

SUNDAY'S SERMON.

ONE OF DR. T. DEWITT TALMAGE'S SWEEPING DISCOURSES.

Subject: "The Spiritual Conflicts of Life."

And Jacob was left alone, and there wrestled a man with him...

The dust arose from a traveling herd of cattle and sheep and goats and camels...

And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh, and he said, I will not let thee go except thou bless me...

Then he said, Thy name shall be Jacob, for thou hast wrestled with God and with men...

It is prosperity that kills and trouble that saves. While the Israelites were on the march...

Learn again that while our wrestling with trouble may be triumphant we must expect that it will leave its mark upon us...

Here is another soul in struggle with some bad appetite. He knew how to eat, but he was growing upon him...

From a wrestle with habit I have seen men fall back defeated. Calling for no help, but relying on their own resolutions...

First I saw the auctioneer's mallet fall on the pictures and musical instruments and the rich upholstery...

I have seen men prepare themselves for such a wrestle. They laid hold of God's help when they went into combat...

It is a sad thing to see a man contending for a livelihood under disadvantages, but to see a man contending with helplessness...

As I look upon this audience I see many who have passed through waves of trouble that cannot be higher than their grade...

One of the "tough old gals" of Maine came to mill last week totting a plump bagful of corn upon her shoulders...

A curious Good Friday custom still prevails in Spain. On that day the sovereign pardons a certain number of criminals sentenced to death...

It was a close shave. Capt. Chauncey, retired of Brooklyn, had his beard shaved off last week in New York...
