

W. C. T. U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Andover meets the first and third Thursday in each month.

Through the influence of Y. workers, temperance committees have been formed in connection with Christian Endeavor societies in South Australia.

A Local Temperance Legion of nine members was organized by Miss Anna Gordon among the pupils of the American Institute for Girls at San Sebastian, Spain, during her recent visit.

The whole revenue system, whether high or low, national or local, perpetuates a dangerous monopoly, and is a confession that the city, state or national governments are copartners with manufacturers and dealers, and thereby demoralizing to the whole country. While this profit remains, whether by revenue or direct sale, the moral support of the governmental forces is used to crush out prohibition.

If Lord Chesterfield were alive to day he could not utter more ringing truths against the licensing of intoxicating drinks than he did in 1743—one hundred and fifty years ago—in the British Parliament. He said: "Luxury is to be taxed, but vice prohibited. Drunkenness is universally and in all circumstances an evil, and therefore ought not to be taxed, but punished. I never heard that a law against theft was repealed because thieves were numerous."

Twenty years ago a "Commission of Inquiry into the Alcoholic Liquor Traffic" was asked for by Congress. Year after year the same request has been presented; but so adverse have the liquor men been to having an electric light turned upon the traffic that the bill has never been able to pass beyond the senate. Is not the repeated failure to have such a commission appointed further proof that the liquor oligarchy has gained national supremacy? The brewers, too, send representatives to Congress to sustain the internal revenue system, because it thereby keeps others from competing with their monopoly; and they favor tariff restriction only so far as they are untouched.

Perhaps some of our readers would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other. We will tell you. When this remedy is taken as soon as a cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it will counteract the effect of the cold and greatly lessen its severity, and it is the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquefying the mucus and causing its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs and restoring the system to a strong and healthy condition. No other remedy in the market possesses these remarkable properties. No other will cure a cold so quickly. For sale by L. A. Burrows.
