

W. C. T. U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Andover meets the first and third Thursday in each month.

The time was when an intelligent Christian might have no convictions concerning liquor selling, or even liquor drinking. The evil, especially of the selling, had not assumed the proportions that it has at present. The public thought was engrossed with other things, and moreover, civilization had not so far developed in its Christian growth that the wrong and injury of one member of society was felt, even as much as it is today, to be the concern of all. But that time is past. The drink curse has been such a prominent subject of discussion that none but the most densely ignorant can be unconscious of its importance; no one who does not deliberately stifle his conscience can be without convictions of personal duty concerning it. In whatever position of life one may move the woes of intemperance confront him. On every side are desolated homes, blighted hopes and ruined lives, while the cause of all this misery has grown into one of the great business interests of the world, flaunts in our faces the permit of the national government, controls political parties, legislatures and courts. In this age and this nation it is scarcely conceivable that any one of average intelligence can be out of the battle against the drink curse and be guiltless.

If it takes total abstainers to run railway trains, what about the ship of state?

Two generations of children have grown up in Maine and have never seen the open saloon defacing the streets of their towns.

Grist mills can not run without grain; neither can gin mills run without boys. If you vote to keep the gin mills running you shouldn't find any fault if the miller takes toll from your own family.

The Catholic temperance societies of the United States have more than one hundred thousand members.

When all people are willing to be come as good as they think their neighbors ought to be, the millennium will come.—Ram's Horn

DESERVING PRAISE.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. L. A. Burrows, Druggist. 1

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by L. A. Burrows.

From the Troy Kansas Chief.
Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what a good thing to keep handy in the house. For sale by L. A. Burrows.
