YOUR OPPORTUNITY.

Those who have waited this year until after the Holidays, have for once been quite fortunate, as our stock is still very large, owing to the mild weather of late.

The following will give an idea of the concession in prices we are making to reduce the surplus:

$ 5	Jackets marked	$ 2.98
8	" "	5.88
10	" "	6.95
12.50	" "	9.35
15	" "	11.88
18	Plush Sacques	12.00

Children's Garments,
Ladies' Capes,
Shawls and Muffs.

Everything in the wrap line subject to a heavy reduction in price.

A pamphlet containing the rates for the use of water, and also rules and regulations governing the same, was published the first of this week. Everybody interested should read the book through.

Over 30 applications have been made for the use of water, and nearly everybody who has made application has been connected. Those who have not been will be as soon as the plumbing can be completed.

The holding of revival meetings will be deferred until the fore part of February, when Evangelist Hathaway will be here to conduct them. All Christian people are cordially invited to unite in the work.

A subscriber writing to the News from Ohio says: "You are printing a newsy paper, and I think it is well named. I am pleased to learn that Andover has water works at last, and I think your paper fought a good battle for the same. Enterprise is what makes a town grow."

The open winter has been favorable for building. The following are among the houses in course of construction: L. D. Baker's on Chestnut street; P. Hamel's on the same street; Abram Slocum's on First street; L. C. VanFleet's on the hill. All of these houses are well under way.

There is quite a sentiment among the business men in this village in favor of employing a night watchman to patrol the street after business hours. It is hardly possible to have too much protection against fire, burglars, etc., and a few cents expended each night by each person interested might prove a profitable investment.

G. W. Oles, the celebrated violinist, who recently appeared before an Andover audience with pleasing results, has been secured for a return date, and will appear at Prest's opera house in this village, Tuesday evening, Feb. 6, under the auspices of the Baptist Society. The hall will probably be filled—not only with music, but by people.

The Chautauqua circle will meet with Mrs. F. S. Clark Monday evening. The program will be as follows: Song, No. 6; Quotations from Will Carleton; two facts from week's reading in the Chautauquan; answer questions 7 and 8 in 4-page memoranda, also questions 9, 10, 55 and 56 in 12-page memoranda; answer 12 questions in the Chautauquan on Roman and Medieval art; answer questions on "The Religions of the World" in December Chautauquan. The past and present of Pompeii will be given by Mrs. Clark; reading by Mrs. Burrows.

Mrs. J. C. Ross will organize a class in oil painting at her home on Main street next Tuesday at 9 o'clock. For further particulars enquire at the house.

Donation for Rev. J. M. Leach.

There will be a donation for the benefit of Rev. J. M. Leach, at the parlors of the M. E. church on Wednesday evening of next week, January 24. Everybody is most cordially invited.
