The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Andover meets the first and third Thursday in each month.

Maine, before the Maine Law, was the poorest State in the Union, spending for strong drink the entire valuation of all its property of every kind, in every period of 20 years, as a nation is now doing in every period of 35 years. There was no State in the Union consuming more drink than Maine, in proportion to its population, while there are now no people in the Anglo-Saxon world consuming so little.

Since strikes are the fashion why don't some one inaugurate a strike against the saloon—the greatest existing monopoly?

J. G. Woolley truthfully says: "When I realize that the saloon business is as lawful as the church, the school, or any of our institutions, I blush for my country."

Will the good brother who has voted to license the saloon and thereby make it a respectable business still further encourage the struggling saloon-keeper in these trying financial times by dropping in with a cordial hand-shake and at the same time introduce his young son as a probable future patron? Legitimate business must have material to work on, you know.

Students and Cigarettes
It is to be hoped that each boy or girl, who reads the following words published in an eastern paper, facts from the pen of Dr. Davis S. Jordan, will repeat them to other boys and girls, as a warning of the great danger in the use of cigarettes: "As a college teacher my experience with boys who have formed the cigarette habit is somewhat limited. It, however, confirms me in the opinion that such boys are like wormy apples, they drop long before harvest time. Very few of them ever advance far enough to enter college. Very few of them last beyond the first year. They rarely make failures in after life, because they do not have any after life. The boy who begins cigarette smoking before he is fifteen never enters the life of the world. When the other boys are taking hold of the world's work he is concerned with the sexton and the undertaker. "There is one grim argument to be made for the use of cigarettes by boys—it helps on the survival of the fittest. The manly boy does not take to such things."
