CHRISTMAS ITEMS.

This is a year of intrenchment, and Christmas purchases will be confined strictly to articles of necessity, utility and comfort. Our store is brim full of just this kind of merchandise and nothing else.

We look for an unusually large Christmas trade, and have made correspondingly great plans, such as increased stock and clerk service, also in the re-arrangement of the interior of our store.

We cordially invite you to visit us during Christmas week.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

David Davis is very sick with the grip.

There is much sickness in this place and vicinity.

Mr. F. E. Martin of Alfred Centre was in town yesterday.

The meeting of the C. L. S. C. has been postponed until further notice.

D. K. Porter's ad. will interest everybody in this village. Don't fail to read it.

Mr. Geo. H. Beebe will hereafter be found in the store of Beebe, Williams & Co.

Mrs. M. C. Williamson returned home last week, very much improved in health.

Miss Nellie Hincer has been very ill for a few days past. She was a trifle easier this morning.

All Christmas festivities at the M.
E. church were dispensed with this year as a mark of respect to the mem-

Mr. Edward Hardy came home from Geneva to spend the holidays.

Mr. F. S. Potter came home from Chicago last week to spend Christmas.

Mr. Eugene Lee and family of Wells-ville spent Christmas with Andover relatives.

Misses Lizzie and Nora Troy of Olean are visiting at the home of Mr.

E. F. Stearns.

The Allegany County G. A. R. Association will hold its annual meeting at Belmont Dec. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Porter spent

Christmas in town. Mrs. Porter will remain a few days.

Mrs. Walter Lanphear has been sick with the grip for the past two weeks, but is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Richardson of Richburg, are happy over the arrival at their home of a bright girl baby.

The thermometer took a sudden tumble Monday night, and the "going"

has been simply horrible ever since.
The pastor's subjects at the M. E.

Church Dec. 31 will be: Morning, A Spiritual Inventory. Evening, A Royal Guest.

Mr. E. J. Atwood is among those who have been compelled to remain in doors on account of sickness. He is out again now.

The dance given by the social club last evening was up to the standard of these popular entertainments. Supper was served by Mrs. Delaney.

The Andover band is improving under the leadership of Mr. Bloss. Meetings are held twice a week. The band has just received a choice lot of new music.

Monday evening the clothing stock of Fay & Beltz in Wellsville was damaged by fire. The flames were controlled before they had gained much headway.

By a recent decision of the State board of underwriters, the rates for insurance in Allegany county have been increased 15 to 33 per cent. over the present rate.

ty"—Nunda News. Yes, about a thousand feet. Danville News. Turkeys have gone down, however, during the past week.

Married, Dec. 21st, 1893, at Alfred Centre, by Rev. Mr. Platt, Mr. Selah

B. Stillman of Almond, and Miss Gertrude E. Green of Alfred. The happy couple is receiving the congratulations of their many friends.

Next week Saturday evening the Andover cornet band will give a concert at Prest's opera house. Vocal and instrumental music, and a laughable farce will constitute the program. Look out for further announcements.

The jail committee, consisting of Supervisors Holden of Rushford, Horner of Belmont and Boyd of Andover, met at the Kinney House in this village

Monday, and talked over matters relating to the work assigned them.

HOLIDAY ADVICE

Every face at home and every glance at our windows suggests the great question, "What Shall I Get or Give for Christmas?" Let fate and friends look after the get, you look after the give, that's the part most blessed. A visit to our store will prove to be a helping hand to all wishing to make durable Holiday gifts.
