Webs and Flies.
Whiskey spiders, great and greedy,
Weave their webs from sea to sea;
They grow fat and men grow deedy—
Shall our robbers rulers be?

"Sweep the webs away!" the nation,
In its wrath and wisdom, cries;
Say the fools, with hesitation,
"No; but educate the flies!"

We do both, twin wings who sunder;
Let the school fill out their sphere;
Let the church sound seven thunders—
But the webs must disappear.

Up! the webs are full of slaughter,
Sweep away the spider's lair;
Up! wife, husband, son or daughter,
Make the vexed earth clear and fair!

—Joseph Cook.

When the queen of Madagascar shut up the saloons in her kingdom, and the ex saloon keepers asked for compensation, she replied "Compensate those you have wronged, and I will pay the balance."

Eight thousand of the twelve thousand saloon-keepers in New York City have served terms in prison. Yet licenses have been issued to them as men of "good moral character."

The refusal of liquor dealers to attach their names to woman suffrage petitions when invited is indicative of a conviction on their part that with the ballot in the hands of women the supremacy of the liquor traffic as a factor in politics will be practically destroyed.

The deadly cigarette has again added to its unrecorded work of destruction. This time it is a young American pastor whose fatal addiction to the poisonous "white pipe" has just ended his promising career at the age of twenty-nine. He leaves a young wife and three babies. Although the papers chronicle the cause of his death as heart failure, there is no doubt that he died from a smoker's heart. He was the heaviest cigarette purchaser in the town. Can any worker in Christ's vineyard afford to abate his influence in the least degree by use of the offensive weed, granting that the effect may never reach the tragic end thus noted?

Christian Endeavor Notes.

As the summer holidays advance we regret the departure of some of the best workers in our societies, but we have also occasion to rejoice over the return of many who have always been true and earnest workers.

New York, the Empire State, is the banner State in C. E. work, having the largest number of societies of any State in the Union.

What the society of Christian Endeavor stands for:
Denominational loyalty.
Definite pledged service.
Daily prayer and Bible reading.
Inter-denominational Fellowship.
Systematic committee work.
Monthly Consecration Meetings.
Ten thousand people can be accommodated in the convention hall at Cleveland, ten thousand more in the tent, five thousand in Music Hall, and Cleveland has scores of churches ready for the overflow.

The Topic for Sunday, July 1st, is "What has Christianity done for our Country?" Ps. 33:8-22. This is a missionary meeting, and the first under the new officers elected for the last half of the year.

Re-rating of Post-offices.

The re-classification of the salaries of Presidential postmasters for the next fiscal year was made public Tuesday. It is based on the increase or decrease of receipts of each office for the four quarters ending on March 31, 1897.

The following changes were made in Allegheny county offices:

Alfred Centre, $1,200, a decrease of $100; Angelica, $1,000, an increase of $100; Cuba, $1,700, an increase of $100. J. C. Mitchell has been appointed postmaster at Fillmore.

Karl's Clover Root will purify your blood, clear your complexion, regulate your bowels and make your head clear as a bell. 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by L. A. Burrows.

We take pleasure in announcing that after this date Park's Sure Cure will remove all traces of Rheumatism, Kidney trouble or Liver complaint from the user. It is today the only medicine that is guaranteed to cure these diseases or no pay. Park's Sure Cure is sold by Benedict & Van Noy.

Catching Rain Water is a familiar practice in sections where the regular water supply is too hard for use. Its softness and purity make it very desirable on wash day. The same results can be derived by using
OAK-LEAF SOAP
It makes the hardest water soft, makes the clothes white without injuring them, and reduces the labor of washing one-half. Ask the grocer for it.
