

W. C. T. U.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Andover meets the first and third Thursday in each month.

Six hundred million cigarettes are annually produced by one factory in Richmond, Va. Where are the statistics in regard to the smokers?

The participation of woman life and civilization and religion will not lead to confusion, but, on the contrary, to a great dignity of state and to a more profound stability of religion.

"Whether woman suffrage be in itself right or wrong," says the Presbyterian Journal, "the women would make short work of the liquor traffic. They suffer all its woes without the sensual pleasure of the corrupted taste which sways the men who have come under its influence and makes them helpless."

It must afford great comfort to such political economists as are not humanitarians to know that the times hard or good, there is one business which never fluctuates—and that the all-powerful saloon. In Chicago there were seven thousand two hundred licensed saloons during the World's Fair season, but it was said, "Oh, a large part of them will go out of business when the Fair is over." On the first day of May the new licenses for the current year were granted at the city hall and the number issued was six thousand seven hundred—but five hundred less than during the height of the Fair. Hard times have not affected the saloon—but the saloon has wonderfully affected the hard times.

If Rev. Lyman Abbott has come out against woman suffrage, Hon. Chauncey Depew, president of the N. Y. Central R. R., more than counterbalances his opposition, by avowing his belief in the movement, and signing the great petition to the Constitutional Convention. Unwittingly, they have "paired off." Mr. Depew explains his action to the satisfaction of all concerned. He says: The position of woman has changed. Woman herself is different in some respects from what she used to be. She owns a larger amount of property, upon which she is taxed. She has become a great industrial factor. She has a right to say how she shall be taxed, and under what laws she shall conduct her business.

Christian Endeavor Notes.

A very pleasant evening was spent by the Presbyterian Society of Christian Endeavor in union with the Epworth League, on Sunday, May 20th, it being the fifth anniversary of the League. It was to be regretted that the storm prevented a larger attendance.

On Sunday evening, May 20th, Miss Nora Bundy was elected as third delegate from the Baptist Society to attend the Convention at Friendship, May 28th and 29th.

Four active members of the Endeavor Society received baptism in the Baptist Church, Sunday evening.

Misses Lizzie Owen, Jennie Owen, Inez Lever, Grace Hardy and Mrs. Smith, also Messrs. Volney McCann, Luther Protasco and Clark Rogers were named as delegates from the Presbyterian Society to attend the Convention at Friendship.

May 27th is the regular Consecration meeting. At the Presbyterian Church all having birthdays in May, please bring the birthday money at this time. The leader of the meeting at the Baptist Church requests all members to bring topic cards, that the pledge thereon may be read together.

The topic for May 27th is 'God's call. What is our response?' Eph. 4: 1-6; 17-32. All should be present to respond to the roll call. The usual monthly collection will be taken.
