

THE ANDOVER NEWS

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., April 11, 1894.

Democrats who love the President for the votes he has made are reasonably certain of front seats at the White House pie counter.

Louisville, Ky., will now begin to put on Metropolitan airs. Four members of its city council have been indicted for perjury and bribery.

The Washington police arrest those who profane the Sabbath by playing baseball, but Bob Ingersoll's Sunday night lectures there are never interfered with.

There will be a manifest neglect of duty on the part of somebody if some of the parties who testified in the Pollard-Breckinridge case are not sent to prison for perjury.

The Senator who finds something new to say about the tariff will deserve well of the country, and even he who finds a new way of saying the old things will receive thanks.

The Clayton-Bulwer treaty with Great Britain should be abrogated before Congress agrees to back the builders of the Nicaragua canal, if Congress really intends to do such a thing.

The newspaper reader who does not daily rejoice that he lives in North America instead of Central or South America must be peculiarly constituted, unless he skips the news from our Southern neighbors.

A New York jury has decided in the case against Russell Sage that a man ought to get $25,000 for being held between Sage and an exploding dynamite bomb. Sage was glad enough when in danger to make the man his breastwork, but he won't pay the money as long as there remains a higher court to appeal to.

Only the Scars Remain.

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc.," writes Henry Hudson, of the James Smith Wooden Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., "none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be lost. At last, my good old mother urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always talk pleasedly about what good it did for me."

For the cure of all diseases originating in impure blood, the best remedy is AYER'S Sarsaparilla. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Cures others, will cure you.
