KID GLOVES.

If you have had, or are having trouble with your Kid Gloves—quality poor, bad fit, or seams ripping—try a pair of the Centenarie, the finest and smoothest fitting Gloves ever worn. They look as nice after one year's service as when first tried on. We can give as reference the names of 150 ladies in Wellsville and vicinity who wear them and whom it would be hard to induce to try any other.

5-button colored, $1.50 pair.
5-button black, $2.00.
10-button length black suede mousquetaire, $1.75 and $2.25 pair. Sent post-paid on receipt of price.

DRESS TRIMMINGS.

There's a strong pull now on Braids, Soutache, Hercules, Serpentine, in Mohair, Worsted and Silk. We are not caught napping on these, no matter what kind, color or width you happen to want.

Black Moire, or Watered Silks, have again come into very active request. We are showing them at $1 and $1.35 per yard, both extra values. Requests for samples of the above, and any other trimmings promptly attended to.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

G. B. Proper is at Honeoye Lake fishing.

The revival meetings will continue next week.

Mrs. Helen Beebe visited friends in Belfast during the past week.

Miss Minnie Freeborn was in Hornellsville on business Thursday.

Miss Flora Culver visited friends in Howard last week, returning Thursday.

Senator Higgins has our thanks for a copy of the Comptroller's report for 1894.

An interesting letter from Wellsville is unfortunately crowded out of this issue.

Miss Minnie and Frances Hearons of Bolivar were the guests of Miss Minnie Freeborn the past week.

We received a pleasant call from our esteemed friend, R. S. Jacobs of Independence one day last week.

Are you attending the revival services? They are in full progress, and Evangelist Hathaway is proving a power. Go and hear him.

You will get more than the worth of your money at the School entertainment to be held at Prest's opera house next Wednesday evening, and at the same time if you attend you will help pay for the fine new piano recently purchased for the school. Don't fail to go.

The Oregon Indian Medicine Co. is in town for a stay of two weeks. They give entertainments in the opera house every evening—good ones, too. Go and see them.

Caucusses will soon be ripe, and the battle for and against license, which, like the poor, we have always with us, will be on deck again.

The heaviest snow storm of the season came on Monday, lasting all night and part of Tuesday. We have snow enough for sleighing, sure.

A bright ten pound boy arrived at the home of A. L. Jones last Thursday. Arthur has increased the cigar trade in town during the past few days.

At the M. E. Church next Sunday a. m., Preaching by pastor. Subject "What is it to be a Christian?" Evening, Union Revival service led by Rev. J. H. Hathaway.

The Teacher's Association for the 2d commissioner's district of this county will hold its annual meeting at Wellsville on Thursday and Friday, February 22d and 23d.

Married, on Sunday, February 11, 1894, Mr. Anson Cole of Elm Valley and Miss Mary Crandall of Elm Valley. The friends of the newly married couple unite in congratulations.

Mrs. C. A. Dolson and daughter Petite of Hornellsville, visited Andover relatives and friends during the past week. They returned Monday, accompanied by Miss Grace Hardy.

Capt. Geo. H. Blackman of Wellsville, one of the Trustees of the Soldiers' Home at Bath, has sent us a copy of the annual report of the trustees of that institution to the Legislature, for which he has our thanks.

Miss Fannie Spaulding, Miss Lottie Brown and Earl Leach will attend the Genesee Conference Epworth League Annual Convention at Olean on Friday, Saturday and Sunday next, as delegates from the Andover League. It is expected that one thousand delegates will be present.

Among the sections on the program for the school entertainment will be music by the orchestra and Uterpe Club, the Fairy Hoop Dance, the Pole Drill, Club Swinging, a snare drum solo by Master Fay Bloss, and a farce entitled "The Rough Diamond." By all means make plans to attend.

Several hundred extra copies of this issue of the News have been printed, and a copy will be sent to every family, so far as is possible, in all the surrounding country. We have in addition a supply of extras, which our readers are invited to come and get without charge. They will be given out as long as the supply lasts, a limited number being given to each person.

Rev. G. M. Janes went to New York Monday to attend a meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church. Only one representative from each of the thirty-one Presbyteries in the State will be present, and Mr. Janes, being chairman of the Foreign Missionary Committee of the Steuben Presbytery, is the representative from that body.

T. McTighe and family yesterday removed to Hornellsville, their future home. The people in Andover regret to see the departure of this esteemed citizen. Mr. McTighe was in business here a number of years, and we could have wished that circumstances would favor his remaining here. However, he has the best wishes of all for prosperity in his new home.

Mr. J. C. Green has purchased five acres of land from J. W. Richardson. The tract transferred to Mr. Green lies on the north side of Chestnut street, and is the portion of Mr. Richardson's farm nearest the village. Mr. Green will erect a residence upon the eastern portion of his land, and will occupy the same as soon as completed. It will not be surprising if some new streets are laid out by Mr. Green, and village lots sold. The piece of land purchased by him is certainly situated just right for so doing.

Fine stock of fresh candy at Benedict & Van Noy's.

The Oregon Indian Medicine Co. is in town for a stay of two weeks. They give entertainments in the opera house every evening—good ones, too. Go and see them.

An unusually interesting program is to be prepared for the school entertainment to be held at Prest's opera house next Wednesday evening, Feb. 21. Don't fail to be present.

Mrs. S. K. Hale received a few days ago, as a present from Mrs. C. A. Dolson of Hornellsville, a beautiful Azalea (hot house plant.) This one contained 87 blossoms and buds, white with shades of crimson. The blossoms are exceedingly handsome.

Mr. W. W. Van Noy has purchased the interest of Dr. F. E. Comstock in the drug store of Comstock & Benedict, and has already assumed his duties as one of the partners. The firm name will be Benedict & Van Noy. Mr. Van Noy has been a resident of Andover for a number of months, and we are pleased to announce that he has decided to remain here. We have no doubt the new firm will meet with deserved success.

Clinton E. Hann of Andover says he has taken Lain's Asthma and Cough Remedy for asthma and a cough, and has been greatly benefited, and can recommend it. Try it. Sold by Comstock & Benedict, Andover, and N. E. Coston, Greenwood.

F. E. COMSTOCK, M. D. Will fit glasses by Jackson's method, which is the latest and only accurate method. All glasses warranted. Also having obtained the right for Andover, I am prepared to extract teeth painlessly with Perfecto, the latest, safest and best local anaesthetic.

The best cigar in town is the Telegram, at Beebe, Williams & Co's.

Nature should be assisted to throw off impurities of the blood. Try a bottle of Harman's 1874 Tonic Bitters.
