A suggestion box was placed in the library underneath the large front window on Monday morning into which suggestions for the improvement of the Hi Herald may be placed. Suggestions need not be signed, but only constructive criticism is wanted.

The suggestion box which is sealed will be opened once a month and the suggestions printed. All students or teachers who have any constructive suggestions for the improvement of our school paper are urged to drop their ideas in the box. Editor

GRADE NEWS

Mrs. Bennett: Everybody paid his 10c to see the Senior play. All the spring pictures are up to add brightness to the room.

In science the children are now studying "Plants and Their Growth."

Miss Baker: Richard Kemp and Robert Sherman are both sick with the mumps. The class is experimenting with electricity to find out what will conduct electricity.

Mrs. Church: In the spelling contest the Tigers are ahead by points. The bulletin board lists of "The Land of Cotton" and a product map of the United States. The class has made a score of excellent averages in self-testing drill. They are also making booklets of autobiography.

Mrs. Schwarzenbach: They have studied "Lockenvar" and have written stories about it. The bulletin board's motto is to "Be Kind to Animals."

Miss Gaus: We colored the robin in our bird book which we received when we joined the bird club. We have had perfect attendance all week. In arithmetic we are learning to count to 1,000.

Miss Rectenwald: The class is starting a unit on birds. They have studied robins and bluebirds and have made pictures of them. Mary Freeland is absent because of the flu.

Miss Hall: Three girls are absent from school with the mumps, Ida Burdick, Freda Kupp and Charlotte Clarke. Mrs. Boyd substituted Tuesday when Mrs. Hall was ill.

Mrs. Connor: Group 1 and 2 in reading have completed the basic reader "Our New Friends." Olen Elster is sick with the mumps. The class welcomes Tommy Smith back to school after his absence.

In Mrs. Helmer's third and fourth grades, the pupils are having a contest between the Andover Anglers and the Nimble Nimrods to see which team can catch the most fish (100's in spelling). The teams seem to be about evenly matched as the Anglers have but one more fish on their string than the Nimrods.

The fourth grade is designing covers for their Eskimo pictures.

The third graders are studying birds and coloring bird pictures to be made into booklets and to be used as a border for the room.

Ernest Weirich had a birthday Wednesday.

A collection of shells on display was brought by Nancy Hulin, Robert Grossman and Ronald Glover. David Marsh and Ernest Weirich also have collections of sea shells which will be on display later. RH

Senior Play Nets $87 Profit

A successful presentation of the annual Senior play was presented Friday evening, April 25 under the direction of Miss Marion Boyd, music supervisor at ACS. I am sure that the Class of '47 will be remembered by many if only to recall their Senior play, "Hook, Line and Sinker," a spirited farce in three acts, which gave the audience an evening of pleasure and enjoyment. Comments have been many which proved that the play itself was a success.

The Senior Class wishes to extend their gratefulness to the public for their entire co-operation in assisting to defray the great expense each Senior class is under. Of course, we realize there are many who would have enjoyed seeing our performance but Old Man Weather and other events of the evening elsewhere seemed to interfere. But all in all the Senior Class of '47 profited $87 on their class play — thanks to you, the public!

The money will be used to defray the graduation expenses of the class. AJB

Freshman Frolics

What's this we hear about Maxine Filler wanting to skate with Bob Mingus Friday night? Can you defend yourself, Maxine?

Is it true that Edward Ryan has finally found a girl? We've been hearing a lot about Louise Loucks lately.

Who is Lois Honegger wearing all those new dresses for? Has she got her eye on someone new?

From all reports from the Science room, Don Mulconery is the one who has been noticing Lois's new dresses.

We've heard rumors that the Annabell O'Dell-Kent Harder romance is still going strong. Here's luck to you, kids!

Joan McAndrews is still dreaming hopelessly about Joe Smith. Can't you give her a break, Joe?

We've heard from the Hi Herald editor that a certain Freshman doesn't think the Freshmen get enough publicity in the paper. If they'd all co-operate a little more and do their share, the Freshmen would have a little more news in the paper each week.

Bob Baker seems to be quite the "kid" now! We've seen more than one girl "drooling" over him lately. (Pass the handerkerchiefs, somebody!)

We've got bad news for all of LeRoy Caple's admirers. It is rumored that he has a girl in Buffalo. Betty & Barb

Last Wednesday, April 23rd ACS played a baseball game with Wellsville which had been postponed Monday. It was a slow moving affair and "Coach" Chaffee used every man on the squad. "Jim" Smith started mound duties and "Barney" Bostick followed up. Both fellows made out pretty good. There were no spectacular plays; it was just an ordinary game with Andover coming out on the bottom of a 8-2 score: Box score:

Ag. Students Plant Trees

Last Friday morning, April 25 the Future Farmers of America journeyed to the farm of Edward Kent and planted about 2,000 trees on his property. Due to the weather becoming too wet, they gave up the job for that day, after planting the 2,000 trees.

