THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

The Oles concert next Tuesday evening.

Donation for Rev. Wayne Brewster tonight.

Miss Kate Simons of Angelica was in town Thursday.

Now you can take your girl (or your wife) out sleigh riding.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Bundy returned to Horseheads this morning.

Mr. G. W. Oles' execution is simply marvelous.—Geo. A. Hilton, Washington, D. C.

One of Andover's weather prophets has been laid up for the past few days with a soreness of the gums and mouth. That accounts for the recent fall of snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest French have removed from their home in Ewing, Neb., to Madera, Cal. Mrs. French was formerly Miss Maude Wescott of this place.

All members of the boys' brigade of the M. E. church are requested to meet at the parsonage, Saturday, at 10 o'clock. Reason why Mr. Rice should be a success.

Mr. J. A. O'Donnell of Hornellsville was in town Sunday.

Mr. E. M. Cooney of Bradford has been in town for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Richardson visited friends in Wellsville Sunday.

Mr. Oles captivated the audience by his artistic playing.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

The fellows who have been wishing for snow have now hunted up the old snow shovel.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Clark, Mrs. Emma Conn and Mrs. W. H. Phillips visited friends in Friendship last week.

With what pride you would talk of "our water works"—if you had 'em.—Friendship Register. Just like us—and we've got 'em.

Mr. Oles is a wonderful performer, and without doubt stands at the head of American Violinists.—Forest Republican, Tionesta, Pa.

U. W. Stratton of Elm Valley, was in town Saturday. He has bought a second cheese factory near the one he runs.—Friendship Register.

The closing dance of the season occurs next Monday evening. The arrangements indicate that it will be one of the most enjoyable of the season also.

Mr. Wm. Holliday, lately of Hornellsville, has moved to Andover and occupies R. M. Bundy's house on North Main street. Mr. Holliday is employed in Brown & Mosher's mill.

The donation for Rev. J. M. Leach last Wednesday evening was well attended, although the crowd would probably have been larger had the weather been more favorable. The amount realized was $80.

Town meetings are only about a month away. Get ready to nominate your candidates. By the way, as will be seen in an article elsewhere in this issue, Supervisors will be elected for one year only, as heretofore.

Prangen Brothers on Monday began to make preparations for cutting ice on the pond. Monday afternoon it began to snow, and the time of their employes has been fully occupied since in scraping snow off the ice.

A bill has been introduced in the Assembly, presumably by Assemblyman Robbins, which sends all the license fees in this county to the county treasury. These moneys now go into the funds of the towns where they are collected.

Chas. Richardson injured his back quite severely while lifting a box at the Erie station a few days ago. He has been confined to his bed during the week, but was able to move around the house a little to-day.—Saturday's Wellsville Reporter.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Mr. Will E. Pease, son of Gordon Pease, and Miss Louise Snyder, daughter of Henry Snyder. The happy event will occur on Wednesday, February 7th, 1894, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Moran, of Corning, Ohio, are the parents of a bright girl baby, who was born Jan. 21. Mrs. Moran will be remembered as Miss Kate Kilbane, formerly of Andover, and Mr. and Mrs. Moran's many friends here extend congratulations.

The insurance agents have already begun to pay money into the treasury of the fire department. The law provides that they shall pay the department two per cent of all premiums collected, and they are required to give bonds for the performance of this duty.

Don't forget the concert by Geo. W. Oles next Tuesday evening, Feb. 6. Geo. W. Oles, violinist, Mrs. Anna White Oles, Vocalist, and local talent, will present a program that is sure to please. Admission 25 cents. Reserved seats 35 cents, at Comstock & Benedict's store.

For the past two days we have been supplied with winter weather severe enough to satisfy the most exacting person, and there are many people in this town who are ready to take back everything they have said in complaint against the open weather of the past three months.

One evening last week a number of friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Chappel made them a surprise visit, it being the ninth anniversary of their marriage. The company took provisions, and the evening was enjoyably spent, music being one of the chief features on the program.

Mr. C. Rice of Wellsville has rented O'Donnell's foundry in this place, and will take possession in a few days. He will run a general machine shop and foundry and intends to make things hum. There is no better point in the town for a business of this kind, and it is a pity that Mr. Rice should not have a better success.

The Second Quarterly Meeting will be held next Sunday at the M. E. church. Love feast at 9 o'clock. Preaching at the usual hour by the Rev. E. H. Lattimer, Presiding Elder of Olean District, followed by the Holy communion. In the evening union services will be held at the Presbyterian church.

W. B. Jenkins of Purdy Creek, was arrested and taken before Justice Harman last Wednesday on a charge of selling lottery tickets. The complaint was made by Eli D. Baker, the barber, who had purchased a ticket from Jenkins. Evidence was also produced showing that Jenkins had lately forwarded quite a sum of money to a lottery in Kansas. The defendant plead guilty and was fined $10 and costs, making the total sum over $13.
