

W. C. T. U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Andover meets the first and third Thursday in each month.

Mrs. Myra Bradwell, editor of the Chicago Legal News, died Feb. 14. She was born in Manchester, Vt., Feb. 11, 1831. She was the first woman who applied for admission to the Bar in the United States.

The Young Woman's Christian Association of New York City has had remarkable success the past year in its industrial education branch, instructing 1,930 young women in trades and professions.

Rev. J. W. Bradshaw, of Ann Arbor, Mich., preached a sermon against woman suffrage, on a recent Sunday morning, being greatly concerned lest the bad women should out-vote the good women.

Wendell Phillips used to say that the Tories of England, distrusting our form of government, look across the Atlantic, and ask us to show them a well governed city and we cannot do it.

The W. C. T. U. Nails a Fraud. Washington, D. C., Feb. 14. Senator Frye, on behalf of the National W. C. T. U., presented yesterday a remonstrance against the Government's taxing whiskey or receiving a revenue therefrom.

INDEPENDENCE NEWS. It is reported that mercury fell to 23 below zero at Green's Corners, Saturday, at 10 p. m.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the school entertainment at Presl's opera house, Andover, last week Wednesday evening.

David Peet has moved into the house he recently purchased of Mrs. Cantine, in the village of Whitesville.

How disgusting it is to receive a copy of a newspaper, the most of which is filled with patent medicine ads. and the rest with political twaddle.

THE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION, held here last week, brought many from out of town, and was an enjoyable success throughout.

Whom we have great confidence, that schoolma'ams never get beyond 22. "Why, do they die?" I asked. "Oh, no," she said, "but you see, Father Time makes a notch in the wheel of time for all schoolma'ams, up to 22, and lets it run on for ever so many years, then he jogs it back, don't you see? Well, perhaps we didn't see, but we were too wise to say so.

Andover sent a bright and witty delegation, who did the town and themselves credit. Our curiosity was aroused to know who was the brightest lady teacher, and being a personal friend of one of our delegation, I asked her who it was; without a moment's hesitation she said she was, and I didn't contradict her.

It is rumored that parties from outside are anxious to come here and start another bank, and the people are wrestling with the question whether there is money enough to start her off in good shape and have enough left to buy theatre tickets.

Last week Wellsville had a Dark Secret—not of its own, however. In no; Wellsville is as open as the day, no secrets about her. Why, if she has a pauper to bury she takes him right into an open dray cart and totes him right off in broad daylight.

This is the week before town meeting, and things are warming up, especially for the fellow running for license excise commissioner, and I'm sorry to see the fellow run, for he is a fine fellow and deserves a better fate than either election or defeat.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
