The Water Commissioners have purchased 800 feet of fire hose, and James Owen purchased 100 feet for his own use. The hose is expected daily.

Dr. Brainard, of Andover, was in town Friday negotiating with those interested, to run a gas line to this village from Andover.—Alfred Sun.

The "Monday Club" of Wellsville proposes to establish a public library in that village, if the village trustees will provide a room in the new city building.

Mr. James McLaughlin and family, of Warren, Pa., returned home Tuesday, after a ten days' visit with the family of Mr. McLaughlin's father, Patrick McLaughlin.

On Monday the NEWS printed 500 large auction bills for M. F. Smith of Greenwood (we should call him "Hon." now.) Mr. Smith knows that advertising brings the crowd, and he will have a large sale.

The Andover Social Club has been reorganized, and will hold a series of dances the coming winter, the first of which will be held next Wednesday evening. The dances held by this club in the past have been so enjoyable that all lovers of the amusement will now prepare for a season of genuine pleasure.

Notification of the change in the form of postoffice money orders has just been sent out by the postoffice department. This introduces into the order the name of the payee, and makes the order negotiable like a bank check. The new forms will be sent to all post-offices as rapidly as the old ones which they now have are used up.

Postmaster J. C. Green and family returned on Thursday from their western trip. During their absence, while at Decatur, Mich., Mr. Green was completely prostrated by sickness—in fact he has been more or less ill most of the time since he went away. At present he is improving, and we hope to see him regain his usual health soon.

Andover never enjoyed better telegraph facilities than she has at present. The Western Union and Postal lines are both centrally located in Beebe, Williams & Co's store, with direct wires to all principal points. J. M. Beebe is manager for both lines, and those who have business to be done always find him prompt and careful in the transaction of business.
