

THE ANDOVER NEWS

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., Nov. 8, 1893.

The last World's Fair banquet had "potatoes a la Sarah Bernhardt" on the bill of fare, from which we infer that they were out thin.

Secretary Morton reminds the croakers that only about three per cent. of all the merchants escape failure, whereas hardly three per cent. of the farmers fail. The statistics really show; declares the Boston Cultivator, that agriculture is safer than banking, manufacturing or railroad-ing, taking all things into account. There is no farmer of good sense and good health anywhere in the west, Mr. Morton declares, who cannot make a good living for himself and family; and that is as well as the majority of men are doing in any other pursuit. The man who owns a farm and sticks to it is certain to profit by it in the future. There is practically no more land to be added to the area of civilization. The supply of agricultural products has reached its limit in the United States, and must now remain stationary, while the demand will go on increasing every year. This implies a gradual improvement in prices, and a steady appreciation of the value of farming lands.

SPRING MILLS NEWS.

In our quiet town news is not always plenty, but there is an occasional item of interest.

Mrs. M. L. Nichols of Wisconsin is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity. As this was her former home, there are many here who are glad to meet her again.

Ernest Owen, also from Wisconsin, has been home several weeks. He was called home on account of the sudden death of his father.

Mrs. Herbert Crandall of Dayton, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. B. H. Robbins, and her namesake Alice.

A few days ago there was a quiet wedding at the home of Levi Wilson, when his oldest daughter, Clara, was married to Elmer Wood of Andover. If they are happy at the rate of sixteen ounces to the pound they will be a jolly couple.

Lester Stone is repairing and building an addition to his house, which will be very convenient and cozy when completed.

John Horton is about to exchange blacksmith shops, and all wishing good work done may inquire for him on Main street, near O. B. Hubbard's store.

Our cheese factory closed Oct. 3d for the season. C. H. Austin has made cheese here steadily about nine years. Charlie is a good cheesemaker and worthy neighbor. He has bought the factory at Andover, and we wish him success in his new field.

Palmer Evans recently bought his father's farm. Palmer is an industrious farmer and we hope he will soon find the young woman who will make a good farmer's wife.

Last Saturday, while W. M. Cobb was assisting in moving a mowing machine, his fingers got caught in the wheel and crushed so badly as to render amputation necessary. Dr. Titus of Whitesville was called and removed the little finger of the left hand at the first joint.

The M. E. quarterly meeting was held Sunday, at North Bingham. We expected the minister from Andover to preach, but he not being able to be present, we had a good sermon by Elder Remington of Whitesville.

"Nothing succeeds like success," and nothing will more quickly insure success than true merit. For fifty years Ayer's Sarsaparilla has maintained its popularity as the superior blood purifier. It stands upon its own merits and never fails to give satisfaction.

MUTUAL GAS CO. LIMITED.

WHITESVILLE NEWS.

We are beginning to enjoy the comforts of gas for fuel and think we will appreciate it more as the cold weather comes on. We expect to be as lazy as the Andover people about splitting and carrying in wood, but it will be some time before we get there, though.

On Nov. 1, Elmer Wood and Clara Wilson were married at L. O. Wilson's, the bride's father.

Mrs. H. A. Crandall of Dayton, O., is visiting her sister, Mrs. B. H. Robbins, of Spring Mills.

M. E. social at the home of A. M. Grames Wednesday evening next.

The house of Mrs. Culver was destroyed by fire early Wednesday morning, Nov. 1. Nearly all her household goods were burned.

The twentieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Bartlett was celebrated Nov. 1st at the new hall, supper being served in the basement. Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett were taken wholly by surprise. The presents were many and nice, among them being a full set of dishes, also a beautiful rocking chair from Theodore Cobb, and presents from friends in Dayton, O., and Hornellsville. There were about 200 present and a nice musical program was prepared. The company wished them many more years of happy wedded life.

A Bright Lad,

Ten years of age, but who declines to give his name to the public, makes this authorized, confidential statement to us:

"When I was one year old, my mamma died of consumption. The doctor said that I, too, would soon die, and all our neighbors thought that even if I did not die, I would never be able to walk, because I was so weak and puny. A gathering formed and broke under my arm. I hurt my finger and it gathered and threw out pieces of bone. If I hurt myself so as to break the skin, I had to take lots of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has made me well and strong." T. D. M., Norcatur, Kans.
