

THE ANDOVER NEWS

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., Dec. 6, 1893.

An Iowa murderer, being sentenced to prison for life, asked the judge to change the sentence to hanging. Evidently he has not heard the argument of those who contend that criminals favor the abolition of the death penalty.

An authority on the latest proportions of the human form, divine or otherwise, says: "The ears should be placed so as not to be higher than the eyebrows or lower than the tip of the nose." People who are dressing for a party should not forget this.

A western instance of exalted conscientiousness was recently manifested in the case of Mr. Jacob Hayton, of Mount Vernon, Wash. A few days ago the state land commission received from him three dollars, accompanied by an apologetic statement that he had cut a cedar tree on school land in Skagit county, not discovering he was a few feet over the line until too late. He estimated the extent of the damage at three dollars, and remitted this amount to cover it.

A farmer in China, Me., recently heard smothered squawking in his henhouse and 'twas at midnight. He found the henhouse door ajar, and sounds indicated that the intruder was still within. Therefore the farmer slammed the door, bolted it, and posted himself outside the henhouse until morning did appear. Then he looked in the window and discerned a neighbor, who came copitritely forth and paid the farmer twenty-eight dollars for time, loss of sleep, etc. Still people say there is no money in farming!

Every instructor at Chautauqua is required to fill out a paper answering a number of necessary and unnecessary questions. One year there was a remarkably handsome male member of the faculty in whom all the girl students were much interested. "Is he married or unmarried?" became an all-absorbing question. Finally some of them had the courage to approach the secretary and ask if the files might be looked over. And there the handsome professor, anticipating, perhaps, some such investigation, had recorded his matrimonial pretensions as follows: "Married or single?—Yes."

A Republican Love Feast.

Last Friday evening, by invitation of the Senators and Members of Assembly-elect from Erie county, all of the newly elected members of the State Legislature from Western New York gathered at the hotel Iroquois at Buffalo, to get acquainted with each other. The meeting was for purely social purposes and questions of politics and patronage were not discussed. The meeting brought out the singular fact that of the 25 or 30 members of the Legislature elected in Western N. Y., this fall, the Monroe county members are almost the only ones who are not new men. Those present included every Senator and Assemblyman-elect from Western New York, except Senator Higgins of this District and Assemblyman Smith of Orleans county. Prominent Republicans who do not hold office were also present from different points.

Speeches were made by many of those present, among whom were Assemblyman Fred A. Robbins of this county. Those present from Allegany county were Mr. Robbins, W. J. Glenn of Cuba, County Treasurer-elect Charles Ricker, Clarence Ricker of New Hudson and Charles A. Ball of Wellsville.

Just think of it! Two pounds of good coffee and a copper bottomed camp pot for 75 cents at Beebe, Williams & Co's.

New stock of glassware at C. & B's. New England pie preparation at Beebe, Williams & Co's.

Of all the weekly papers published in the interest of women, the most interesting, select, and ably edited is The American Woman, of which Mary and Margaret Bland are the founders and editors. It is a handsome sixteen page paper, profusely illustrated with half-tone engravings and etchings, and its columns are replete with stories, editorials and poems of many of the ablest writers of the day. Some of its features are quite unique, while all are high-class; and it has been correctly described as the central organ for recording all news of moment concerning women's philanthropies, education, sport, travel, fashion and music. The illustrations of the fashion department are admirably done and unusually interesting and practical because they are chiefly taken from the most fashionable modistes and costumers in New York—in a word, they show week by week just what is actually being worn in the metropolis. The American Woman is now a familiar friend in many of the best homes, and is in every way worthy of the enlightened name it bears. The subscription price is $4.00 a year and is a good investment for any intellectual woman to make, if she wishes to keep well-informed and up-to-date in all that most interests her. The publishers announce that they will gladly send a sample copy upon receipt of 10 cents. Address, The American Woman, Broadway and Eighteenth street, New York City.

A little daughter of Mrs. Keating-of-Salamanda was in the kitchen of her mother's house alone last Friday, when something in the stove exploded, throwing the covers off and overturning a kettle of boiling water on the little girl. She was burned very badly about the face and arms. Her mother, who was married to G. Keating on Wednesday, was on her wedding trip.

INFLUENZA,

Or La Grippe, though occasionally epidemic, is always more or less prevalent. The best remedy for this complaint is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Last Spring, I was taken down with La Grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I begun taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete. It is truly a wonderful medicine.—W. H. WILLIAMS, Crook City, S. D.
