

ANDOVER'S ACTIVITY.

A. M. BURROWS.
Our village takes high rank for the stability and enterprise of its merchants and other business men. This is a most congratulatory fact and one we cannot dwell upon too strongly. Prominent in this list is the gentleman above named, general merchant and banker, who has been a successful and influential merchant of Andover for a number of years, part of the time being associated in business with other leading citizens, but for the last four years conducting his fine, large general mercantile establishment alone. This excellent business has always exerted a marked influence in drawing trade to the village. Mr. Burrows is a competent, enterprising merchant. He enjoys the advantages of the best of purchasing facilities. The store is splendidly stocked with large quantities of staple and fancy dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes, hats and caps, etc. The bank is known as one of the most substantial private financial institutions of this section, and affords all the advantages of first class banking facilities. Mr. W. B. Bundy, the cashier, has had ample banking experience, and may always be relied on to give depositors and others entire satisfaction with his methods. Mr. Bundy is also a Notary Public.

FWLLER & REMINGTON.
In the purchase of household furniture our citizens and the people of the surrounding country have special advantages at the large and excellently equipped warerooms of the enterprising firm above named. This is one of the best places to buy furniture in the county. Messrs. Fowler & Remington have built up an extensive trade. They purchase from the leading manufacturers and a visit to their store and an inspection of their stock will show the bargains they can offer. The firm give special attention to undertaking, and keep a full line of caskets and all kinds of funeral supplies on hand. Mr. Fowler is one of the most experienced undertakers of this section of the state. He is a competent funeral director and a skilled embalmer, being thoroughly familiar with everything connected with the business. He is also one of the few undertakers of the state who compounds his own disinfectants and embalming fluids. His disinfectant is one of the best compounds of this nature that can be made, and is invaluable in all cases of sickness, whether the disease is contagious or not. Mr. Fowler is prepared to supply this disinfectant to parties needing it, with full instructions for its use.

COMSTOCK & BENEDICT.
The drug branch of our mercantile trade is in an advanced condition, owing largely to the influence exerted by the excellent establishment herein referred to, and the very high standard of excellence to which it is maintained. Indeed, we can well congratulate the public in having such a first class drug, book, stationery and wall paper emporium in our midst. Messrs. Comstock & Benedict's establishing in business here dates back about two years, having at that time bought out Mr. Spaulding. They are amply qualified to make a success of their undertaking, and their sterling business qualities have commended them to the public. The neatly appointed store is rendered attractive by its well kept appearance. The stock is large and superior, embracing all kinds of pure drugs, druggists' sundries, the leading patent medicines, books, stationery, fancy goods, wall paper, etc.
[Since the above article was written Dr. F. E. Comstock has sold his interest in the store to Mr. W. W. Van Noy, and will confine himself solely to the practice of medicine. The change in the make-up of the firm will insure the continued residence here of Mr. Van Noy, and it is needless to say the business will be carried on with the same degree of attentiveness and capability as heretofore.]

H. P. BENTON.
This gentleman transacts a very large annual business, a mention of which should occupy a prominent place in our review. Mr. Benton is one of our substantial business men, and is in the very best position to meet the wants of the people in the line of lumber, coal, etc. He buys to advantage and his yard is constantly supplied with a full line of lumber, lath, brick, shingles and every description of building material, and coal. Office opposite the depot.

J. B. MARTINDALE.
Another of our reliable business men is J. B. Martindale, for years back engaged with satisfactory success in the mercantile business. To express the appreciation of the market by its patrons would be to speak of it in very high terms. Mr. Martindale has always aimed to meet the exigencies and patronage of the people. He thoroughly understands the business and treats his customers courteously and fairly. He keeps the choicest and best meats of all kinds in season.

J. DRISCOLL.
Among the carriage manufacturing establishments of this section, the one carried on by the enterprising gentleman above named takes high rank for the superiority of the work turned out. Mr. Driscoll has been established a number of years and has always been successful, having built up a flourishing business. In the first place he is a fine, practical workman. He manufactures all kinds of wheeled vehicles, carriages, wagons, buggies, and anyone contemplating purchasing will consult their own interests by calling on him. Mr. Driscoll gives special attention to all kinds of general blacksmithing and repairing, which is done in the best manner. He is a gentleman well and favorably known and it may be superfluous for us to add that his dealings are always honorable.

