

Rockwell Bros.

All of our Cloaks are Stylish, Well Made and Warm.
We are receiving new things daily.
The superior advantage in selection, which our large and varied stock affords, ought to induce you to come many miles to procure your garment of us, even if you have no other goods to buy.
Our sales in this department are considerably ahead of last season, notwithstanding the prevailing hard times and the complaints of dull trade among merchants generally. This is pretty clear evidence that our prices are right.
Particular attention given to Children's and Infants' garments. The very latest and best things for the least money.
Come and visit us at once and bring your families, especially the girls.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 23, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

RULE 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

RULE 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.
RULE 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

Thanksgiving.

You can hear Thanksgiving comin' with the jolliest kind o' sound;
You can hear the turkey holler for a mile or two around.

For he knows that he is in it, as he has been in the past,
An' he thinks that every minute is jes' sure to be his last!

You can hear Thanksgiving comin' with a rush an' with a roar,
An' the knives and forks a hummin' as we pass the plate for more!

O, it's jolly every minute, in the North an' in the South,
For the turkey gobblers in it, an' we're waterin' at the mouth!

—Atlanta Constitution.

Don't forget to attend Thanksgiving service to-morrow at the M. E. church.
If there is a gas light in the street near your house don't forget to keep the gas burning.

The ladies of the Baptist church will serve a Thanksgiving dinner at the church parlors tomorrow.

Prof. H. C. Ford of Hornellsville, Grand Councilor of the I. O. O. F. of this State, will speak in the M. E. church in this village on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, December 6 and 7. Everybody invited.

Andover has a water supply sufficient for 5,000 persons. What we need now is the other 4,000 people.

The Woman's Relief Corps will hereafter meet at 7:30 p. m. The annual election of officers occurs this week Saturday evening.

The annual election of officers of Edward Seaman Post, No. 481, G. A. R., will occur at the regular meeting to be held this week Saturday evening.

Fowler & Remington have a few words to say in their advertisement, which you can find without looking far. Keep one eye on their space.

J. W. Wood's suit against the city of Hornellsville, which was set down for trial last week at Corning, was put over the term, owing to the illness of Mr. Wood's attorney.

The water commissioners will soon be ready to receive applications for the use of water in residences. It is thought a large number of connections may be made this winter.

The subjects of the sermons at the M. E. church next Sunday will be as follows: Morning, No Rock Like Christ. Evening, At union service, A Symmetrical Life.

W. F. Snyder has purchased the house on Elm street lately owned by M. A. Woodbury of Ord, Neb., and now occupied by M. McTighe. Mr. Snyder is building a barn on the premises.

Holiday advertisements are now in order. The News reaches about 330 families who get mail at Andover post-office, and we also have large lists at all the vicinity postoffices. If you want to reach the people advertise in the News.

The Board of Education last Saturday purchased a fine piano of E. A. Osborn of Wellsville, which was placed in the school building the same day. The organ heretofore used by the school was turned in as partial payment for the piano.

The long distance telephone wires, which have been strung on the poles through this place for several weeks, were connected to instruments in the office last Saturday, and Andoverites may now talk with people at almost any point between New York and Chicago.

The Mutual Company's well on Eugene Warfield's farm is not down as far as would be expected at this time, owing to immense quantities of salt water, found about 450 feet below the surface, which had to be cased off. It will be several days yet before the sand is reached.

As will be seen by an article in another column, H. G. Stillman of Almond, brother of Dr. E. M. Stillman of this place, has been appointed postmaster at Almond. Mr. Stillman has numerous friends and acquaintances in Andover, who will embrace the first opportunity to—well, to smoke with the new P. M.

The Thanksgiving party given last evening by the Andover Social Club scored several points ahead of anything in the dance line previously given in Andover. Hickey's Hornellsville orchestra made entrancing music, and the affair was so well arranged and managed by those in charge that nothing was wanting to complete the evening's enjoyment. A fine supper was served at the American house. Over forty couples attended, other places in this vicinity being well represented.

A walk taken around this village will convince anyone that water for putting out fire is available at any point in the village. The streets are abundantly supplied with hydrants, and we haven't the slightest doubt that property owners feel safer as far as loss by fire is concerned than they have ever felt before. Of course, the line is not extended as far in some directions as could be wished, but the commissioners have done all that the means at hand would allow. Extensions will doubtless be made as soon as possible.

The concert given last evening at the Baptist church by the violinist, G. W. Oles, assisted by his wife and local talent, was one of the most enjoyable entertainments given in Andover in many months. Mr. Oles' reputation as a violinist was fully sustained, and his performance was listened to with almost breathless attention. Mrs. Oles is a vocalist of unusual ability, being possessed of a wonderfully sweet and melodious voice. Among the features rendered by local talent were an anthem by the Baptist choir, a selection by the Euterpe club, a recitation by Miss Sarah Barney and a vocal quartette by Messrs. H. P. Bundy, A. P. Wood, H. A. Benedict and Frank Burrows.

Nearly every number on the program was appreciated by the audience, and it was a rare opportunity to listen to Mr. Oles and his wife.

The Young Men's Home, No. 30 Niagara Square, will have its annual session day on Wednesday, when the superintendent, Father Walsh, will deeply appreciate a call from all friends of the institution and will be grateful for whatever generosity they may see fit to evince toward his special charge. —Buffalo Express.

At an adjourned meeting of the hose company, held last Thursday evening over W. H. Phillips' store, it was decided to name the organization the Citizens Hose Company. Three trustees were elected, as follows: E. J. Atwood, P. C. Lynch, W. H. Phillips. The Board of Village Trustees has confirmed the organization, and the company will be incorporated at once. The election of officers will take place at a future meeting.
