THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 4, 1892:

RULE 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

RULE 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

RULE 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

Election next Tuesday.

Rev. J. Clarke and wife are visiting in Lanphear Valley.

L. A. Burrows furnished the plate glass front in Mourhess' new store.

M. W. Slocum of Harrison Valley, Pa., was in town last Friday.

The long distance telephone wires have been run into the office here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. McTighe returned from the World's Fair last Wednesday.

Abram Slocum has the foundation completed for his new house on First street.

Mr. L. C. Baker of Whitesville, was in town last Thursday, and called at the News office.

T. E. Newton of Bolivar, and C. E. Lester of Richburg, were in town yesterday.

Mr. A. P. Wood returned last week from his trip to Washington and other points east and south.

The X. Y. News Office, Nov. 6

Business smaller is in town for a few days.

E. H. Hough of the Hornellsville Herald was in town this morning.

The last of the World's Fair excursionists have returned home.

Mrs. C. C. Deming of Friendship visited relatives in town during the past week.

Well, now, there isn't anything the matter with E. D. Clarke's new team so far as we can see.

Mr. O. G. Clark of Independence was in town Wednesday and made the News a call.

A stone was thrown through a window in W. E. Green's house, Hallowe'en. That's carrying things a little too far.

Stallman Davis of Friendship is ill at the home of J. W. Richardson in this village. His case is considered serious.

Dodge Brothers have wonderfully improved the appearance of their farm by building a wire fence where it joins on the railroad.

W R tower has been boarded up. A poor outlook for the laid-off operators of the intermediate towers. Sorry to see it.

Mr. Edwin Cook and wife of St. Mary's, Ohio, have been spending several days visiting friends and relatives in this place.

It is Mr. and Mrs. Earl Richardson who are rejoicing now, and the cause of it is a new baby boy, who was born this (Wednesday) afternoon.

School Commissioner Pollard was in town last Thursday. "Steve" is a justly popular candidate and his re-election is practically assured.

Messrs. Oliver Rosebush and Marsh Bundy now occupy Mr. Bundy's brick store on Main street, and are putting in a stock of flour, feed, meal, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Richardson will occupy the rooms in the depot, after they are vacated by C. H. Richardson and family, and certain repairs made.

Forty women of Allegany county make a successful living by farming, thus demonstrating how easily an independent woman can live without being married.—Cherry Creek News.

There were 13 persons registered in District No. 1 last Saturday, of whom four were women. In District No. 2, 16 persons were registered, of whom two were women.

Miss Kate McTighe's auction, which was to have been held last Saturday, was postponed one week, and will be held at her residence in this village this week Saturday, Nov. 4.

John Casey planted 2½ bushels of "American Wonder" potatoes June 9 last, from which he raised 80 bushels of nice smooth potatoes. Forty-nine of them weighed 78½ pounds.

Tuesday night was Hallowe'en, and spirits stalked about the streets—after mortals were in bed. Nearly everything was out of place, among the exceptions being several brick blocks and Hamel's hill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Mourhess now occupy the new store. Mr. Mourhess now has ample room in which to display his fine stock of jewelry, clocks, watches, etc. Mrs. Mourhess occupies one side of the store with millinery and ladies' furnishing goods.

Notwithstanding the long drouth of the past season, the potato crop on the hills is far from insignificant. It is, indeed, far better than was anticipated. About Green's Corners a considerable acreage will turn 200 bushels per acre and Mr. John P. Green is said to have had a yield even greater than that.

The C. L. S. C. will meet with Miss Spaulding Nov. 6, at 7:30 p. m. Roll call, response, quotations from Bryant. Give three facts from the week's reading in Chautauquan. Tell two facts about Italian life or customs. Answer questions No. 2 in both 4 and 12 page memorandas. Take first section of questions in October Chautauquan. Reading from Will Carleton by Miss Belle Brundage. Table talk, each bring a current topic.

The water works line is completed from the corner of Main and Centre streets to the reservoir on Van Fleet's hill. Labor on the works is progressing rapidly, about 75 men being employed. Mr. Birdseye informs us that his Bradford contract is so nearly completed that he expects to transfer his men from that place to Andover the middle of next week, thus doubling the working force here. Other things being equal, he designs to finish here by the first of December.

Have you tried our water white syrup? Beebe, Williams & Co.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past 12 years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by L. A. Burrows.
