CHRISTMAS IN SCHOOL

By Rose Mary Baker

Entering the school building this morning it was quite evident along the halls that the Christmas season was at hand.

Pieces or evergreen were to be found in front of the doors along the halls and great excitement ruled in the grades of the smaller children. Nearly every little boy and girl was carrying a package, some large, some small, decorated with Christmas seals and covered with pretty paper.

Some of the boys and girls were walking along in little groups whispering excitedly and pointing to the packages they carried.

Passing some of the rooms I peeked in and saw in most of them a huge Christmas tree which the children were decorating.

It is easy to see that in school Christmas is for the younger children, however, the seniors are anxiously awaiting Friday afternoon, since the junior class always treats the seniors. This year it is rumored that there will again be ice cream for both senior homerooms when they proceed to the open house conducted by Mr. Conde and his junior students.

The pupils in the Christmas pageant may be found every afternoon in the auditorium rehearsing diligently for the performance which they will present for the pupils today.

Christmas is a busy time in school but somehow there isn't quite the shine and hopeful look in the eyes of the older students that there is in the younger children.

H.S. CLASSES TO HOLD CHRISTMAS PARTIES FRIDAY

The high school classes will spend tomorrow afternoon from one until two o'clock enjoying Christmas parties in their homerooms.

The students will exchange gifts and then have refreshments.

The buses will leave the school at 1:45.

FACULTY LAUDS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Words of praise for food and fun came from faculty members and guests who attended the Christmas party which began Monday evening, December 15th at 6:30 p. m., with a delicious turkey dinner prepared by Miss Margaret Grossman, Miss Carol Walton and Mrs. Lelia Livermore assisted by Miss Evelyn Glover, Miss Rosemary Mead and Miss Reta Goodridge who served dinner in the school cafeteria.

The artistic decorations including snowflakes, candles, candy canes and Christmas tree under which the teachers placed gifts for needy children, revealed the careful planning of Miss Catherine Recktenwald and Mr. Lawrence Bartz, who were in charge of the banquet.

Following the dinner Mr. and Mrs. Louis Joyce entertained the group with cards and games by the fireplace in their home. Mrs. James Kessler, Mrs. Glenn Bronson and Ralph Schwarzenbach won prizes.

As a result of Santa's mysterious appearance, the faculty have become convinced that there must be a real Santa Claus since he appeared with his gift-filled pack, called names, read original poetry on gift cards, and delivered the gifts to the guests in person, after which he disappeared while the donees as well as the hostess concluded that they did not know him.

MUSIC DEPT. TO PRESENT XMAS PAGEANT TONIGHT

The music department has worked hard on the Christmas pageant which will be presented for the public tonight in the school auditorium at 8:15 p. m., after a rendition this afternoon for the student body.

It is traditional for the music department to present a program of this kind during the Christmas season.

Both young and old will enjoy this unusual presentation of the Christmas story. No admission charge. All are welcome.

SCIO TAKES BEATING

By Ray Smith

Last Tuesday evening the purple and white wranglers covered the 13 miles to Scio to engage in their second league battle of the season, of course they were victorious. The Wildcats trampled Scio's men 42 to 10 and the varsity had easy going for a 60 to 17 triumph behind the record breaking Earl Richardson's 25 points. Coach Chaffee used his subs frequently in both games and had an easy time making it —two straight league wins for both teams.

Earl and Kevin scored 35 of the locals 60 points and neither man played a full game. Richardson has, according to all known records, broken the Andover High school individual scoring record. It is believed that "Jim" Holt had previously held the title with 21 points. It is amazing to watch the Andover boys go to work. The passing is superior to anything Andover has seen in a long time.

Don Mulconery and Jim Burgett seem to be the spark plugs of the passing attacks and Bob Burger seems to hold the defensive end of the deal. Richardson and Mulconery are the real scoring threats on the varsity. Kevin Lynch leads the reserves on scoring with Holt the chief defensive man. On the J V's Milligan is the main scorer and the rest of the men do the pass work. The locals are really clicking this year and should easily take this section of the league. Richburg is the only real threat at present.

COME, HAVE A GOOD TIME

Hi gang! haven't you heard, that swell Christmas Dance that the Seniors are sponsoring is going to be next Monday, the 22nd of December and it is going to be a treat that you won't want to miss.

The music will be sponsored by that well known orchestra in Andover, Jimmy Mulholland and his men.

Dancing will be from nine to one so that there will be plenty of time for every one to have fun and celebrate Christmas.

So come with the rest of the people and have a real good time.

LOCAL TANGLERS BEAT WHITESVILLE

By Ray Smith

Last Friday December 12, the local wranglers outwitted and outplayed a pair of overrated Blue Jay teams from Whitesville.

