At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bohvar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for as not less than 2 cents per line.

A Few of Andover's Advantages.

Five churches.

A Union School and Academy that is not excelled by any school of its class as an institution of learning.

A newspaper that prints the news and does what it can to advertise the town and its advantages, and also believes in doing whatever will increase those advantages.

An incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the inhabitants the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation.

Handsome residences, pleasant, shaded streets, good sidewalks, all contributing to make this one of the most desirable places of residence that can be found.

An abundant supply of natural gas for fuel and lights, the convenience of which cannot be overestimated.

A perfect system of water works, insuring adequate protection from fire and an unlimited quantity of the purest of spring water for domestic use.

Shiloh's Cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient consumption. It is the best Cough Cure. Only one cent a bottle, 25c, 50c, and $1.

Harvest Home Aug. 22.

School will begin Monday, Sept. 8.

The union services will be held next Sunday evening at the M. E. Church.

Are you doing all you can to increase the number of non-resident pupils at our school next year? And if not, why not?

The Excelsior Band went to Elm Valley Saturday evening, to attend the ice cream festival given by the Baker Band.

Miss Nettie Ferry, a teacher in the Presbyterian Sunday School, will take her class to Maple Grove tomorrow for a picnic.

You can, if you like, make a note of the fact that on the morning of Saturday, Aug. 11th, 1894, there was a white frost in this section.

Wm. Corey has purchased a lot at the north end of Water street, from Mrs. W. L. Catlin, and has commenced the erection of a dwelling thereon.

Miss Cottrell will be pleased to meet all those desiring instruction in Elocution or Physical Culture at the school building at 2 p. m., Friday, Aug. 17.

Some of our citizens declare that if they can do anything to compel obedience in Andover to the compulsory education law, they will not fail to do it.

Rev. J. M. Leach preached very acceptably to the Seventh-day Baptist congregation last Saturday. Rev. W. Brewster will preach to that body next Saturday.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Platts represent the S. D. B. Church of Andover as delegates to the General Conference, which convenes at Brookfield, Madison Co., N. Y., today.

The Board of Education organized Tuesday evening by electing the following officers: President, L. C. Van Fleet; Secretary, H. A. Benedict; Treasurer, James Owen; Collector, Calvin Slocum.

Miss Julia Lynch of this village has been engaged to teach the Lanphear Valley school. Her qualifications as a teacher are well known in that locality, as she has taught several terms there.

Today the Epworth Leagues of Andover, Scio, Belmont, Stannards Corners, Shongo, Genesee, Whitesville, Alentown and Wellsville assembled at Island Park in the latter place for a picnic.

At the G. A. R. campfire to be held in Belfast Aug. 17, Secretary of State, Gen. John Palmer; Comptroller, Hon. Jas. A. Roberts, and Congressman Warren B. Hooker will be present and speak.

Beginning today, Erie train 26 will run through to Susquehanna as a section of train 14, carrying passengers, and leaving Salamanca at 11:30 a. m., making the stops of train 14, daily except Sunday.

Rev. Jesse Hungate, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Hornellsville, has resigned his pastorate to take effect about the middle of August. He has accepted a call from the First Baptist Church of Homer.

Thursday, Aug. 16th, will be Grand Army Day at Silver Lake, and the Erie will sell round trip tickets at reduced rates good going on any regular train, Aug. 16th, and for return the same day, or following day. Fare from Andover, $1.25.

The fourth Quarterly Meeting for the Conference year will be held at the M. E. Church next Sunday. Love feast will begin at 9:30 sharp. At 10:30 a. m. Rev. E. H. Lattimer of Olean will preach, and the holy communion will be celebrated. The Quarterly Conference will be held on Saturday evening at 7:30.

Charles S. Whitney, the wealthy citizen of Belmont, whose suit for divorce created much interest in this county a year or so ago, has married again. Miss Bridget Toumey, who has been Mr. Whitney's housekeeper for many years, is the bride. She is the groom's fifth wife. The newly married couple have gone to Europe.

A large number of veterans and others from this place have made arrangements to go to Belfast Friday of this week, when the camp fire of the G. A. R. Association will be held. Many of the "boys" will drive, and five o'clock a. m. is the hour set for starting from here. Those who intend to go will please make a note of the time and be on hand. There are others, perhaps, who will go by rail, and word has been received from Cuba that a special train will leave that place for Belfast on the arrival of train 3 in the morning. The train will return to Cuba from Belfast in time for train 12 in the evening, and it is expected that the latter train will make all stops between Cuba and Andover. The railroads give a rate of one fare for the round trip.

Does the gentleman intend to pay for that watermelon? M. H. HARMAN.

Nearly all of those who attended the Bundy family reunion last week at Otego have returned home. The reunion was a grand success, two hundred and eleven persons being present. The proceedings will be printed in pamphlet form. Dr. Stillman and A. B. Richardson and wife, who attended the gathering, spent a few days in Albany, Troy and other places, viewing the State Capitol and other points of interest. They report a most enjoyable trip.

Pay Your Gas Bills.

All delinquent gas bills must be paid by Oct. 1, or at that time be disconnected.

No delinquent consumers will be carried into the winter months. Those who are off and owing bills will not be connected until all claims are settled.
