

Floor Coverings.

See our Ingrain Carpets at 35, 40 and 45c yard.

Beautiful patterns in Velvets and Moquettes with border to match.

We make and lay carpets when desired.

New Goods.

Our new spring Dress Goods and Millinery now arriving.

Full announcement in a few days.

Come or send for Butterick April Fashion sheet.

Rockwell Bros.,

Dry Goods, Carpets,

Millinery,

WELLSVILLE, N. Y.

A. M. Burrows, Banker.

SUCCESSOR TO D. S. BRADLEY & CO.'S BANK. ESTABLISHED 1834.

This bank transacts a general banking business; makes collections, sells drafts on Europe, and gives prompt attention to all business at lowest rates. Steamship tickets by the Anchor, White Star and Hambur-American Packet Co., to and from all European ports.

Wesolicit your deposits. A. M. BURROWS. W. B. BUNDY, Cashier.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Mr. John Swain went to Ward yesterday.

Mr. S. C. Cartwright celebrated his 6th birthday yesterday.

Miss May Osborn of Wellsville spent Sunday with friends in town.

Grant Duke was yesterday elected President of Wellsville by 41 majority over W. C. Ross.

Mr. F. L. Smith went to Ada, Ohio, last Friday, and will enter a business college at that place.

Next Sunday will be Easter, and the day will be appropriately observed by the churches in this village.

Marie Knibloe, dramatic reader and impersonator, at the Baptist church Saturday evening, Mar. 24.

The Governor has signed the bill changing the date of the annual school district meeting from the fourth to the first Tuesday in August.

A large number of persons, many of them young men, have joined the various churches of this village since the revival meetings were held.

Miss Fannie Spaulding left for Washington, D. C. Sunday evening, being called there on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Travis.

A few days ago James Cannon was arrested on a warrant charging him with violation of the excise law.

On Monday he plead guilty before Justice H. P. Bundy, and was fined $50 for the offense. The fine was paid.

The street across the land of G. M. Barney, beginning at the east end of the street and running thence northwesterly and intersecting Water street, was named Barney street, and will hereafter be called Barney street.

The street across the land of G. M. Barney, beginning at the east end of the street and running thence northwesterly and intersecting Water street, was named Barney street, and will hereafter be called Barney street.

The street across the land of G. M. Barney, beginning at the east end of the street and running thence northwesterly and intersecting Water street, was named Barney street, and will hereafter be called Barney street.

The street across the land of G. M. Barney, beginning at the east end of the street and running thence northwesterly and intersecting Water street, was named Barney street, and will hereafter be called Barney street.

J. W. Richardson was in Friendship Sunday.

G. M. Barney was in Hornellsville Saturday.

J. M. Place of New York city was in town last week.

Mr. Fay Rathbon of Belvidere entered school Monday.

Fred Martin of Alfred Centre is spending a few days in town.

Mrs. Reuben Hall of Horseheads is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. E. Comstock.

W. W. Kimball and wife of Hornellsville visited friends in town yesterday.

Mr. W. J. Lanphear of Hornellsville spent Sunday at the home of W. Lanphear in this place.

Mrs. T. P. Perrin of Monmouth, Ill., visited the family of Mr. H. P. Benton during the past week.

W. J. Richardson and wife of Belmont were in town Sunday. Mrs. Richardson is here yet.

Misses Carrie Hincer and Hattie Burdick spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Almond.

Miss Nettie Perry has gone to Wellsville, where she will learn the millinery business with Mrs. S. J. Freeborn.

Mr. Ed. Swain has removed to the house owned by Mrs. Everett, on the corner of First and Greenwood streets.

All members of Boys' Brigade of M. E. church, are requested to meet at parsonage next Saturday evening at 7 o'clock.

Daniel Baker has begun the erection of his machine shop on Depot street. He intends to push the work as rapidly as possible.

The Young Men's Athletic Club of this village wants to rent two rooms. Any person willing to accommodate the boys will please call at this office.

Mr. B. M. Austin has been in town during the past week. He will soon engage in the jewelry business at Cross Forks, Pa., and his many friends here wish him the best of success.

Auctioneer W. C. Lever was in Hornellsville Saturday, selling the stock of shoes and furnishing goods owned by O. N. Lackey of that place. A number of Andover people were in attendance at the sale, which was continued this week.

The original play "One That Was Lost," will be produced in Prest's opera house, next week Saturday evening. Music by the orchestra. Admission 10, 20 and 30 cents. Reserved seats at L. A. Burrows' drug store. Don't fail to see bills and further announcements.

The Chautauqua Circle will meet with Mrs. J. C. Ross next Monday evening. Each person mention a current event. Also fact or quotation from some character in the classic Latin course in English. Two facts from the week's reading. Reading from the life of Joan D' Arc, by Mrs. F. S. Clark.

The members of Seaman Post G. A. R. treated themselves and the members of the Woman's Relief Corps to a supper at Union hall last Saturday evening. The refreshments were not served in true army style, perhaps, but were enjoyed by all present. Music and other exercises also lent enjoyment to the occasion.

Mrs. John Beebe of this place is seriously ill at the home of her son, R. D. Beebe, of Spring Mills. Mrs. Beebe returned to the latter place with her son nearly two weeks ago, and on Monday, March 12 sustained a stroke of paralysis, from which she is not expected to recover. Miles Beebe, another son, who has recently been stopping near Jamestown, went to Spring Mills yesterday.