In the J. V. game coach Chaffee substituted frequently and his men found little trouble in overcoming a small Whitesville quint. The final tabs showed a revealing 40 to 20 win for the Wildcats. This team of '47-'48 may not quite equal the champs of the previous season but it is felt that they will make a strong bid for the championship in Allegany county.

In the varsity tilt the locals again were victorious by a 20 point margin. The team that took the floor for Whitesville

HI HERALD - CHAT

[illegible] overrated in pre-game [illegible] and coach Chaffe was [illegible] for a hard struggle but [illegible] few minutes of play he [illegible] that to leave the fast [illegible] varsity in would mean a humiliating defeat for Whitesville so he started throwing the bench at the Blue Jays and thus slowed the game down considerably but nevertheless the locals really warped the Blue and White gang. Earl Richardson had a hard time getting started but once he started rolling he began splitting the meshes and totaled 13 points for the evening. Don Mulconery was in the forward slot opposite Richardson and he rolled up a 10 point individual score.

The team this year is a superior passing outfit and should go to town in league competition.

XMAS VACATION BEGINS TOMORROW

The past week has been filled with much excitement, what with Christmas trees to be trimmed, Christmas parties to be planned and practicing for the Christmas pageant. But above all, ACS students have been impatiently waiting for Friday afternoon, December 19th when at 1:45 they will be free of textbooks and assignments for a period of two weeks.

The bus students are looking forward to seeing a moving picture at the local theatre, and of course everyone is anticipating the various Christmas parties which will be held on Friday morning.

School will reopen on January 5, 1948, and the usual routine will begin once more. ACS students will have an opportunity to start the New Year right by resolving to study harder and get their marks up.

[illegible] a cute hat. Say, [illegible] everyone get those [illegible] white skull [illegible] of the Seniors, [illegible] A very nice idea, wasn't it?

Say, can I walk down the street with you? There's lots of news this week I know you're just dying to hear.

Have you noticed how chummy Kay Joyce and Phyllis Nye have become lately? Must be their mutual interest in Whitesville.

I hear Helen Yannie attended "The Messiah" at Alfred and she really enjoyed it.

Have you seen Pat Dolan walk this week? Honest, Gert, hobble would be more the word for it. She was doing flips on her ice skates. Need I say more?

Phyllis Burdick let me in on a secret Monday morning. Said she had a real busy week-end but honest, Gert, she looked so spry I think she was kidding.

Have you noticed how quiet that Childs girl is getting? Lila doesn't seem to do anything any more.

Gosh, I can hardly wait until the Seniors have their Christmas dance, December 22nd. I hope a boy asks me. It's cheaper.

Have you met the new boy in the Junior class? His name is Murlyn Mathers and I hear tell he hails from LeRoy.

Joan Joyce and Dick Lewis celebrated their one year anniversary the other day. Gee, but love's grand. Right, Gert?

Say, that F.H.A. and F.F.A. party really clicked. I hear the boys were helped with the dishes. Will wonders never cease?

Say, I hear Jo Ann Theetge isn't speaking to Barb Wintemberg any more. Guess Barb went out with Bill Holt Saturday while Jo was in Rochester. The not-speaking business is really all in fun, though.

Ella Mae Clair tells me that Eldon Kaple is in New York City. So near but yet so far, hmm, Gert?

Rosemarie Baker had a superdate to go to Genesee Tuesday night. Aren't some people lucky!

Gee, Gert, I guess it's love in vain for Albert Chamberlain as far as Joan McAndrew is concerned.

We don't expect to hear much from Betty Howland, now that cheer-leading is in full swing. She usually ends up with largynx after each and every game.

Geé, Gert, have you heard that Louise Loucks has a new boy friend in Wellsville? That blond hair sure attracts them, doesn't it, Gert?

This Christmas name drawing sure can be handy. Colleen McAndrew just accidentally got got Jack Perrin's name.

Caroline Briggs is really having a rough time trying to make up her mind between Bruce Nye and Kenny Milligan. I wish I had two of them to wonder about don't you, Gert?

Have you noticed the star dust in LeRoy Caple's eyes lately? Could it be that crush he has on Maxine Baker?

Dick Hancock is also undecided. His heart is torn between Doris Atwell and Maxine Cook.

Say, Gert, I wonder if Theresa Joyce still writes those daily letters to Bobby Snyder?

Pat Sackett is really smitten with the president of the Senior class, and can you blame her?

Have you noticed the scoop? Boy, this is really news. Earl Richardson has a hair cut. Oh, but really.

Well, Gert, it's getting late so I'd better shovel off. See you later.
