Mr. James Cannon and Mrs. Mary Hamel, both of this place, were married Nov. 6, 1893, by Justice Kinney.

Mr. W. E. Chase of Hornellsville has been in town for a few days. He is recovering finely from his recent run of typhoid fever.

W. H. Crandall of Alfred Centre, the well known insurance agent, has been appointed District manager of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York. Mr. Crandall's headquarters will hereafter be in Hornellsville.

Miss Susie Stork of Verona, N. Y., is the guest of Miss Mattie Langworthy of Lanphear Valley.

C. H. Richardson sent his household goods to Wellsville this morning, and he and his family followed.

The town of West Union, usually Democratic, went Republican by majorities ranging from 20 to 25.

Mrs. Lyman Pitcher and little son Charley, of Crystal Springs, are visiting her sister, Mrs. W. F. Snyder.

Supervisor T. N. Boyd is in Belmont this week, attending the annual meeting of the Board of Supervisors.

Mrs. W. H. Cochrane and little son Georgie, of Rochester, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith.

Hon. A. C. Barney, Supervisor of West Union, was a welcome visitor at the News office Monday. He was on his way to Bath.

Mr. G. W. Probasco, lately of Independence, will soon move to this village, and will occupy David Davis' house on North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Yentzer of Roulette, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. J. Mory of Clara, Pa., have been visiting Andover friends during the past week.

Married at Andover, N. Y., Oct. 12th, 1893, by Rev. Wayne Brewster, Thomas Smith and Miss Nellie F. Skillman, both of Spring Mills, N. Y.

The Social Club's first dance of the season occurs this evening at Prest's opera house. C. W. Davis of Hornellsville will furnish the music.

The citizens of Belmont are to give a banquet to the Board of Supervisors and others at the hotel Belmont on Friday evening of this week.

Mrs. M. C. Williamson leaves tonight for Philadelphia, where she will receive medical treatment, which her friends hope will prove beneficial.

The subjects of the M. E. pastor's sermons next Sunday will be as follows: Morning—The Fullness of the Gospel. Evening—Argument versus Experiment.

The fire hose recently purchased by the village authorities arrived last evening, as did also that ordered by James Owen. One or two hose carts will probably be ordered soon.

A new force of Italians arrived Saturday evening, to work on the water line. Two thirds or more of the streets are now piped, and the work is to be rapidly pushed to completion.

There is abundant territory over which Andover may expand herself. Organize a Board of Trade, get some employment for labor, build new houses and see how we will "awell up."

The next regular meeting of Seamen Post G. A. R. will occur this week Saturday evening. The drum corps will furnish outdoor music, and a grand good time is expected in the hall.

Rev. J. M. Leach attended the meeting of the Olean District Conference, which was held at Olean yesterday and today. Mr. Leach read a paper on the organization of Temperance Leagues in the churches.

Many towns have greater manufacturing interests than Andover possesses, without half the advantages that we have. This place may take a position near the head of the procession if our citizens will now do a little work.

Last Sunday Stillman Burdick, wife and daughter were returning from Alfred by way of Elm Valley. When a short distance east of the latter place their horse took fright and threw the occupants out of the carriage, shaking them up considerably but not injuring them seriously. The horse turned a corner and ran to the railroad track, where he was found a short time later. The buggy and harness were considerably broken.

C. D. Leonard and Benedict are the leading dealers in best quality window glass.

Last Saturday Mr. L. L. Deming of this place underwent an operation for the removal of a cataract from one of his eyes. Dr. Mitchell of Hornellsville performed the operation. Mr. Deming's case is peculiar from the fact that the cataract existed from birth, and the operation, for that reason more difficult, was not finished, but another trial may be made later.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Durand will remove, about the first of December, to Moscow, N. Y., where Mr. Durand will engage in business. We shall be sorry to see this estimable young couple depart, and in saying it we echo the sentiments of all the people here. They will be followed to their new home by the best wishes of their numerous friends.
