

THE ANDOVER NEWS

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HAMILTON C. NOBLE, EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., Feb 7 1891.

President Cleveland might get the Emperor's recipe for reconciliation and try it on Sengul Hill.

If an income tax is unconstitutional the U. S. Supreme court was mistaken when it unanimously decided to the contrary, thirteen years ago.

Gov. Tillman seems to be meeting with more success in bucking the South Carolina blind tiger than Dr. Parkhurst is in his wrestle with the Tammany tiger.

There is no question about the opal having been an unlucky stone to the two Mexican smugglers who were caught with $10,000 worth of them on their persons.

Hon. Tom, Moonlight has joined the diplomatic corps, and as about nine-tenths of diplomacy consists of moonshine he ought to stand a good chance of holding on.

If insurers would exercise ordinary business discretion there would be no fake insurance companies. These thieves exist on the bureau man's theory—"there's a new fool born every minute."

The cable news assures us that Bismark and the Emperor did not talk politics. That is about as true as the statement that Mr. Richard Croker, of New York, went to Washington the other day solely to attend a tea.

A commission of experts have declared the vaults of the U. S. Treasury to be unsafe, but that does not indicate that crackers would find it profitable to go to Washington, with the expectation of burglarizing Uncle Sam.

There's one little omission in Congressman Cummings' bill to make every man a bloated bondholder; it doesn't provide a way to get the money to buy the bonds. It is just as difficult for a man without money to buy a $20 bond as it would be to buy a $1,000 bond.

Mr. O'Grady has introduced a bill in the Assembly authorizing the Governor to appoint six women trustees of the State Soldiers' Home, and providing for the admission of wives, widows, dependent mothers and nurses. If the provisions of this bill are made law, about the first step necessary to its fulfillment will be a good sized addition to the Home, as it was recently stated that the institution was overcrowded and no new inmates could be taken at present. It is not probable, however, that the bill will pass.

The latest scheme to defeat the Wilson tariff bill has sprung up in Ohio. A dispatch says that the business men of West Velt, an old college town and suburb of Columbus, have started a movement which they expect to be general throughout the country. They are each pledging $25 to be paid into the National Treasury on the condition that the Senate adjourns without passing the Wilson Bill or changing the McKinley Law. They hold that the business men of the country would almost unanimously contribute to such a fund, and it would grow to such proportions as to relieve the Treasury and lift the National Government out of its financial depression.

Miss Pauline T. Barney, eldest daughter of John O. Barney, goes to Geneseo this week, to enter upon a three years' course of studies in the State Normal School. May she graduate as a No. 1.

Mrs. C. S. Armstrong of Whitesville, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jacobs, who has been very low of pneumonia for several weeks past, is reported convalescing, which is cheering news to her many relatives and friends. Gumption.

A Bright Lad,

Ten years of age, but who declines to give his name to the public, makes this authorized, confidential statement to us:

"When I was one year old, my mamma died of consumption. The doctor said that I, too, would soon die, and all our neighbors thought that even if I did not die, I would never be able to walk, because I was so weak and puny. A gathering formed and broke under my arm. I hurt my finger and gathered and threw out pieces of bone. If I hurt myself so as to break the skin, I was sure to become a running sore. I had to take lots of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has made me well and strong." T. D. M., Norcutt, Kans.
