The Columbian Society will hold a banquet next Monday evening in C. M. B. A. hall. In addition to an attractive menu, there will be music, speeches and other exercises, and those who are fortunate enough to be included among the guests are certain to have a royal good time.

There are good prospects that a manufacturing plant may soon be established in this place which will give employment to twenty or thirty men at the start, with favorable chances for a steady growth of the business. The matter is now being agitated, and it is hoped the project will prove sufficiently attractive to warrant the establishment of the plant.

Mr. A. M. Burrows of Andover offers to put up $1000 in cash if the citizens will within sixty days, raise $5000 more, the fund to be used to induce some good manufacturing establishment to locate in Andover. If the people of Andover have any "hustle" about them,

The Northwestern Lumberman, published in Chicago, contains in its issue of June 2d an account of the sale of the extensive lumber plant in Louisiana which was owned by W. W. Miller of this place, to a company of gentlemen who will henceforth operate the same. The article referred to gives a general account of Mr. Miller's operations in the South, and says: "Mr. Miller had displayed judgment in all of his negotiations with promising results, and was in the enjoyment of a valuable prestige among the people with whom he had dealt. For some time past, Chicago parties knowing and appreciating the good points of the layout, have been quietly negotiating for its purchase with a view to its energetic development. On May 28th the final papers were passed in the Hotel Grundwald at New Orleans, conveying the entire property, which will at once pass into the hands of a corporation to be called the Natabany Lumber Company." We understand Mr. Miller has made reinvestments in Southern standing lumber, which will doubtless prove highly remunerative.
