THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Mrs. W. G. Young of Hornellsville was in Andover yesterday.

A boy baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dodge on Monday night.

B. S. Baker is moving into John Hawkins' house at the north end of the village today.

Frohman's Comedy Company Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights at Prest's opera house.

Mr. J. J. Warfield has removed to this village and occupies a part of D. Remington's house.

The new hose cart arrived last week. It is very handsome in appearance and is substantially made.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan. Cooper of West Chester, Pa., visited Andover friends during the past week.

County Clerk Green was in Andover Saturday evening, and "mustered in" the newly elected officers of Seaman's G. A. R.

Mr. A. Diffin spent New Years in Andover by the invitation of friends, after which he made a business trip southward and returned Saturday.

At the M. E. Church next Sunday the pastor will preach in the morning on "The way of the Lord," and in the evening on "Christ's Mission to the World."

Wesley Wells, a former resident of Andover, died January 1st, 1894, at West Chester, Pa. He had been working at West Chester, Pa., and had relatives at Nelson, N. J. He was visiting when he became sick with pneumonia. He was 60 years old, and left Andover 10 years ago.

Mount P. A. Collins, Elizabeth Clarke and F. M. Lee of this place, are among those in attendance at the Breeders' Meeting in Hornellsville.

Mr. F. P. Cole secured the contract for building the sheds for the use of members of the Catholic church in this place. They will be built on the church lot, and the work will begin at once.

The union services at the M. E. Church this week are unusually well attended, and are seasons of great spiritual profit. They will be continued through the week except Saturday night.

Hattie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stillman Burdick, was 12 years old last Saturday, and a number of her young friends were invited to help her celebrate the event. A merry time was had by those present.

Mr. T. McTighe has purchased a residence in Hornellsville, and will soon remove to that place. We regret to announce the departure of Mr. McTighe and family from Andover, but heartily join their many friends in wishing them abundant prosperity.

Mrs. H. S. Smith has returned from Springwater where she went to attend the marriage of Miss Zoe Wetmore of that place to Mark M. Bowles of Cohocton. Many persons will remember Mrs. Bowles as living with Mrs. Smith and attending school here, about five years ago.

The band concert last Saturday evening was well attended, and the entertainment was first class in every way. Master Fay Bloss, the six-year old lad who played a snare drum solo, brought down the house. The proceeds will make a nice addition to the band's treasury.

Frohman's Comedy Company will appear at Prest's opera house in this village Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week, in a repertoire of new and popular comedy dramas, opening Thursday night with the laughable Irish Comedy entitled, "Rory Agra." Admission 25 cents, Children 15 cents.

Florence, the four-and-one-half year old daughter of Mr. J. C. Closssey of Canisteo, died yesterday of scarlet fever at Hornellsville. The little one was visiting in the latter place, where she contracted the disease. The funeral will be held tomorrow. Mr. Closssey has many friends in Andover who will be grieved to learn of the death of his bright little daughter.

Rev. J. H. Hathaway, the celebrated Canadian Evangelist, will assist the pastor in holding a series of revival meetings in the M. E. church, beginning early in February. Rev. Hathaway is a most earnest and successful worker as an evangelist. He is a power in exhortation and an evangel of song. He assisted Rev. Leach last winter in Hinsdale, and one hundred and forty professed conversion.

We regret to learn that Mr. F. E. Wooding, who for nearly a year past has been in the dry goods business at the old Hoyt location, has decided to close his store here. This determination is arrived at, owing to the distance between Wellsville and ReRoy, and the difficulty in personally looking after interests so divided. All our people will be sorry, indeed, to have the old Hoyt store closed to business. — Wellsville Reporter.

The Wellsville Reporter says a movement is on foot to have the West Union, Independence and Putnam Valley mail carried from Wellsville instead of Andover. It doesn't matter much whether mail for these places goes from Andover or Wellsville, so long as the service is good, but it is doubtful if the change is made. It makes considerable extra work for the postmaster, with practically no increase in compensation.

The Chautauque Circle will meet with Mrs. F. S. Clark next Monday evening, or if there are to be meetings next week, the circle will meet at 8 p. m. The program will be as follows: Quotations from Caesar; what Constantine did for Christianity, Miss Brundage; childhood and youth of Constantine, Mrs. Ross; Description of Rome in Constantine's day, Mrs. Pease; life of Constantine during his reign, Miss Freeborn; answer questions five and six in four-page memoranda, also questions 7, 8, 5, 3 and 54 in 12-page memoranda; 12 questions and answers in January Chautauque; answer questions in the December Chautauque, the circle of sciences; reading, "A Father's Remorse," by Mrs. Benedict.
