Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

Rule 3.—Ordinary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 25c. per line.

A Few of Andover's Advantages.

Five churches.

A Union School and Academy that is not excelled by any school of its class as an institution of learning.

A newspaper that prints the news and does what it can to advertise the town and its advantages, and also believes in doing whatever will increase those advantages.

An incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the inhabitants the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation.

Handsome residences, pleasant, shaded streets, good sidewalks, all contributing to make this one of the most desirable places of residence that can be found.

An abundant supply of natural gas for light and heat, the convenience of which cannot be overestimated.

A perfect system of water works, insuring adequate protection from fire and an unlimited quantity of the purest of spring water for domestic use.

Saloh's Cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient consumption. It is the best Cough Cure. Only one cent a bottle. 25c, 50c, and $1.

At the M. F. Church next Sunday morning the pastor will preach on the Power of the Holy Ghost.

The Baker Band will give an ice cream social at the Elm Valley school house, Saturday evening, Aug. 11th. Don't fail to attend.

Fred C. White of Whitesville, county chief templar of I. O. G. T. has been elected a delegate to the grand lodge of that order at Kingston on August 27th. Providence permitting, Rev. J. Hendrick of Angelica will preach in the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening in exchange with the pastor, Rev. W. Brewster.

A Demorest Medal contest will be held in Wellsville this evening. Mr. L. C. VanFleet, Mrs. A. D. Brown and Mrs. G. B. Herrick of this place are selected as the judges.

The People's Party held a county convention at the court house in Belmont recently. They elected State and Congressional delegates, but owing to the fewness of the members present, the nomination of county officers was postponed until after haying, when another convention will be called.

During the severe thunder storm Thursday night, five thoroughbred Durham cows belonging to the county house farm at Angelica, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. The stock was recently purchased by Keeper Grunder and was very valuable. Two barns near Scio were also struck by lightning and burned.

At the annual school meeting held last evening, A. C. Frisbey was elected chairman, and J. E. Cannon acted as secretary. Reports of the treasurer, collector, and Board of Education were read, and the Board was authorized to raise $1,800 by tax to meet the expenses for the coming year. H. A. Benedict and W. H. Phillips were elected members of the Board of Education in the places of A. C. Frisbey and G. M. Barney.

The Excelsior Cornet Band of this place on Monday received notice that they would be expected to furnish music at the Cuba Fair on Friday, Sept. 14. The officers of the Cuba Fair Association had an opportunity to hear our band at the recent Fourth of July celebration in that place, and the music rendered upon that occasion was of such quality as to warrant the engagement of this band for the Fair. The band boys are pleased at the compliment, and the people at the Fair will be equally well pleased with the music.
