THE ANDOVER NEWS.

The Hotchkiss Sisters tomorrow night.
Miss Rena Hunt is home from Geneva for a few days.
Mrs. F. E. Comstock is visiting friends in Wellsville.
Mr. R. M. Barrett, who is at present stopping in Elmer, Pa., was home this week on a visit.
Mr. C. B. Blowers will next week return to Tronpsburg, where he will engage in farming.
Miss Anna L. Crandall, daughter of Mr. R. Crandall of this town, is spending a few days in Bradford.
Mrs. George Osborn and Mrs. Harvey Fisher of Wellsville, visited at the home of C. M. Wood last week.
Mr. Robert Cochrane has rented the Beebe house on Dyke street, and will occupy the same the coming year.
Robert Stout, son of M. G. Stout of Lower Valley, has been quite ill with hemorrhage of the lungs, but is better at present writing.
Mr. Luman Leonard and daughter, and Miss Anna Leonard, of Wellsville, spent a few days with the family of S. G. Crandall the latter part of last week.
The Chautauque circle will meet next Monday evening.
Mrs. H. A. Benedict next Monday evening. Program as follows: Quotations from Hawthorne; two facts from Spanish ballads; two facts from Chautauque; usual work in Chautauque; readings from Harriet Beecher Stowe.

Mr. A. P. Wood and son, W. A. Wood, returned Saturday evening from Rushford, where they have been painting.

Mr. B. C. Cole of Stannards Corners was in town Monday. Mrs. Cole has recently been to Buffalo to visit Mrs. H. E. Miner.

All members of boys' brigade of M. E. church are requested to meet at the home of Geo. Cochrane next Saturday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Lyman Baham and daughter, Miss Agnes Baham, returned a few days ago from Ceres, where Miss Baham has been teaching school during the past winter.

The Columbian society will meet next Monday evening, April 16. There will be a fine program, including a "mock law suit." All old members are cordially invited. Carrie Clark, Sec'y.

The Allegheny County G. A. R. Association will meet in Andover on Thursday, April 26. The people of this place will give the comrades a royal welcome. We will publish further details of the meeting later.

It is expected a subordinate council of the E. K. O. R. will be organized this week Friday evening, at Masonic hall. Members are requested to be on hand at that time, unless personally notified to the contrary.

Prof. T. H. Armstrong, wife and little son, of Friendship, visited their numerous friends in this place a few days during the past week. The professor has been retained as principal of the Friendship school for another year.

There is now on the ground as heavy a body of snow as we have seen this winter. It began to snow about noon Tuesday, has been snowing ever since, and at the hour of going to press there is nothing to indicate that it will not snow all summer.

The advance sale of seats indicates that the opera house will be crowded tomorrow night to see the Hotchkiss Sisters. By all means arrange to attend and give the hose company a grand benefit. You may need their services some day.

Philip T. O'Connor, "King of the Chicago Newsboys," formerly of Andover, is getting to be quite an author. One of his stories, "From Newsboy to Mine Owner," appeared in the April number of Happy Home, published at South Bend, Ind., and the same paper will publish Phil's portrait next month.

A mortgage for $70,000,000 was recorded at the County Clerks office Monday. It was given by the New York, Lake Erie & Western R. R. to the Farmers' Loan and Trust Co. of New York to secure the payment of the above amount in 1993. This mortgage will be recorded in every county through which the Erie line runs.—Beimont Dispatch.

A subordinate council of the Empire Knights of Relief is being organized here by W. F. Bullock, and the order is receiving the endorsement of the business men of Andover. Councils have been recently organized at Cuba, Belmont and Bolivar, and it is the intention of Mr. Bullock to organize in every town or village in Allegany County.

In speaking of the Easter services in St. Ann's church in Hornellsville, the Press of that place speaks very highly of the solo alto singing by Miss Mary Cannon of this place, who assisted in the music upon that occasion. Among other things the Press says: "The solos were all finely rendered, Miss Cannon coming in for a large measure of praise. She has a voice of great beauty and power."

Claude, little son of Rev. J. M. Leach, had the misfortune last Thursday to fall and break his arm above the elbow. The injury has been a painful one, but the little fellow is getting along as well as could be expected. The fracture was reduced by Dr. Comstock. Mr. Perkins of Fulmer Valley, who fractured his leg, also Mr. Kemp, who had a fracture of the collar bone, and Tom Howe, a fracture near the shoulder, have made good recoveries, and are able to be around.

Benedict & Van Noy this week take considerable space in the News to let the people know that their store is a good place to buy wall paper, paints, etc. These gentlemen have reason to know the value of advertising, and they appreciate also the value of the News as an advertising medium. We will say right here that 332 copies of this paper are regularly taken from the Andover postoffice by 332 families. We have often made the claim that the News has a larger home circulation, in proportion to population, than any newspaper in Allegany County. This claim has never been contested. We have also large subscription lists at all the nearby postoffices. If you want to reach the people of Cuba or New Jersey we could not recommend the News as a medium, but there is no other means given among men for reaching the people of this vicinity.

The Constitutional Mass Meeting.

The Constitutional Mass Meeting at Wellsville last week was attended by a large crowd of people, and the sessions were full of life and enthusiasm. Addresses were made by Susan B. Anthony, Rev. Anna Shaw and others. A committee was appointed from each town in the county to solicit names to a petition which will be presented to the constitutional convention, asking that the word "male" be stricken from the clause in the State Constitution prescribing the qualifications for suffrage. This is practical work, and should give the convention a good idea of public sentiment on this question. The committees for towns in this vicinity are as follows:

- Andover—Mrs. Ella I. Norris, L. C. Van Fleet, Mrs. Helen M. Brown, Mrs. Emily S. Bradley, Mrs. Mary Miller.
- Wellsville—Mrs. Ada Church, Mrs. Mary Bruce, Mrs. Euphenia Crandall, Mrs. Eliza Frisbey, Mrs. Sara Freeland, Rev. Cowman, Dr. Leeper, Mr. Frank Fisher, Rev. C. B. Perkins.
- Alfred—Mrs. Sara Bliss, Mrs. Flora Mosher, Miss Eva Merritt, Mrs. W. C. Burdick.
- Independence—John Lues, Victor Allen, (Whitesville) Sally Wilson, (Hallport) Janette Richardson, Mrs. E. C. Ainsworth, (Whitesville) Walter Leonard, (Spring Mills).
- Almond—Mrs. Alta Karr, Mr. S. S. Karr, Mrs. Amelia Benjamin, Rev. Fred Simmons.
- Amity—Mrs. Mattoni, Mrs. Mary L. Willard, Geo. Scott, Mrs. Hamilton Ward, Mrs. Betty Van Campen.
- Scio—Mrs. Eliza S. Middaugh, Mrs. Kate Browning, Mrs. Carrie Hammond, Miss Artie Place, Miss Gertrude Smith, Mrs. Alma Smith.

Don't Fail to Hear This.

At the Baptist church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, there will be a carefully prepared address by Mr. Leon Swarthout, of the church at Second Milo. He is a young man of excellent abilities, and industrious and studious habits. He is a member of the Students' Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions, and purposes, God willing, to go to Brazil. He speaks on the Neglected Continent, and hopes to be used by the Holy Spirit in stirring up zeal in Foreign Missions. It will be an opportunity to hear something of interest, instruction and spiritual profit. Come, hear, see and receive a blessing. W. B.

If you want nice work done send it to Wellsville steam laundry. Earl Leach, Agt.
