A Short Day.

It isn't often that a healthy Maine deer gives up one horn for the other, and fights a duel with a hunter, but it so happened recently. A gentleman named West, of Lynn, Mass., can tell you all about it. He was hunting in Kingsbury and came out upon Thorn Brook, where he paused to rest. All at once he beheld a noble looking deer stalk out upon the brow of the hill above him. He let drive one barrel and the deer fell. Hastily he scrambled up to examine his prize and found to his grief that he had shot one hand some horn off close to the animal's head. The deer was apparently dead. Half in reverie he lifted the horn back upon the deer's head in order to see now the animal would look when in fact.

To his amazement the deer sprang to his feet and, thoroughly maddened pitched into his assailant with all the fury of an animal at bay. Mr. West, retaining the disconnected horn in his hand, commenced to belabor the animal, and the battle raged furiously. In the heat of the melee both tumbled plunk into the brook and this ended the conflict. The deer swam for one bank, while Mr. West clambered out upon the opposite, wet, scared and mud clear through. His clothes were torn and he received several painful bruises, but hung on to the horn. He carried the trophy back to Lynn with him and left a standing offer of $50 for the mate.—Bangor (Me.) News.

Roumania's Popular Queen.

The queen of Roumania was on a visit to London and staid at one of the West End hotels. It was noised abroad that she intended leaving, and in order to witness her departure a vast crowd of people surrounded the hotel staircase. Our informant formed one of the crowd, and it so happened that he had just been to Covent Garden, where he had purchased a bunch of mignonette, of which he was a lover.

A few minutes after his arrival the queen of Roumania passed down the hotel staircase, holding in her hands a beautiful bouquet of flowers. Seized with a sudden impulse to present the queen with his bunch of mignonette, our informant stepped forward, and in a rough, though kindly way, asked the queen if she would accept "the mignonette."

The queen at once threw away the bouquet of flowers which she held in her hand, took the rough bunch of mignonette, and, kissing it, said: "Oh, thank you very much, I love it so; it is my favorite flower."—London Tit-Bits.

W. C. T. U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Andover meets the first and third Thursday in each month.

The fifteenth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Allegany Co., was held in Fillmore, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 17th and 18th. Notwithstanding the extreme heat and the inaccessibility of the place, there was present a goodly number of delegates. The meeting was opened Tuesday afternoon by a song service and devotional exercises, followed by appointment of committees, address of welcome and response, reports of officers from the local Unions given by the delegates. The chief feature of the afternoon being the annual address of the President, Mrs. Mary L. Willard of Belmont. In the evening there was a lecture by the Rev. Henrietta G. Moore of Ohio. The thought which ran through it was the special call of each one to work for the uplifting of humanity, and our personal responsibility in fulfilling our part of the plan which God has for the world. It was eloquent, logical and thoroughly practical and convincing. The music for the evening was furnished by the Mills orchestra of Fillmore, and was a great addition to the meeting. The morning opened with a consecration meeting, for the W. C. T. U. finds its strength only in a higher Power. Reports of superintendents, followed by discussion, was the next order. The lines of work having superintendents are Soldiers and Sailors, Social Purity and Mother's Meetings, Narcotics, Scientific Temperance, Young Woman's Work, Evangelistic, Franchise, Prison and Jail, Fair Work, Non-Alcoholics and Press Work. Reports of committees, followed by election of officers, an evangelistic service and the noontide prayer closed the morning session.

Wednesday afternoon the reports of committees with miscellaneous business and adjournment closed an interesting and profitable convention. We sometimes hear the question asked, "What is the W. C. T. U. doing?" We advise all such inquirers to attend the next County Convention and we are sure they will be convinced that the circles of influence sent out by this organization are not only wide and far reaching, but pure and beneficent.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

- Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons? Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons? Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed? Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle? Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Fitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined? Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Fitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense? Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless? Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose? Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest? Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

The fac-simile signature of Dr. H. Fitcher is on every wrapper. Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.
