THE ANDOVER NEWS.

The News office is located in the Prest block on Main street. Entrance through the hallway, first door north of Lever's harness store.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishing Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:
1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.
2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.
3.—Ordinary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 1 cent per line.

A Few of Andover's Advantages.

Five churches.
A Union School and Academy that is not exceeded by any school of its class as an institution of learning.

A newspaper that prints the news and what it can to advertise the town and its advantages, and also believes in doing what it can to increase those advantages.

An incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the inhabitants the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation.

Handsome residences, pleasant, shaded streets, good sidewalks, all contributing to make this one of the most desirable places of residence that can be found.

The abundant supply of natural gas for lighting and heat, the convenience of which is not overestimated.

A perfect system of water works, insuring the most complete protection from fire and an abundance of the purest of spring water for domestic use.

Care is taken to see that the most efficient and complete system of fire insurance is maintained in the village.

Eight fire companies and seven bands will parade in Cuba the Fourth.

The hose company and band were out for a drill on the school grounds Monday evening.

Andover has't had a game of ball this season. Where are all the baseball cranks this year?

The school teachers who reside out of town have returned to their respective homes for the summer.

An appeal has been made from Judge Rumsey's decision in the jail matter, and it is possible the end is not yet.

Mr. A. C. Frisbey has ripe tomatoes on his own vines in his own garden. The person who can beat this record will please hold up his hand.

The regular monthly union services will be held at the Seventh Day Baptist church on the evening of July 1st. Sermon by Rev. L. A. Platts.

There is a divorce case in blossom at Belmont, and an altogether too frisky husband will doubtless soon be compelled to earn his own living.

Messrs. J. B. Martindale and L. H. Thompson have formed a partnership in the meat business, and will continue the business at Martindale's old stand.

The next meeting of the Livingston, Wyoming and Allegany press associations will be held at Hornellsville, and will include the Steuben county association.

Mr. Henry Crandall, who has been seriously ill with inflammatory rheumatism, is slowly improving, and his recovery is thought to be only a matter of a little time.

You can often save a trip away from town, and much expense, by using the telephone. The local and long distance public telephone station is located in the News office.

The scaffold at the new Prest block fell the other day, being too heavily loaded with brick, etc. No one was seriously hurt, but there were two or three narrow escapes.

Attorney Elba Reynolds of Belmont started last Thursday for a trip to Europe. He will visit many points of interest and his Allegany friends wish him a pleasant and profitable trip.

The Fourth of July celebration at Cuba will be a regular old rouser. Wm. Sulzer, ex-Speaker of the Assembly, will be the orator and his speech, with the other attractions, will draw a large crowd.

The next meeting of the Allegany County Farmers' Club will be held in Whitesville Tuesday, July 3. Good speakers and music have been secured and every body in that vicinity should be present.

The catalogues for the Andover Union School and Academy for 1894-95 have been issued and copies may be obtained from Principal B. B. Brown or J. E. Cannon, Secretary of the Board of Education.

When the farmers sell their wool this year they neglect to utter the words of grace, "For what we are about to receive, Lord, make us truly thankful." The price is only from eight to sixteen cents a pound.

Thos. Gilmore, of Hornellsville, formerly of Andover, was shot in the leg while participating in a horning bee in the former city, Wednesday night of last week. Moral: Mind your own business.—Wellsville Democrat.

If there is a man in Andover out of a job he could make big money by entering complaints against parties who allow their dogs to run unmuzzled. There is a fine for each day this offense is committed, and one-half of it goes to the informer.

A former pastor of one of the churches in Andover writes us saying that the NEWS is the only local paper he has ever taken after removing from the place of publication. He left Andover three years ago and has taken this paper ever since.

The Cooney farm on South Hill was sold by Deputy Sheriff Nobles in this place last Saturday. The farm consists of fifty acres, and was sold in order that the proceeds may be divided among the heirs of James Cooney, deceased. Richard McAndrew bid off the premises at $41 per acre.

The following delegates were elected from the Baptist Society to attend the meeting of the Allegany County Baptist Association, which is being held in Belmont yesterday and today: Rev. W. Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Orris, Mr. and Mrs. N. Clair. E. Bureau, the Young Men's Society, Mr. R. E. Bureau.

E. B. Rollins is not responsible for his acts now-a-days, and is liable to do all sorts of strange things. There's a reason for it in the fact that a bright girl baby arrived at his home last Saturday, and it is thought "Lige" will be himself again ere long.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Haughton, of Sioux Falls, S. D., are the parents of a girl baby, born last Thursday. Mrs. Haughton will be readily remembered by Andover people as Miss Lizzie Pardon, and she has hosts of friends here to offer congratulations on the happy event.

At the M. E. church next Sunday morning, the Pastor will preach on the altitude of the Methodist Episcopal church toward the liquor traffic. In the evening a union service will be held at the Seventh Day Baptist church. Preaching by Rev. Dr. Platts.
