DYSPEPSIA

Is that misery experienced when suddenly made aware that you possess a diabolical arrangement called stomach. No two dyspeptics have the same predominant symptoms, but whatever form dyspepsia takes

The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing is certain no one will remain a dyspeptic who will Start the Liver working and all bodily ailments will disappear.

"For more than three years I suffered with Dyspepsia in its worst form. I tried several doctors, but they afforded no relief. At last I tried Simmons' Liver Regulator, which cured me in a short time. It is a good medicine. I would not be without it."—JAMES A. ROANS, Philad'a, Pa.

"As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and it has never been pointed out in the effect produced. It seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels."

VICINITY NEWS.

A Few Things That Have Happened Within in One or Two Hundred Miles of Here.

Robert S. Armstrong has been appointed postmaster at Cuba. He is the law partner of F. M. Todd.

A student named Coon at Alfred University became insane last week and was taken to the asylum. His parents live at Nile.

Charles Stillman of Alfred Centre was elected Secretary of the Allegany County Farmers' Club at its recent meeting held at Friendship.

Alfred University will receive $70,000 from the estate of the late George H. Babcock of Plainfield, N. J., whose death was recently published.

Chas. Ricker has made arrangements to establish the county treasurer's office in Belmont. He will probably hold his headquarters in the Surrogate's office.

The semi-annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Allegany county will meet with the Union at Richburg on Wednesday and Thursday, January 24 and 25, 1894.

Buffalo has raised a fund of over $50,000 for her destitute citizens. Rochester and other cities are raising funds to provide for the needy, as there is now a great call for assistance from the families of hundreds of thousands who are out of work.

The Friendship Register says: "We are informed that Judge Norton will be asked to hold a term of court at Angelica. Of course he will refuse and will then be mandamus, thus bringing the whole question of half-shire and new jail before the Supreme Court."

Sidney Ossoski, editor of the Hornellsville Evening Press, was arrested last week and taken before Judge Robinson at Canisteo to answer to the charge of criminal libel, brought against him by the Hon. F. D. Sherwood. Ossoski was placed under $500 bail to appear before the next Court of Sessions, which will convene in Corning in February. His father and Eugene Schaul are his bondsmen. Charles A. Dolson will probably be his counsel.

The annual meeting of Allegany County G. A. R. Association was held at Grand Army Hall, in Belmont, on the afternoon of Dec. 28. The seventeen Posts of the county, were represented by twenty-seven delegates. The following officers were elected for the following year: President, J. W. Marsh, of Alfred; 1st vice, Lavern Burdick; 2nd vice, Geo. A. Green; Officer of the Day, Comrade Waters. The next meeting of the Association will be held at Andover at such time as the officers designate.

Reports from the lumber camps of Pennsylvania state that there is an unprecedented rush of men about the lumber camps in search of work. They come in droves, traveling from camp to camp. The applicants include artisans and mechanics of almost every description whose regular vocations are destroyed by the hard times, and who wander through the log district with the hope of securing work. It is seldom that inexperienced men find work on log jobs, as there is an over-abundance of experienced lumbermen who work in the mills during the winter seasons.

The Standard-Oil Company is about to begin a vast oil and gas operation in Northern Pennsylvania. A dispatch states that the company has leased a three-cornered strip, extending from Bradford, in McKean county, to Brooklyn, Susquehanna county. This will include Jefferson, Elk and Cameron counties and a part of Clearfield, Clinton, Tioga and Potter, and a strip of Sullivan and all of Bradford county, lying south of Towanda. This will cover all the territory in Northern Pennsylvania where there are surface indications of oil or gas, and prospecting will at once begin on a very extensive scale.

F. Dunham, of Canisteo, has been arrested on the charge of forgery. He presented a check bearing the signature of A. B. Magee at the Citizens' Bank in Hornellsville. A person presented such a check to that bank some six months ago, and got $50, the face value, which was never recovered to be found and

In the arrest of Dunham who was identified by the bank officials and will have an examination on January 14th. Arthur Nicholson a clerk in the bank captured the man after a great deal of detective work.