O. E. VARS.
The News special representative next made a visit to one of our best known business establishments, namely, the well conducted and well ordered drug establishment herein described. Mr. Vars, the proprietor, has been identified with the drug trade of the town for a great many years, and while we have no desire to exaggerate on the merits of his business, we can congratulate him on his success as a business man and the very acceptable manner in which he is meeting the wants of the public. Mr. Vars is an experienced chemist and druggist. His store evidences careful and capable management. A full line of all kinds of pure drugs, druggists' sundries, the leading patent medicines, etc., constantly on hand. The public find every advantage in dealing here. A notable feature of this store is the bargain counter, containing 5, 10 and 25 cent goods of all descriptions, light hardware, tinware, etc., which always saves money to its patrons. Mr. Vars is also a taxidermist of more than local reputation. He gives special attention to this branch, and his work may be found in nearly every section of the country.

PARDON BROS. & LYNCH.
Among the enterprising firms of our town which transact the largest annual volume of business, we would mention Messrs. Pardon Bros. & Lynch, the successful and progressive grain merchants, dealers in hay, produce, live stock, etc. The benefits which the business of this kind confer upon the town cannot be overestimated. The large amount of money which they yearly pay out to the farmers is largely circulated among our merchants. The firm are so well known for their enterprise and integrity that it would be superfluous to add anything in this respect.

E. O. WESCOTT.
This lively establishment, successfully conducted by the gentleman above named, is worthy of mention. Since establishing in business here Mr. Wescott has built up a splendid trade, and has made his business popular with the general public. It is splendidly equipped with good horses, fine vehicles, and fashionable turnouts are furnished at the shortest notice. Mr. Wescott occupies his own large barns opposite the depot.

BEER, WILLIAMS & CO.
This is a model grocery store and fills the bill as a high class general grocery and housekeepers' supply establishment. The store is notable for its fine appearance. Its large plate front admits ample light and everything is neat, clean and tasty within. Commencing in business here some five years ago, Beer, Williams & Co., have supplied the village with an establishment in their line worthy of the patronage it receives, which is very flattering to the efforts of the firm. The public have superior service here. The stock is always as good as the markets afford embracing full invoices of all kinds of staple and fancy groceries, teas, coffees, spices, canned goods, fruits, etc. This firm does an extensive trade in flour, feed and general farmers' supplies, having near the depot a large and suitable storehouse. The offices of the Postal and Western Union telegraph companies are in this store.

LEVER & STEARNS.
The lively interests of our town deserves special mention in referring to which we cannot speak too highly of the first class establishment carried on by Messrs. Lever & Stearns. These gentlemen have been established a number of years and know how to conduct a first class establishment. The public are afforded here every advantage and convenience. The livery is one of the best equipped in the county.

HALL, POTTER & CO.
One of the greatest features of our town's prosperity is the fact that it is one of the best market towns for anything the farmer has to sell in this section of the state. The efforts of Messrs. Hall, Potter & Co. have contributed much to this very gratifying state of affairs. This firm does business with the farmers of the surrounding country. They are extensive dealers in grain, hay, apples, potatoes, etc. They pay the highest market price and have the best of facilities for shipping, handling, etc. They are esteemed for their honorable progressive business principles.

W. C. LEVER.
This gentleman conducts a first class harness store, and is also a veterinary surgeon and auctioneer. In the two latter branches he has a wide reputation. No better auctioneer can be found, and his calls take him to all parts of the state.

THE SWINK HOTEL.
This house is conducted by Messrs. Swink & Palmer, and no efforts are spared to furnish everything for the comfort of the traveling public. The house is an old established one, and draws a large share of public patronage.

JAMES OWEN'S TANNERY
Employs perhaps a larger number of hands than any other institution in town, and pays out large sums of money for bark. Mr. Owen is one of the most worthy and progressive citizens of the place. His success is a matter of public gratification.

How's Your Liver?
Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons' Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy. NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.
As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the other products. It seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

Mr. Albert Favorite, of Arkansas City, Kan., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me with a hacking cough which I thought I never would get rid of. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some 14 years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one but Cle my cough had left me, and I have not suffered with a cough or cold since. I have recommended it to other persons, and all speak well of it." 50 cent bottles for sale by L. A. Burrows, druggist.
