DYSPEPSIA

Is that misery experienced when suddenly made aware that you possess a diabolical arrangement called stomach. No two dyspeptics have the same predominant symptoms, but whatever form dyspepsia takes

The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing is certain no one will remain a dyspeptic who will Start the Liver working and all bodily ailments will disappear.

"For more than three years I suffered with Dyspepsia in its worst form. I tried several doctors, but they afforded no relief. At last I tried Simmons' Liver Regulator, which cured me in a short time. It is a good medicine. I would not be without it."—JAMES A. ROANS, Philad'a, Pa.
"As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels."—W. J. McELROY, Macon, Ga.

Harvest Home.

The 18th annual Harvest Home of the Andover Presbyterian Church, to be held in Maple Grove August 23, will, if indications are to be relied on, be one of the most enjoyable occasions of this kind ever held by the Presbyterian Society. One of the principal reasons for this anticipation is the fact that Hon. Fred A. Robbins of Angelica, Member of Assembly from this county, has consented to be present and deliver an address. Mr. Robbins is so favorably known throughout this section that this announcement should be sufficient to draw a very large attendance. Other speakers who have been secured are Rev. D. A. Blose of Belmont and F. C. White of Whitesville.

The Andover Cornet Band will furnish music, and there will be the usual accompaniment of refreshments which the ladies know so well how to prepare and serve.

Reserve the date, Aug. 23, free from all other engagements, and come to Andover.

Organize a Board of Trade.

Mr. H. A. Benedict returned last week from Deposit, where he has been visiting relatives. While there he inspected the buildings being erected by a company for use as a milk condensery. The buildings will cost about $350,000, and about 150 hands will be employed. Mr. Benedict, with an eye single to the progress of Andover, made some inquiries as to the feasibility of making an effort to secure such an establishment here.

He ascertained that in order to do this it would be necessary for our farmers to produce milk in winter as well as in summer, and also that a larger number of cows would be required to supply the factory than are now kept within a radius of six or eight miles from this place.

The two obstacles named seem to be the principal ones to be overcome, and there are many points of advantage in favor of establishing a plant here. It would seem that the objections mentioned could be surmounted, as it is a fact that the number of cows kept here could be materially increased and the farmers could, in a short time, produce winter milk in abundance. It would be to their advantage to turn their attention to this matter, as the price paid for milk by the condensing company is about one-half more than the farmers now receive from cheese factories. Another necessity which Andover feels nearly every day is for a board of trade or similar organization. With this want supplied, much could be done in the way of securing manufacturing and other interests, which is now impossible.

Such an organization could be formed with little effort there is no doubt, and the sooner it is done the better. A meeting of business men should be called at once to take preliminary steps. Andover needs manufacturing interests, and the News doesn't propose to let the matter drop until we get them—and probably not then.

Try Heinz's white wine vinegar at Beebe, Williams & Co's.

Nature should be assisted to throw off impurities of the blood. Try a bottle of Harman's 1874 Tonic Bitters.

An Historic Cemetery.

The oldest cemetery in Allegany County is located at Elm Valley, about four miles from Andover. Nathaniel Dyke, the first white settler in the county, and Stephen Cole, who settled there in 1796, each lie buried in this cemetery; also the remains of Daniel Cole, the first white person born in Allegany. These facts are of general interest just at this time owing to the contemplated celebration to be held next year.

Sunday School Picnic.

At Bloss' grove, midway between Whitesville and Hartsport, on August 31st, 1894, a basket picnic will be held, beginning at 10 a. m. All interested in Sunday School work are respectfully and earnestly invited to be present and aid in making the meeting a success in every sense of the word. The celebrated Storey Family will be in attendance, and it will be a rare treat to hear this talented family sing the praises of Jehovah, accompanied by their fine instrumental music.

The Storey Family are eight in number—father, mother, two daughters and four sons. They are eminent as evangelists, singers and instrumentalists, and have for ten years labored in this capacity in England, with marked success. Since their arrival in this country, in October, 1893, they have visited the leading churches of New York, Newark, Philadelphia, Albany and other cities.

The objects sought are the recreation of the children of the various schools, the cementing of a closer fellowship amongst Sunday School workers, and—above all—the glory of God.

Let us muster our forces, lift high our banners, and give to these devoted servants of God a hearty greeting in His name.

Hi-Biddy Martin Captured.

Hi-Biddy Martin, the notorious desperado and outlaw, was captured at the head of Hemlock Lake, three miles from the village of Springwater, on Saturday evening. This is the most important capture made in that section in years, as he is supposed to be guilty of several murders and numberless highway robberies.

The officer who made the arrest went up behind Martin and, leveling his revolver at his head, told him to hold up his hands. Martin at once took the situation and suddenly kicked the revolver from the officer's hand and made a leap for the door. The revolver went flying into a corner of the room, but five or six farmers, who were standing around, grabbed him, and it took six men to put the handcuffs on him. Three men guarded him Saturday night and Sunday morning he was taken to Bath and lodged in the county jail.

Martin is about 30 years old, heavily built and of dark complexion. There is but little doubt that he is the man who murdered a peddler near Arkport, about a year ago. He has been the terror of people living in that place and Hornellsville. Martin is sullen and threatens to kill all the men who had a hand in his capture. The reward which was offered for his arrest will be divided.

Passengers for Wellsville, Belmont and Friendship can remain to hear the grand sacred concert in the evening, and return on train 10.

Tickets will be good to return on any regular train on or before Saturday, Aug. 25th, and will include steamer passage.
