YOUR OPPORTUNITY.

Those who have visited this year until after the Holidays, have for once been quite fortunate, as our stock is still very large, owing to the mild weather of late.

The following will give an idea of the concession in prices we are making to reduce the surplus:

8	Jackets marked	$ 2.98
10	"	5.88
12.50	"	6.95
15	"	9.35
18	Plush Sacques	11.88
		12.00

Children's Garments,
Ladies' Capes,
Shawls and Muffs.

Everything in the wrap line subject to a heavy reduction in price.

MILLINERY.

All trimmed and untrimmed hats at actual cost.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Pair of glasses found. Enquire at this office.

The pond was full of skaters New Years Day.

Remember the band concert Saturday evening.

Many of the merchants are taking annual inventory of stock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Swain of Canaseraga are visiting friends here.

John L. Sullivan passed through Andover this morning on train 3.

Mrs. T. M. Comstock is, and has been for the past week, confined to her bed.

Mr. S. E. Cook and family of Castile are visiting the family of Mr. Ed. Swain of this place.

The Postal and Western Union telegraph offices will remain in Beebe, Williams & Co's store.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Beebe of Spring Mills, were in Andover a couple of days the first of this week.

Rev. Mr. Van Scoter of Hornellsville occupied the Presbyterian pulpit last Sunday evening, and preached an able sermon.

Mr. E. Bennett and son of Topeka, Kas., were in town a couple of days the first of this week. Mr. Bennett will be remembered by many as a former resident of Andover.

A fine program has been issued for the third annual meeting of the Western New York Breeders' Association, which occurs at Hornellsville Jan. 10 and 11, and many interested persons from this vicinity will doubtless attend.

Mr. M. K. Brundage of Helena, Montana, is visiting Mr. B. C. Brundage.

The roads, which have recently been very rough are getting smoothed down some.

Mrs. J. W. Hawkins of Wellsville is in town caring for her sick father, who is slowly improving.

Mrs. L. H. Thompson went to Savona Sunday, being called there by the illness of her mother.

Miss Helen Hardy, who is attending school at Oswego, N. Y., spent the holidays at her home in this village.

We send out a few sample copies of the News this week. Those who receive them are respectfully asked to subscribe.

The Wellsville Reporter has been enlarged one column to the page, substantial evidence of prosperity which we are glad to see.

Next week will be the week of prayer, and union services will be held every evening, beginning Sunday evening at the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Van Gorder of Elmira are visiting Mrs. Van Gorder's mother, Mrs. F. F. Hunt, and other relatives and friends here.

During the past few days there has been a change for the worse in the condition of Mr. Daniel Boyd. It is hoped the decline may be but temporary.

Miss Roxie Bundy returned to her school duties at Painted Post Monday morning, after spending about ten days at her home in this place.

At the M. E. church next Sunday morning the pastor's subject will be "The Water of Life." In the evening there will be union service at the Baptist church.

Mrs. E. O. Voorhies of Olean was called to Andover last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hall. She was accompanied by her little daughter Grace.

Rev. G. M. Jones is able to use his feet for walking purposes again, although they are not of as much use to him as they used to be. We hope he will continue to improve.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bundy and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Richardson attended the ball held by the Benedicts and Bachelors of Wellsville, Friday evening of last week. They report the finest time imaginable.

Messrs. Geo. E. Brown of this place and Wm. B. Mosher, late of Babcock Mills in Hornellsville, have formed a partnership, and propose to operate the new mill in this village lately built by Mr. Brown.

Postmaster Green still holds the fort. We heard a Democrat say yesterday that he wouldn't give much to be appointed postmaster at Andover, as the time he could serve would be too short to make it much of an object!

Mr. C. H. Richardson of Wellsville was in town Sunday. He stated that his wife was recently considerably injured by falling down a flight of stairs at their home in Wellsville. It is hoped her injuries will not prove serious.

Mr. Miles F. Livermore, son of James Livermore of Independence, who has been in Hornellsville for the past couple of years, is now in the store of Peebe, Williams & Co. He will have charge of the telegraph business for the present.

Mr. E. B. Dean, who is connected with the Riverlawn Sanitarium in Paterson, N. J., was greeting his many friends in Andover last week. It is needless to say he received a warm welcome during his short stay. He returned to Paterson Friday evening.

The horse driven by the mail carrier from West Union ran away yesterday noon. He was standing in front of the postoffice, and becoming frightened ran around the corner into Elm street. He broke loose from the buggy and ran to the corner of Church street where he was stopped. No serious damage was done.

On account of next week being the week of prayer the C. L. S. C. will meet Saturday evening, January 6, with Emma Conn. The program will be as follows: Song, No. 9; Quotations from New Years; Give one fact from each article of the week's reading in the Chautauquan. Answer questions three and four in four-page memoranda, also five and six in twelve-page memoranda; twelve questions and answers in January Chautauquan answers on Italian art-questions in December Chautauquan. Life of Lucy Stone, Mrs. Phillips; Reading, New Year's Day, by Mrs. Clark, table talk, Women's Day.

The following officers have been elected for the M. E. Sunday School for the ensuing year: Superintendent, Erwin Baker; Assistant Superintendent, Chas. Robinson; Secretary, L. A. Burrows; Treasurer, Mrs. Chas. Cochran; Collector, Maud Williamson; Chorister Chas. Robinson; Organist, Mrs. L. A. Burrows; Assistant Organist, Wilma Wright; Librarian, Earl Leach.

The Andover Cornet Band will give a concert at Prest's opera house Saturday evening of this week. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used to pay the band's teacher. As the boys are under considerable expense for rent, fuel, etc., in addition to the amount paid their teacher, they have a right to expect a little help from the citizens and propose to give them value received upon the occasion above referred to. See bills for full particulars of concert.
