The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Andover meets the first and third Thursday in each month.

A devoted Indiana temperance woman, Mrs. Kean Rice, who recently passed on to her heavenly home, had a tree in her garden which she assiduously cultivated. She called it her "Temperance Tree," or "Tree of Righteousness," and told her children she wanted to have the United States flag run up to the top of it whenever the saloon power was broken.

The Gentleman Born.

We are all made of the same clay. The nicest analysis can detect no difference between the "blue blood" that runs in the veins of the descendant of a line of kings and the "vital fluid" of a pauper; but there is nevertheless an inborn aristocracy of mind and soul which all men instinctively recognize and which compels respect from the haughtiest. Patricians by the accident of birth are often base, selfish and stupid; but God's gentlemen, though reared in poverty and the heirs of toil, are sure to manifest their innate nobility in spite of adverse circumstances.

The gentleman born has the right sort of pride, too. He will go out of his way to show a stranger the nearest road to any point he may desire to reach, share his last crust with a starving brother, peril his life to protect a woman from insult, and is ever prompt to assist weakness and avenge wrong. Yet if you offer him compensation for obeying the impulses of his knightly nature his cheek will redden with indignation at the thought of being mistaken for a mercenary, willing to make a trade of doing good. His labor he will sell, but not the services which his noble heart teaches him are due to all who are in necessity, tribulation or danger. Such a man, though his spelling book experiences may be too limited to enable him to spell the word "pedigree" and he may have been "raised" in a log shanty on salt pork and corn dodgers, is nevertheless royal and the moral peer of any of his species. —New York Ledger.
