Mrs. C. Lester and A. A. Woods of Rochbury were in town the latter part of last week.

Frank E. Munger of Buffalo, Supreme Secretary of the Empire Knights of Relief, delivered an address at Masonic hall in this village, last Friday evening, to members of the order and others. His remarks were concise, and the address was enjoyed by all present.

From a Loveland (Col.) paper we learn that Martin Alonzo Davis died at that place April 7, 1894, aged 62 years. Mr. Davis formerly resided in Alfred, and was well known in this place. He was the son of Durrell Davis, and a brother of Stillman Davis of Friendship.

On account of the washout near Cameron, Sunday night, train 3 on the Erie did not run over this division Monday, but was sent around by the Rochester division. Consequently no through mail was received here until on No. 1 Monday night. A special was run westward from Hornellsville Monday morning, bringing local mail.

Rev. Lucius C. Davis, a former pastor of the Andover Baptist church, has begun the publication of a church paper entitled The Official, at Yates, N. Y., where he is now located. The Euterpe Club at Wellsville.

The Euterpe Club of this place sang at an entertainment in Wellsville last Wednesday evening, and the Reporter, in speaking of the entertainment, says: "The Euterpe Club of Andover, completely captivated the audience. Their voices are wonderfully blended, and produce the richest harmony. They are without doubt equal to many of our professional musical clubs. The audience heartily responded to their 'Kerry Dance,' and 'George Washington' by enthusiastic encores. These young gentlemen may be assured of a warm welcome when they again visit our town. We will gladly lend them our Sappho's if they will pay us back in their own coin."

The members of the Euterpe Club are highly gratified at the treatment they received at the hands of the Wellsville people. From all accounts we should judge that the reputation Wellsville enjoys for the hospitable entertainment of her guests was fully sustained on the above occasion.
