automatically thru electrically operated thermostats. When a fire breaks out at any one of the "hot" thermostats the message is transmitted to the unit control where an alarm bell rings and a red light shows the location on a control board, thus giving early warning of the outbreak. The same unit can also be equipped with "cold" thermostats for use in refrigeration plants.

State Farm Bureau Program Announced

Acreage control of potatoes, the St. Lawrence power and seaway proposal, a 10-year plan to bring year-round roads to all farms worth farming, ways and means of maintaining a high level of food consumption and a complete school lunch program will furnish lively topics for the 99 delegates from 56 counties attending the three-day New York State Farm Bureau Federation annual meeting in Syracuse next week.

Delegates to the 31st annual session from Allegany County will be H. L. Hodnett, Fillmore and Paul Baker, Friendship, N. Y.

Feature speakers will include Dean W. I. Myers of the New York State College of Agriculture at Ithaca, Dean E. Lee Vincent of the State College of Home Economics, Ithaca; Ransom Aldrich, Jackson, Miss., president of the Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation; Dr. Mark Graubard, Durham, N. H., of the University of New Hampshire Extension Service in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and Imre Kovacs, former national chairman for the American-Hungarian Federation for Democracy.

At the sessions of the State Home Bureau Federation held at the same time speakers will include: Mrs. Austin L. Kimball, former National President of the Y. W. C. A., Mrs. Ray C. F. Weagley, National President of the Home Bureau Federation; Mrs. Paul Munson of the World Peace Committee of the Home Bureau and Dr. E. Lee Vincent, new Dean of the College of Home Economics at Cornell.
