All of our Cloaks are Stylish, Well Made and Warm.

We are receiving new things daily. The superior advantage in selection, which our large and varied stock affords, ought to induce you to come many miles to procure your garment of us, even if you have no other goods to buy.

Our sales in this department are considerably ahead of last season, notwithstanding the prevailing hard times and the complaints of dull trade among merchants generally. This is pretty clear evidence that our prices are right.

Particular attention given to Children's and Infants' garments. The very latest and best things for the least money.

Come and visit us at once and bring your families, especially the girls.

ARTICLE 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

Thanksgiving one week from to-morrow.

The Enterpe Club will assist at the concert next Tuesday evening.

The village trustees have placed new street lights at several points in the village.

The Wellsville Democrat will print the proceedings of the Board of Supervisors this year.

The town Supervisors hereafter elected in this State will serve two years instead of one as formerly.

The Social Club's opening dance last Tuesday night was a very enjoyable one. About forty couples were in attendance.

The annual election of officers of the Over Lodge, No. 558, F. & A. M., will be held at the communication on Friday, December 18.

There will be an Epworth League service every evening next week except Sunday at the M. E. church. Religious services of an interesting character will be held, and every young person in the village, as well as the older ones, are cordially invited to attend as many of the meetings as possible.

Mr. Oles renders "Nearer My God to Thee" in imitation of a vocal quartette.

A union Thanksgiving service will be held in the M. E. church. Sermon by the pastor.

Two different tunes played at the same time on one violin. This Mr. Oles positively does.

Last Sunday a change was made in the time of Erie train 1, which now leaves Andover station at 8:26 p. m.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are making unusual preparations for their fair to be held about the 14th of December.

The Water commissioners received last week a machine for tapping the water line. It taps the pipe without the loss of any water.

The Presbyterian parsonage on East Avenue is nearly completed, and it is expected the building will be ready for occupancy next week.

At the meeting to organize a hose company last evening, there was a good attendance, and a preliminary organization effected with ten charter members. Another meeting will be held Thursday evening to further perfect the organization.

The Young People's Societies of Christian Endeavor within the bounds of the Steuben Presbytery will hold a conference in the Presbyterian church at Canisteo on Tuesday, Dec. 5, 1893. Every Presbyterian Endeavorer in Steuben and Allegany counties is invited.

The water commissioners have ordered a hose cart from Hanrahan Bros. of Wellsville. It will take two or three weeks to complete it, and in the meantime we will have the use of an old cart which will be sent from Wellsville, and which is expected here today.

A number of the members of the Canaseraga fire department have signified their intention of being present when the test of the Andover water works is made. Undoubtedly other firemen in this vicinity will also be present. We assure them all a cordial welcome.

As the music which will be rendered by Hickey's Hornellsville orchestra at the Social Club's party next Tuesday evening, will be worth hearing by those who do not dance, the Club has decided to charge an admission price of 25 cents for spectators. There is no doubt that the entertainment will be well worth the price.

The case of J. W. Wood of Arkport, son of N. P. Wood of Andover, against the city of Hornellsville, for damages for injuries sustained by plaintiff in falling on a defective sidewalk in Hornellsville, is expected to be tried in Corning this week unless a settlement is reached between the parties, of which there appears to be some prospect.

F. M. Bassett of Seaman Post, 481, G. A. R., of Andover, has been appointed Deputy Inspector of the organization, for the following Posts: S. T. Bartle Post 183, of Cuba, and B. Frank Maxson Post 428 of Alfred Centre. Russell Tremaine of Wellsville is also a Deputy Inspector, and his territory includes Seaman Post of Andover.

The Andover Social Club will give a grand Thanksgiving ball on Tuesday evening, Nov. 28. Hickey's celebrated orchestra of Hornellsville has been engaged, and it will not be necessary to tell those who have heard this noted musical organization anything about it. Those who have not "tripped the light fantastic toe" accompanied by the sweet strains of melody produced by it, have not yet reached the possibilities open to lovers of the dance. It is safe to predict one of the greatest successes of this or any other season, upon the date mentioned, and the managers will spare no pains to have everything pass off smoothly.

The banquet given to the Board of Supervisors by the citizens of Belmont, at the hotel Belmont, last Friday evening, was just what everybody expected—a grand success. The supervisors, county officials, numerous representatives of the bar and press, and many prominent citizens of the county were present. The menu was elaborate and well served. After-dinner speeches were made by F. M. Todd of Cuba, D. D. Dixon and Fred A. Robbins of Angelica, O. A. Fuller and F. H. Church of Wellsville, D. A. Stebbins of Almond, E. J. Norton of Scio, Geo. A. Green, V. A. Willard and S. H. Tracy of Belmont, G. W. Fries and A. Miner Wellman of Friendship, and others. District Attorney Brown was toast-master. The managers of the Belmont and the citizens of Belmont know how to entertain their guests and make the people feel at home.

Fresh candy at C. & B's.

The subjects of the sermons at the M. E. church next Sunday will be as follows: Morning, "What is Life?" Evening, "The Word as a Healing Power."
