DYSPEPSIA

Is that misery experienced when suddenly made aware that you possess a diabolical arrangement called stomach. No two dyspeptics have the same predominant symptoms, but whatever form dyspepsia takes

The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing is certain no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Allay Irritation, Assist Digestion and at the same time

Start the Liver working and all bodily ailments will disappear.
"For more than three years I suffered with Dyspepsia in its worst form. I tried several doctors, but they afforded no relief. At last I tried Simmons' Liver Regulator, which cured me in a short time. It is a good medicine. I would not be without it."—JAMES A. ROANE, Philad'a, Pa.
"As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels."—W. J. McELROY, Macon, Ga.

Death of W. C. Lever.

William C. Lever died at his home in this village, Monday evening, August 6th, 1894, after an illness of nearly four weeks. The disease which caused his death was paralysis. He sustained the stroke July 12th, since which time he has been gradually failing, being much of the time unconscious. Mr. Lever was born in Seneca Castle, Ontario county, and was 52 years of age. He had lived in Andover for the greater part of his life and was well known throughout this section. He had been engaged in business here for many years, at the time of his death being the owner of a general harness store. He was a veterinary surgeon of skill, and also an auctioneer of unusual ability. His business brought him in contact with a great number of people, and his form and voice were familiar to almost every resident of this and adjoining towns. He was genial in manner, popular with the people, and his death will cause a vacancy not easily filled by another.

He leaves a wife, one daughter and one son; also a brother, Mr. C. B. Lever of this place. Mr. Lever was a kind and indulgent husband and father, and the bereaved members of the family have the sincere sympathy of all.

Funeral services were held at the house this afternoon at 2:30, Rev. G. M. Janes officiating. The obsequies were attended by a large number of relatives, friends and neighbors, who reluctantly, but tenderly, paid the last tribute to the memory of one whom they had loved and respected.

Nothing equals Harman's 1874 Tonic.

Brenneman-Comstock.

A very pleasant event was the marriage of Miss Flora Comstock to Mr. Lawrence Brenneman of Columbia City, Ind., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Comstock of Andover, on Wednesday evening, Aug. 1.

At 8:30 o'clock Miss Wilma Wright played the wedding march and the happy pair entered, led by Miss Jennie Comstock, sister of the bride, as bride's maid and Mr. Jesse S. Phillips as best man. The impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. M. Janes, and at its conclusion the congratulations of the many relatives and friends present were prompt and hearty. The bride's costume was of white silk and lace, with pond lilies. Later, fine refreshments were served which were heartily enjoyed by all. The presents were numerous and valuable. The bride has been for some time past a clerk in the postoffice at Ravenswood, a suburb of Chicago. Mr. Brenneman is in the grocery business in Columbia City, Ind. The happy pair are spending a few days with relatives and friends in this vicinity, after which they will take a short trip to Buffalo and Niagara Falls and then go to Columbia City, where a pleasant home awaits them. As they leave they carry with them the regards and best wishes of their many friends in the east.

Carpenter-Bassett.

No pleasanter or more enjoyable social event could be imagined than that which occurred yesterday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bassett in this village, when their daughter, Elizabeth, was united in marriage to Mr. Edwin Grant Carpenter, of Ashaway, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Bassett's spacious home was tastefully decorated for the event, and the house and grounds presented a most attractive appearance.

At nine o'clock the wedding march was played by Miss Eugenia Marvin of Alfred, and the bride and groom entered the parlor, accompanied by Mr. Will R. Clarke of Alfred as best man and his sister, Miss Lua M. Clarke, maid of honor. The ceremony was performed by Dr. L. A. Platts of Alfred, pastor of the Seventh Day Baptist Church of Andover. Congratulations followed, after which the company sat down to the wedding breakfast, which was deftly served by six or eight pretty young misses from ten to twelve years of age. After having partaken of the repast, the bridal party left in carriages for Hornellsville, where they took a train for the east.

After the departure of the newly wedded pair, the guests were treated to several pleasing selections in elocution by Miss Baker of Olean and Miss Barney of West Union. These, together with other social enjoyments, helped to pass the time until after the noon hour, when the departure of guests began.

Miss Bassett is well known to the people of Andover, who esteem her most highly, and the one wish for her is a long life of happiness and usefulness. The groom is a manufacturer at Ashaway, R. I., and a young man of excellent qualities.

The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents.