The boys have yet to plant 3,000 for Mr. Kent and an additional 3,000 for Mr. Meade.

The F.F.A. boys are doing the planting under the supervision of the Allegany County Conservation Department.

The following boys planted the trees: Bruce Nye, John Baker, Ed Ryan, Ronald Atwell, Carl Clark, Paul McCormick, Teddy O'Dell and Kenneth Milligan. JJ

Cancer Drive Closes May 2

The cancer drive being held thruout the nation this spring is being conducted in Andover thru the school, rather than by house-to-house canvassing.

Parents are asked to please send the money they wish to contribute to school with their children this week because the drive ends here May 2.

It is said that in the United States one person dies every three minutes from this dreadful disease. Your contribution to this cause, no matter how small they may be, will help to reach the 1947 goal of 12 million dollars.

Send your contribution to the school tomorrow with your children, as no house-to-house visits will be made. PCM

CHIT-CHAT

Hi Kiddlings: What's new? Scuse us for stepping out of line, that's what we're supposed to tell you.

The Senior play came off with a bang and was greatly enjoyed by everyone.

Miss Boyd was quite amazed at what they were doing with plastics nowadays until she found out that lizard on Doris VanCuren's shoulder was real.

Lila Childs had a bad case of knocking knees Saturday. Anybody would think she was the bride instead of her sister. She's still combing the confetti out of her hair.

Jeanne Stevens is home with the telephone all the time lately. Expecting somebody Jeanne? — Sure hope you're not disappointed.

Ray Smith did a good job of breaking in his camera at the wedding Saturday.

There is a rumor going around that Madge Collins had a nice time after the play Friday night. We can't figure out with whom because it's sort of a complicated affair.

Experience is the best teacher and we're willing to bet that after Saturday night's experience Jo and Ray have learned to check the gas gauge. Won't somebody please start a service station that's open at night?

Donnie Mulconery is turning out to be not only the star of the J.V. basketball team, but of the baseball team as well.

Betty Howland really gets a kick out of those motorcycle rides. And we can see why she enjoys them.

True love never runs smooth. If anybody doubts this he can just ask Eadie Dunham and Karl Kuhn.

Don't let the Daylight Saving Time bother you, Jim Kessler. It really isn't hard to understand if you'll try. Only on the new system 9 o'clock isn't 7:30.

Well that's about all the news for now. See you later.

New Editors Hold Hi Herald Meeting

Friday afternoon, April 25th during the eighth period, a meeting of the Hi Herald staff was called by the new editor, Rose Mary Baker and new editor-in-chief, Robert Smith. This meeting was held for the purpose of presenting to the staff the policy of the editors.

Rose Mary has established a merit system by which honors may be given to the staff members. The merit system is: Members must have articles in on time or they receive two demerits. If a person neglects to hand in five articles he is automatically dropped from the staff, or if a person hands in ten articles late, or if he receives an unsatisfactory mark in the journalism course which is to be taught next year, he is automatically eliminated from the staff.

This merit system will greatly improve the Hi Herald and provide more competition for the winning of honors at the end of the year.

Another point brought out by the editors was that no articles would be accepted without either the person's name or initials at the end. HKY-PJD

School Safeguards Its Children

Smallpox is a loathsome disease, which if it does not terminate in death leaves its victims disfigured and at times with impaired vision or even permanent blindness.

Vaccination is the one simple and complete prevention against smallpox. Children should be vaccinated during the first year of life, preferably before teething. Vaccination causes even less discomfort in babies and young children than in older children and adults. If successfully vaccinated in the first year of life, children should be re-vaccinated seven years later. The reason for this is that sometimes one vaccination, even if successful, may fail to give protection over a long period of time. If an earlier vaccination still affords adequate protection, a second vaccination will result in what is known as the reaction of immunity where a small red area appears within 48 hours, and disappears within a few days, usually without forming any blister and causing no soreness. If the reaction of immunity occurs there is no discomfort, and there is the added satisfaction of knowing that full protection against smallpox is present.

Many parents today protected their children from diphtheria by permitting inoculation by Dr. Scott. This nose and throat infection is caused by a germ which sets free in the body of the patient a powerful poison, which may seriously affect various tissues or organs of the body, often causing death. Children under five are more apt to have this disease, and to die from it, than older individuals.

The diphtheria germ is so common that exposure to it can scarcely be avoided. Freedom from the disease can be assured by the injection of toxoid which renders the body immune to the harmful effects of diphtheria poison.

Many Andover parents, realizing this fact, sent their children both pre- and school children today to be vaccinated for these dreadful diseases by Doctor Scott. MJ
