The World's and National W. C. T. U. have just closed interesting and successful sessions at Chicago.

Last winter there were 44 poorhouses in Kansas that had no in-mates. Can any high license state improve on that?

It is said that of the 12,000 saloon keepers of New York city only 8000 have been in prison at some time.

On listening to evil reports, these five excellent rules were laid down by a good man for his own conduct:

1. To hear as little as possible whatever is to the prejudice of others.

2. To believe nothing of the kind until I am absolutely forced to it.

3. Never to drink in the spirit of one who circulates an evil report.

4. Always to moderate, as far as I

4. Always to moderate, as far as I can, the unkindliness which is ex-

The saloon stands right in the way of the development, social, mental, and moral, of the voting classes. In Boston, New York and Chicago, the saloon has already wrested the municipal government from the hands of the sober, industrious classes, and given it to the lawless, the ignorant and vicious. The inebriated and imbruted classes hold the reins, and the man who drives the brewer's wagging drives the mayor, the police, the council and the courts. The salon is the boulder resting hard against the financial prosperity of the country. Eight hundred thousand dollars for paupers; forty million dollars waste in industrial power; one hundred million dollars for the drink. Add these and you have only the approximate court of this mighty lead, which The saloon stands right in the way these and you have only the approximate cost of this mighty load which the nation has legalized and is try ing to carry.

Miss G. Jacobs is visiting relatives in Bingham, Pa.

Last week Thursday Messrs. J. J. Brown, Geo. Clark, Andrew and Albert O'Dell, Freman Green, Fred Wheeler and Jackson Updyke started for Almond about 3 a. m., dug 200 bushels of potatoes for Mr. Brown, and returned the next day. There's true grit for Green's Corners.

Last Saturday evening Elder Madison Harry received just what he deserved, a good, hearty "pounding," and it is said the infliction was as satisfactory to the victim as it was delightful to those who administered the punishment.

Edmund Livermore and his daughter, Mrs. A. L. Heseltine, and her grandson Jesse, who have been visit ing friends in this vicinity, started for their home in Alfred Centre, via. Andover, Monday. Mr. Livermore is in his 88th year and was a former resident of this place, and was one of its first settlers, who found
