How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot be had without a healthy liver. When the liver is torpid the bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood, frequent headaches ensue, a feeling of lassitude, drowsiness and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Financier's Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring many people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy. NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

As a general remedy for dyspepsia, torpid liver, constipation, etc., I highly recommend it. I have never been disappointed in its use. It is almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the stomach and bowels.

Mr. Daniel Boyd.
Mr. Daniel Boyd, whose death was announced in last week's paper, was born in Ireland August 12, 1844, and came to this country with his parents when but four years of age. In October, 1868, he was married to Miss Janie White, of South Howard, who, with four children, now survives him. Some years ago he had a severe attack of pneumonia which left him an easy prey to consumption, the disease from which he finally died. Last summer, realizing that that disease was making slow but sure progress, after mature deliberation he took a trip to Colorado and other points west, hoping thereby to prolong his life if nothing more. At first it seemed as if this would be accomplished, as many encouraging letters were received from him, some of which were published in the NEWS, but as time went on it became evident that his disease was returning with even more violence than ever, and he came back, as he said, to die, if he must, with his family. The event proved that he had reached home none too soon. From that time on there was a steady decline. The best of medicine, attendance and the ministrations of the kindest and most loving friends were of no avail and on Monday morning, the 8th inst. at about half past three o'clock, he breathed his last.

It is not enough to say that Mr. Boyd was an honest, upright man and greatly respected in the community in which he lived. He was more than that—he was a christian man, for many years a member of the Presbyterian church, and his sick room was a room of prayer, and of the kindest and tenderest counsel. No one could have been more indulgent as a husband and father and no one was more appreciative of home and its privileges. While anxious to live for the sake of his family, he was willing to die. "Not my will, but thine, be done."

The funeral was attended on Tuesday afternoon, the 9th inst. in the Presbyterian church, and the edifice, although the notice was so short that many did not know of it, was packed to its utmost capacity. The service was conducted by Rev. G. M. James, assisted by Rev. J. M. Leach.

For the many expressions of sympathy and the kind offices of neighbors and friends so truly bestowed during our great affliction, we tender our sincerest thanks.

MRS. DANIEL BOYD AND FAMILY.
The Baldwins Make an Assignment.

William and Sumner Baldwin, owners of the Bank of Wellsville which closed its doors last week, made a general assignment on Saturday to J. D. Rathbone of Wellsville, a brother-in-law. Two suits were begun against them by creditors, thus forcing an assignment. The schedule of assets and liabilities will be awaited with interest. Among the funds on deposit at this bank was the money collected for taxes in the town of Wellsville amounting to about $1,000. It seems hardly probable that the collector or his bondsmen can be made to suffer this loss, as the bank was supposed to be a safe depository, and it cannot be claimed that the collector has not "well and faithfully discharged his duties."

Upon the statement of the bankers themselves there now appears but slight hopes of paying creditors in full, as they stated in substance that they could only hope to do so if allowed to wind up their own affairs, and realize the value of their property, without incurring the expenses attending an assignment.

Nature should be assisted to throw out impurities of the blood. Try Abbott's of Harman's 1874 Tonic Bitters.

Mrs. Davis Wants the Property Back.

Mrs. Jane Davis, wife of Hale Davis of this place, has begun an action in the Supreme Court to have declared void a certain deed given to her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, deceased. The deed covers the property on the corner of Main and Greenwood streets in this village now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Davis. The instrument was given less than a year ago, and was drawn by Elba Reynolds of Belmont, and several days later was acknowledged before Crayton L. Earley of this place. The consideration named was a certain sum of money, and also services rendered by Mrs. Miller to Mrs. Davis during the past six years. A provision of the conveyance was that Mrs. Davis should receive care and maintenance during her life from Mrs. Miller.

Shortly after the deed was made Mrs. Miller died and Mrs. Davis now seeks to regain possession of the property. Certain allegations of undue influence, etc., are made in the complaint. The defendants in the action are the husband of Mrs. Miller and his two infant children. Dolson and Dolson of Hornellsville are attorneys for the plaintiff. Mr. Miller will be represented by Crayton L. Earley.

The trial cannot occur before next June, and will doubtless be interesting.

The Jail Contract Let.

The jail committee met last week and awarded the contract for building the new jail at Belmont to the Van Dorn Iron Works of Cleveland, for $15,000. The work is to be completed on or before Nov. 1, 1894. That injunction will have to hustle if it gets around in time to stop proceedings.

Mayville will ask the legislature for an act to enable the village to own its electric light plant.

The contract for building Wellsville's new city hall has been let to L. D. Hard of that place. He will commence building operations at once.

Dr. Thomas A. Hammond of New York city was found dead in his room at a hotel in Nunda, N. Y., one day last week. The cause of death was apoplexy.

The old academy, one of the oldest buildings in Friendship, was destroyed by fire last week Tuesday evening. The building was used by the band, and also, it is said, by card players.

The Salvation Army gave Olean its first shaking up Saturday by swearing out warrants for ten young men and three young ladies, all well known, for disturbing their meeting last Wednesday. Three arrests were made.

Frank S. Smith of Angelica has purchased the farm near Canasara upon which is situated the celebrated Clip-knocky stone quarry. Rumor adds that Mr. Smith will put in about three miles of railroad, connecting the quarry with the W. N. Y. & P. R. R. Another report says that the stone from the quarry are to be used in the construction of the large storage dam in the Genesee river near Mt. Morris, from which the city of Rochester is to be supplied with water.

Geo. W. King of Shingle House, was convicted of barratry at the last term of court in Smethport. A barrator is a person who is continually stirring up strife, and breeding petty lawsuits. King was notorious for doing such business, and on the trial at Smethport he was found guilty and fined $25, and also the costs amounting to about $500. It is a good law that Pennsylvania has, which makes a criminal when convicted pay the costs, instead of wringing it out of the taxpayers.

The persistent cough which usually follows an attack of the grip can be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. W. A. Mc Guire of McKey, Ohio, says: "La Grip left me with a severe cough. After using several different medicines without relief, I tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected a permanent cure. I have also found it to be without an equal for children when troubled with colds or croup. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by L. A. Burrows, Druggist."
