him you'd think this conservation wasn't important. And gee, the fellows are pretty busy now days with basketball practice all the time. And when a girl is lucky enough to get a date, all she hears is basketball and everything. I think it's worth it though, don't you, Margie? Madge felt bad the other night 'cause Pete called only she didn't know he was going to call so she wasn't there. That was really a shame. Oh Margie, you should see all the brushcuts around school, Honestly ! The only boys who haven't got them are Karl Fisher and John Bridge and they're liable to any day. And the girls are all sporting loud noises (bangs.) The latest to be seen are sported by Ruth Shutt and Delores Snyder. They're really cute. Well, Geepers, Daddy, I've got to get my Latin assignment. Mrs. McFadden will just give me a zero if I don't.

Gosh, Margie, Dick Wheatons got the prettiest green sweater. It's really sharp. Oh, I forgot to tell you. Betty Smith and Teddy O'Dell have finally broken up. I guess Betty's fickle eye has landed on Earl Richardson or could it be Bill Holt? And, Margie, you know Frances Baker? She's the sister of Audrey, that girl who sort of has an interest in music, well, anyway, she (Frances) is recently interested in Philip Mascho. Wonder if it's serious? Okay, Daddy, I'll really hang up this time. Bye Margie, I've really got to go. Gosh, Daddy, and you wonder why I never have any Latin assignment done. How can I when you keep interupting me?
