A meeting of the Allegany County Publishing Association, held at Solivar, April 29, 1892. Following rules were unanimously adopted to effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local no-entertainments from which revenue is to be derived. Cards of thanks to be charged $1. Obituary notices, except such as are inserted as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for as not less than 10 cents per line.
Some of Andover's Advantages.
Five churches.
A Union School and Academy that is not excelled by any school of its class as an institution of learning.
A newspaper that prints the news and what it can to advertise the town and its advantages, and also believes in doing what will increase those advantages.
An incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the citizens the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation.
A desirable residence, pleasant, shaded with good sidewalks, all contributing to make it one of the most desirable places in the county where a home can be found.

MANUFACTORIES WANTED.

An informal meeting of Andover business men was held at L. C. Van Fleet's law office Monday evening of this week, to take preliminary steps toward inducing manufacturing interests to locate here. It was unanimously agreed that such interests are the need of the hour in this place.

Several persons present expressed themselves ready to contribute sums, varying from one hundred to one thousand dollars each, to secure any plant which will employ twenty to thirty heads of families and which will be a permanent and substantial institution. There is no doubt that a large cash bonus and a site can be obtained here by the right parties interested in manufacturing, and we sincerely hope the agitation may be kept up until the desired object is attained.

Capt. J. A. Sanford of Addison was in town yesterday.

A. M. Burrows was in Corning Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. E. M. Cooney and little son visited friends in town Saturday.

Robert G. Ingersoll will lecture in Hornellsville, May 5th; subject—"What must we do to be saved?" We were not aware that B-b deemed it necessary to be saved, but perhaps the lecture relates more to this world than the next.

Mr. Geo. H. Swift of Cuba was in town last Thursday. Mr. Swift is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Sheriff. We understand Mr. Swift is one of Cuba's substantial citizens, fully capable of discharging the duties of that office satisfactorily.

Rev. G. M. Janes is in Auburn as one of three commissioners from the Presbytery of Steuben, attending the Commencement exercises of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary. There will be no preaching services in the Presbyterian Church in this place next Sabbath.

CHANCE OF A LIFELINE.

The Great Sale Continues—Saturday, May 5th, The Last Day.

Saturday, May 5th, at 11 p. m., the Great Boston Manufacturers' Forced Sale of Clothing closes its doors to the public. The balance of the stock will be returned to the factory. In order to save freight, packing, &c., we will mark every garment in the store 20 per cent. less than our advertised rates. We received today three immense cases of new goods which will be on sale on our last two days, Friday and Saturday, May 4th and 5th. Elegant spring suits at $5, worsted cassimere and broadcloth. Nowhere can you see the immense line of suits and overcoats, unless in the larger cities. We will almost give goods away. It will be a terrific slaughter. Do not judge us by any other sales; we are no traveling store, no fakers, but direct manufacturers with an immense commercial rating and overstocked with goods and want of money. Be sure and call on us this week; it is your last chance, now or never! We guarantee expenses twice over, no matter where you live. Our $5 suits and overcoats are well worth coming for miles to purchase. Remember we positively close Saturday, night, May 5th.
