THE ANDOVER NEWS.

The News office is located in the Prest building on Main street. Entrance through alleyway, first door north of Lever's hardware store.

A meeting of the Allegany County Publishing Association held at Hollvar, April 23, 1892. Resolutions were unanimously adopted to the effect that the News be published weekly, except on Sundays and holidays. That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived. That cards of thanks be charged $1. That complimentary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of weddings be charged for at not less than 10 cents per line.

Advantages of Andover's Advantages.

The churches, the Union School and Academy that is not surpassed by any school of its class as an institution of learning.

A newspaper that prints the news and what it can to advertise the town and its advantages, and also believes in doing so will increase those advantages.

Incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation.

Good residences, pleasant, shaded sidewalks, all contributing to make it one of the most desirable places that can be found.

Abundant supply of natural gas for lighting, the convenience of which is overestimated.

Complete system of water works, insuring protection from fire and an abundance of the purest of spring water for domestic use.

Our Cure is sold on a guarantee. It is a permanent consumption. It is a Cure. Only one cent a bottle, and $1.

Mr. E. D. Hardy has returned from Genesee for the summer. Mr. E. B. Dean of Hackensack, N. J., was in town a couple of days this week.

Claude Austin, age 8, passed the last Regents' examination in Spelling, standing 90 per cent.

Andover Lodge, No. 558, F. & A. M., will hold no further meetings until September, unless specially convened.

A new time table went into effect on the Erie road last Sunday. The corrected time will be found in the Erie companies' ad. on eighth page.

Mrs. Charles Fleura, Mrs. Walter Parson and Miss Lizzie Mullen, of Canisteo, visited the family of Mr. John Trainer during the past week.

The News is somewhat late this week, and the lateness is unavoidable on account of a rush of job work, which has kept all hands busy. We will straighten ourselves out before long, however.

Messrs. W. C. Lever and N. Perkins have formed a partnership, and will continue the harness business at the place heretofore occupied by Mr. Lever. Mr. Perkins is another addition to the list of Andover residents.

Swink & Palmer, who have lately been partners in the management of the Swink hotel in this place, have dissolved partnership, and the house will hereafter be conducted by P. M. Swink, who will be pleased to entertain the traveling public.

The Methodist and Presbyterian Churches will unite next Sunday morning in a union service, celebrating the Lord's Supper. All the members and attendants of both churches are cordially invited to be present. The service will be in the Presbyterian Church, and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. J. M. Leach.

The News desires to join in the general congratulations upon the marriage of Mr. W. B. Mead of Greenwood and Miss Hulda Osborn of Wellsville. An account of the wedding will be found in our Greenwood letter. Mr. and Mrs. Mead returned Tuesday evening from their wedding trip, stopping at this place and going thence to Greenwood.

Mr. Archibald Baker, son of Patrick Baker of Pixley Hill, and Miss Margaret Reynolds, daughter of Peter Reynolds of Belmont, were married at St. Mary's church in the latter place, last Wednesday. Last evening a reception was given to the newly married couple at the home of the groom's father, which was attended by a large company of friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Baker will reside on Pixley Hill.

Mrs. Betsy Ide died at the home of her brother, John C. Smith, at Tip Top Summit, Friday, June 15th. She was born in Galway, Saratoga Co., N. Y., in 1809, and was consequently in her 85th year. She moved to Alfred with her parents in 1832, and has been a resident of that town, with the exception of a few months passed in Wellsville, ever since. Funeral services were conducted at the house Sunday afternoon by Rev. L. C. Rogers of Alfred.

The annual Chapin Family reunion was held at the residence of Mr. G. M. Barney in this village. Members of different branches of the family to the number of sixty were present, and it is needless to say were agreeably entertained at Mr. Barney's spacious home. The company took dinner at the American house. In the afternoon a program was given, consisting of music, recitations, impromptu speeches, etc. Among those present were parties from Geneva, Smethport, Pa., Cowanesque, Pa., Wellsville, Whitesville, Spring Mills and other places.

Eino Burdick, a young man of Alfred Centre, was concerned with others last Fourth of July evening in celebrating our Nation's natal day, back of the Celadon Terra Cotta works. Certain parties who objected to the noisy demonstration of patriotic ardor, made complaint and Constable Frank Sisson arrested the young men and put them in the lockup for the night. Burdick, resenting what he regarded as an unwarrantable exercise of power, appealed to a jury of his countrymen, who last week awarded him ninety dollars damages for the brief abridgement of his personal liberty.

The Columbian Society held a very enjoyable banquet at the C. M. B. A. hall Monday evening. Over fifty persons were present, including members of the society and guests, and those present had a feast of good things to eat, which was followed by toasts, music, etc. Mr. B. J. R. Crandall was toastmaster. The Columbian Society is a literary organization composed of present and former students of Andover Union School, and the experience gained in the meetings is of great value.

Concert-goers are aware that, however proficient in music a person or party may be, encore demanding further service is rarely given when the rendering is the closing number; and yet that very thing occurred to the Euterpe Club on Tuesday night at the University Concert at Alfred. The club received every token of appreciation that a music-loving audience could award, and were royally entertained at the residence of Mr. C. D. Reynolds. The boys are loud in praise of the hospitality of the Reynolds family. Oh, Alfred is a good place to go if you can sing. And what's the matter with Hornellsville? The Euterpe Club went there and took part in the concert at the Sanitarium, June 13th. The boys returned thickly incrustated with glory, and bending under the weight of laurels won by their musical efforts.

House to rent. Inquire of Crayton L. Earley.