Messrs. J. W. Vose and S. A. Wallace, who are connected with John S. Minard of Hume in the publication of a work to be entitled "Allegany County and its People," are in town looking up material for the book and taking orders for the same. The work will be a history of the county by its people, and will contain much that is valuable concerning the early affairs of the county and the people. The subject-matter of the book will comprise also the important events occurring down to the time of publication. It will be valuable acquisition to any library.

The Village Board of Trustees have made it an object for property holders to construct stone sidewalks adjoining their premises, by passing the following, which was adopted March 8: "Resolved, That the Village Board allow to any person owning or occupying lands adjoining a highway within the limits of the village of Andover, who shall construct a stone sidewalk of not less than four feet nor more than six feet in width, along the line of said lands, one-half the expense of constructing said sidewalk, the same to be credited to such person's account, and the balance to be paid by the Village Board."

We are pleased to learn that Mr. Benj. Brundage of Greenwood will soon be a resident of Andover, having secured rooms in the Spaulding brick residence. Mr. Brundage will act as salesman in the store of A. M. Burrows commencing about April 1st. Mr. Brundage comes to Andover well recommended as an efficient clerk, also as a popular citizen of his present place of residence, having been several times elected to fill important places of trust in his own town. We shall be pleased to make his further acquaintance on becoming a citizen of Andover and are sure he will receive a hearty welcome from all. Mr. Brundage has been acting as salesman for N. E. Coston of Greenwood for several years, and we shall not be surprised to see many of our Greenwood neighbors calling on him in his new quarters.

Buy your clover and timothy at Beebe, Williams & Co's.

Mrs. Mourness keeps a full line of Dr. Warner's corsets and corset waists.

Fancy California seedless oranges, and a line stock of bananas at H. E. Miner's. Prices very low.

A large assortment of garden seeds at Beebe, Williams & Co's.

Call and see Mrs. Mourness' new hats for Easter.

Silverware is very cheap at Benedict & Van Noy's.

Something new in glassware at Benedict & Van Noy's.

House for rent. Enquire at this office. Humorous Dramatic Recital.

At the Baptist Church Saturday evening March 24, 1894, Miss Marie Knibloe of Boston will give one of her popular entertainments, consisting of recitations, character sketches, whistling, singing etc., under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. Admission 25c, Children 15c.

What is said of Marie Knibloe.

"Marie Knibloe's 'How Divorces are made,' has a laugh and a lesson in every line." - Nashville (Tenn.) Banner.

"A remarkable woman with a remarkable entertainment." - Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

Her readings were both humorous and pathetic, the realism she introduced moving her audience to tears or laughter. - Detroit Free Press.

Miss Knibloe will give one of her pleasing entertainments at the Baptist church in this village, Saturday evening, Mar. 24.

LOOK AT THIS!

W. C. Lever, Auctioneer.

At my store in Hornellsville, on Main near Seneca, I will offer at public auction, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, at 7, and on Saturday afternoon and evening at 1 and 7, my entire stock of boots and shoes, consisting of French and Russian calf, French kid dongolas, kangaroo, made by such men as Adams, Johnston and Burt, all bought for a first class city retail trade. During the day goods will be sold at private sale at Lever's auction prices. Come now as all must be sold. Don't lose an offer presented only once in a lifetime. O. N. LACKEY.

Crockery.

Some new patterns in decorated complete sets, also full assortment of white goods. A. M. BURROWS.

18 CENTS PER DAY.

Is a small sum, but if each one indebted to me will pay that sum per day, my receipts will be increased and in course of time I can balance each page on my ledger. Come P. D. Q. and avoid the rush.

L. H. THOMPSON

GREAT BARGAINS

PLATED WARE,

Knives and Forks, Spoons, Castors, Berry Dishes, Napkin Rings, Butter Dishes, Sugar Bowls, Cake Stands, Pickle Dishes, etc.

Large line and new stock of

CLOCKS & WATCHES.

Full stock of Guns, Revolvers, Ammunition, &c.

Everything sold low for cash.

Call and See Me.

H. MOURNESS.

HARMAN

Has A Nice Line, Of

TOBACCO,

CIGARS,

CIGARETTES,

PIPES,

CANDIES,

and

NUTS.

His Place is Headquarters for First Class

Baltimore Oysters.

Prices: ROCK BOTTOM. M. H. HARMAN.

CORRECT

SPRING

STYLES

LADIES FINE SHOES,

Just In.

We should be pleased to show you, whether you wish to purchase new or not.

P. CANNON & SONS

REMEMBER THIS!

We are headquarters for

Wall Paper

Again This Spring.

We have paper at

8c. Double Roll.

Call and see our line and get our prices at the

CENTRAL DRUG STORE.

L. A. BURROWS

Monumental Work.

Mr. John Swain is agent for T. H. Sutherland, dealer in Granite and Marble Monuments, Headstones, Vases, Fences, Coping and Hitching Posts, Castile, N. Y. Mr. Swain is canvassing this section, and is prepared to give lower prices than can be obtained elsewhere. All work warranted. Don't fail to get prices before ordering elsewhere.

Advertise! Advertise!

In the "News."

WALL PAPER!

MORE THAN

7,000 ROLLS ON HAND.

Prices from 7c to 45c Double Roll.

New and Popular Styles.

Largest Stock and Lowest Prices Ever Offered in Andover.

BENEDICT & VAN NOY.

Proprietors of Corner Drug Store.

If You Are In Want of

COAL, LATH, SHINGLES,

SAND & BRICK,

OR PINE AND HEMLOCK LUMBER,

Call on me. H. P. BENTON.