A dispatch from Wellsville to the New York Sun says: Last fall Mervin Winans of this place went to Crawford county, Pa., to enjoy a week's hunt with his friend, Oscar Randolph, of that county. One day they were hunting rabbits, and Randolph started a rabbit and fired at it. He missed the rabbit, but killed Winan's face and neck with shot. Winans being in range of the gun. The wounded man was laid up for a long time, and when he got out again he brought suit against Randolph to recover $10,000 damages for the latter's wild shot at the rabbit. The case has just been tried at Meadville, and the jury gave Winans judgment for $1,500 and costs.

On Wednesday afternoon a tramp called at the house of Mrs. Dana Mathews of Friendship, and asked for something to eat. His request having been granted, he prepared to leave, but seemed suddenly to change his mind, picked up a flatiron and struck Mrs. Mathews behind the right ear, felling her to the floor. He then grabbed her by the hair of the head and threatened to kill her if she made any outcry. Mrs. Mathews managed to free herself, but fell in a faint near the door. The tramp became alarmed and quickly departed. Parties soon started on pursuit and captured the man at Belvidere. He was brought back late the same night, and was identified by Mrs. Mathews. He gave his name as William Barrett of Hornellsville. He was indicted by the grand jury at Belmont Thursday on a charge of assault with intent to kill. Barrett is an old offender and has been in State prison.

Important to Property Owners.

Insurance Policy holders will please take notice that in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, Insurance Companies doing business in this State but located in some other State or Country are obliged to refund 2 per cent. of premiums, paid to such Companies, to the Fire Department of the town. Also take notice that it is optional with companies located in this State whether they pay the same amount, but some of the Companies located in this State have already agreed to pay the 2 per cent., the same as the foreign Companies.

It amounts to a return of a certain amount to be used in home improvements. Let each policy holder, who is insured by companies outside of the State adjust their policies so we may receive benefit from the premiums paid.

L. A. BURROWS, Sec'y Hose Co.

We Pay the Premiums.

The companies represented by the Andover Agency, whether located in New York State or not, will pay 2 per cent. of all net premiums collected in this village to the Andover fire department.

H. E. MINER, Agent.

Prompt Payment.

ANDOVER, N. Y., Jan. 9, 1894.
W. H. CRANDALL, District Manager
Equitable Life Assurance Society.

DEAR SIR: I desire to thank your company and yourself for the promptness in paying policy held by my late husband in my favor, the same being paid 10 days after his death. This prompt and courteous manner of paying claims is certainly deserving of the highest commendation. Yours Truly,
MRS. JASON M. BEEBE.

We mean business.

PERRY & PRYOR.

F. E. COMSTOCK, M. D.
Will be pleased to receive the Death of Daniel Boyd.

Mr. Daniel Boyd died at his home in this town at 3:30 o'clock Monday morning, Jan. 8, 1894, of consumption. He had been ill for a number of months and has been gradually declining for some time. Last summer he went to Colorado in the hope of receiving benefit from a change of climate, but did not remain there long. Since coming home there have been times when he seemed better, but there was no permanent improvement.

Mr. Boyd was 49 years old, and was highly respected in his community. He was in every way a worthy citizen. He leaves a widow, two sons and two daughters to mourn their loss.

The funeral services were held yesterday at the Presbyterian church in this village, and the edifice was scarcely large enough to hold those who attended. Rev. G. M. Janes officiated, assisted by Rev. J. M. Leach.

The bereaved family have the sympathy of all in their affliction.

Baldwin Bros. Bank Closed.

The Bank of Wellsville, owned by Baldwin Brothers, at Wellsville, closed its doors yesterday morning. The announcement created much excitement in Andover, as several business men in this place were depositors in this bank, among whom were Messrs. Snyder & Clark, Fowler & Remington, D. K. Porter and J. C. Ross. Some of these firms' deposits were very heavy.

The Reporter says the Baldwins closed their bank voluntarily because they did not desire to do a losing business any longer. A statement in the paper from one of the partners is to the effect that if allowed to wind up their own affairs they will be able to pay everything and have something left. It is to be hoped this result may be realized, but in this, as in all other similar cases, time alone will tell the true situation. It is rarely that creditors receive 100 cents on the dollar after a suspension in business, or failure, but, as we said before, we hope that in this case they will do so.