Among those in attendance from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. George B. Carpenter, of Ashaway, R. I., parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Julius St. John of Walton, N. Y.; Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Platts, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rogers; Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Bassett; Mrs. C. E. Green, Mrs. Louise Langworthy, Misses Eugenia Marvin, Myra Clarke, Edna Bliss, Martha Stillman, Alfred; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. O'Donnell, Hornellsville; Miss Nellie Baker, Olean; Misses Emma and Sara Barney, West Union.

W. C. T. U. State Convention.

The 21st annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the State of New York will be held in Jamestown on October 2d, 3d and 4th, in the First Methodist Church. Miss Frances Willard, John G. Woolley, temperance apostle to the churches, Mary Lowe Dickinson and Miss Ensign of Ohio will be present and address the convention. It is expected that over 400 delegates will be present. Chautauque County is the birth-place of the annual state meetings, and not many years has it been so far to the extreme side of the state.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

Robbins and Green Nominated by Acclamation—Swift and Crandall Easily Victorious.

The Republican County Convention was held at Belmont yesterday, and was called to order by Clarence Ricker, Chairman of the County Committee. A. Miner Wellman of Friendship was made permanent chairman and W. F. Benjamin of Almond, secretary.

Fred A. Robbins of Angelica was re-nominated by acclamation for Member of Assembly, and George A. Green was also nominated by acclamation for County Clerk, third term. George H. Swift of Cuba was nominated for Sheriff on the first ballot; Sidney Crandall for Superintendent of the Poor on the second ballot; H. E. Dudley of Angelica for Justice of Sessions; Dr. A. T. Bacon of Burns and Dr. Oakly Sayers of Rushford for Coronors.

The delegates to the State Convention are W. J. Glenn of Cuba, Frank S. Smith of Angelica, Charles H. Brown of Belmont, E. J. Norton of Scio, John McEwen of Wellsville, Clarence Ricker of New Hudson and Frank McGinty of Andover.

It has been apparent for a number of days that Messrs. Robbins, Green, Swift and Crandall would be the nominees of the Convention. The only strife has been between the candidates for Sheriff and Superintendent of the Poor, with the odds in favor of Swift and Crandall.

The nomination of George A. Green by acclamation for a third term as County Clerk is almost unprecedented in this county. With the exception of the late Daniel D. Gardiner, we have no recollection of a county officer being renominated without opposition after he had completed his second term, and Mr. Green's nomination yesterday is a just recognition of his ability and the faithful service he has rendered to the people. His majority at the coming election will doubtless still further emphasize the esteem in which he is held by the people of the county, as an official and a citizen.

Mr. F. J. McGinty was named as the member of the County Committee for Andover for the coming year. It will also be noticed that Mr. McGinty will be one of the county representatives at the State Convention.

Grove Meetings.

Elders H. H. Robinson of Independence, Mo., and L. W. Powell of Kirtland, Ohio, will preach in Mr. Benj. Updyke's grove 3½ miles east of Andover. Meetings will begin Wednesday evening, August 8th, at 8 o'clock sharp and continue over Sunday. Sunday, Aug. 12 meetings at 10 a. m., 2:30 and 8 p. m.

G. A. R. Camp Fire at Belfast.

The G. A. R. Association of Allegany County will hold a Camp Fire at Belfast on Friday, August 17th. Extensive arrangements are being made by members of the Association, assisted by the people of Belfast, and it is needless to say that the occasion will be one of unusual enjoyment. A large number of veterans and others in this section are making preparations to attend.

Harvest Home.

The annual Harvest Home of the Presbyterian church will be held in Maple Grove on Thursday, August 23d. Rev. D. A. Blöse of Belmont has consented to be present as one of the speakers, and the committee is corresponding with other well-known platform speakers. It is expected that at least two others will be engaged.

The Harvest Home this year will be as enjoyable as any that has preceded it, which is the only assurance needed to draw a large crowd.

Let everybody make arrangements to attend.

Death of W. R. Benton.

Hon. W. R. Benton died at his home in Oakland, Kan., July 26, 1894, aged nearly 53 years. Deceased was a brother of Mr. H. P. Benton of this place, and also of Mrs. Jennie Rhinevault, who is at present living in Andover. He was born in Livonia, this state. He served in the Union Army during the rebellion. Soon after the war was closed he removed to Andover, living here until 1872, when he went west, settling in Pottawatomie Co., Kas. In 1891 he moved to Oakland, a suburb of Topeka. He had been failing in health for two years, and for the past year had been a great sufferer.

Mr. Benton was well known and had many warm friends in Andover, who will learn of his death with deep regret.
