CORWIN HILL NEWS.

A light rain Sunday did some good.
Rev. M. Harry supplied the pulpit of the M. E. Church, Whitesville, Sunday.

Miss Nina Stabbins returned from a three weeks' visit in Almond, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Titworth of Alfred, visited relatives in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Clark of Andover, were calling on friends in town last week.

Mrs. Mary Leonard and little daughter, of Belmont, were at church here Seventh Day.

Mr. W. H. Ingham and family, of Milton, Wis., are the guests of her uncles, the Crandall brothers.

Grasshoppers are doing considerable damage in this town, and more to follow, unless their ravages can be checked.

A number of the old Vets hereabouts attended the camp fire at Belfast last week.

Miss Julia Harry attended teacher's examination at Wellsville last week, with a view of teaching the ensuing school year.

Mrs. Mason Richmond is reported as quite ill.

Last week Wednesday, Mrs. Sarah Potter Barney presented her husband with a nine pound girl baby.

Mrs. G. W. Probasco and son Luther, of Andover were in town and also in attendance at church Seventh Day.

Comrade and Mrs. J. D. Jacobs of Whitesville, were welcome callers at the home of your reporter one day last week.

Mr. Columbus C. Richardson recently had his nose broken by an obstreperous colt, while pulling at the halter, the head of the colt coming in contact with Mr. R's nose, and he was insensible for some time. The wound is quite serious, but the physician thinks he will pull through all right.

Pay Your Gas Bills. All delinquent gas bills must be paid by Oct. 1, or at that time be disconnected.

No delinquent consumers will be carried into the winter months. Those who are off and owing bills will not be connected until all claims are settled. MUTUAL GAS CO., L.T'D.

Two hundred men who bore a great resemblance to tramps marched through Chautauqua county last week. The Jamestown Journal said of them: "Sheriff Jenner is with them and will escort the vagrants, for such they appear to be, to the confines of the county, when another sheriff will take them in charge. The gang is composed of Italians, Poles, Hungarians, and other strange people. They refuse to tell their destination, but are supposed to be part of Coxey's army. The sheriff is kept busy preventing them from foraging and committing disorders. The army is preceded by a drum corps and men carrying banners. A Frenchman with an unspellable name is in command. The countryside is much excited over the strange visitation. Nothing equals Harman's Tonic Bitters for constipation of the bowels."
