THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 23, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 4, 1892:

Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged 5c.
Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

Attorney O. A. Fuller of Wellsville was in town yesterday.

Miss Nettie Perry visited friends in Belvidere over Sunday.

Mr. E. J. Atwood has been in New York for several days past.

Miss Mary McLaughlin of Friendship is visiting at the home of P. McLaughlin.

Mr. Jerry Young of West Union was in Andover last Friday and made the News a call.

Mr. "Joe" Richardson and wife of Hornellsville, visited Andover friends during the past week.

Mrs. H. E. Miner, Mrs. B. C. Cole, C. A. Diffin, D. K. Porter, E. F. Stearns and Stillman Burdick are among those who will leave tonight for the World's Fair.

Next Saturday, Oct. 23, is the last day of registration, and it will be the last day to have your name put upon the list of those who will be admitted to the fair.

The water works project on Van Fleet's Hill had numerous visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Robinson and son are visiting friends for a few days at West Andover.

T. B. Titworth, proprietor of Alfred Centre steam laundry, made us a call on Friday.

Mr. James P. McGinty went to Pittsburg last week, to be absent a couple of months.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Crowl of Centerville are visiting Mrs. Crowl's mother, Mrs. James Casey.

Messrs. D. P. and T. J. Regan, and Miss Julia Regan, returned Thursday from the World's Fair.

Mrs. P. Mulcahy of Tip Top Summit returned last week from a visit to relatives in Hornellsville and Addison.

Mrs. Clifton Beayea of Hornellsville is spending a few days with relatives in this place and West Greenwood.

Miss Nellie Potter received a two-hundred dollar judgment on her libel suit, and is proportionately jubilant.

Mrs. Carrie Thompson (nee Chase) of Cohocton, is visiting friends in town. She is accompanied by her little son.

Mrs. Tannery of Waverly and Mrs. Cartwright of Huntington Mills, Pa., have been visiting their nephew, Isaac Smith of this place.

Mr. W. E. Chase of Hornellsville, son of E. H. Chase of Andover, who has been having a run of typhoid fever, is reported convalescent.

Mrs. Wm. Diffin, who attended the recent convention of the Y. P. S. C. E. in Syracuse, will give a report of the same at a union meeting in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening. All are invited.

Mrs. Thos. Ray died at her home on South Hill, Monday, Oct. 23, 1893, aged 54 years. She leaves a husband and two children, Kate and John. The funeral was held this morning in the Catholic church at Wellsville.

Attorney Crayton J. Earley was in Herkimer county on legal business the latter part of last week. Mr. Earley is meeting with gratifying success in his law practice here, both as to amount of business done and his manner of doing the same.

The water works line is finished from the spring down across the fields to the point where it enters the highway on Chestnut street, and the work of piping the streets has begun. There are about three miles of pipe to lay in the village not counting extensions which may be made.

The Friendship Register says that Hon. Wm. Cobb's personal estate was estimated at $150,000, upon which the succession tax for the benefit of the state will be $1,500. His landed property is very large, making him at his death with few exceptions the richest man in the county.

The Mutual company's gas line to Whitesville is finished, and the company is ready to make house connections. Like all of the gas lines laid by this company, this is perfect in every respect, and the service obtained by our Whitesville neighbors is sure to be all that could be desired.

The C. L. S. C. will meet next Monday evening, Oct. 30, at 7:30 o'clock, with Miss Spaulding. The program will be as follows: Quotations from Macaulay; short sketches of his life by Mrs. F. S. Clark; two questions on memoranda; two facts from week's reading in the Chautauquan; readings from the Lays of Ancient Rome, Mr. Herrick.

Clarence Robert, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O'Donnell, died Sunday evening, Oct. 22, 1893, aged one month and eight days. The funeral was held at the house Monday afternoon. The afflicted parents have the sincere sympathy of every one in this community. Their little son was an unusually bright and attractive child, and it was hoped he would be spared to the fond parents.

Mr. C. H. Richardson will soon move to Wellsville, where he holds a position in the railroad station. "Charlie" has lived in Andover a good many years, and everybody here will regret the departure of himself and family. In fact, we doubt not Andoverites would put in a vigorous protest to his removal if it would do any good, but "business is business," and all we can do about it is to wish Mr. and Mrs. Richardson continued prosperity, and congratulate ourselves that they will still be within hailing distance.

Rogers Crandall has the agency for the Alfred Centre steam laundry, and will be in town next week.

There isn't any cooking as good as that of the old-fashioned woman who carries her receipts in her head. When a woman has to open a cook book every time she undertakes to make something—that settles it.—Cuba Patriot. Come off, neighbor. The "old fashioned woman" can no doubt stir up a Johnny cake or make mush and milk without consulting her receipt book, but the up-to-the-times-cook can no more carry her receipts in her head than the skilled musician can play a dozen pieces of difficult music without the notes. The receipt book is as necessary in the kitchen as the dictionary or encyclopedia is in an editor's sanctum.
