

THE ANDOVER NEWS
ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, EDITOR
ANDOVER, N. Y., Sept. 12, 1894.

How to escape payment of the income tax is an absorbing question among the wealthy men of the country, and there is little doubt that many will find a way.

When a man wants to sell a piece of property to the government, it is worth $300,000. But when the government wants to sell it back to him it is not worth more than $30,000.

The pension list is beginning to turn the other way now. So it will be from this on. The immense sums paid to soldiers of the Union army will not be a source of irritation to certain persons much longer. They have begun to grow less. This year there were 32,123 fewer pension claims than there were last year.

One result of the war between China and Japan may be the clearing out of the Chinese from the United States. Enthusiastic meetings have been held among the yellow-faced, pigtailed laundrymen in this country, wherein they declare that they will go home to a man and help the mother land against the Japs.

A sour old bachelor takes a feudalish delight in calling attention to the fact that there is one thing women cannot do anyhow, and that is to tie their masculine cravats. "They must wear 'em," he says, "but they can't tie 'em. I've seen vests on 'em," he continued, warming up, "that in ten minutes would drive a man into imbecility if he had to wear the like of them."

The result of the first investigation of farm and home proprietorship ever conducted in any county has just been made public by the census office at Washington. It covers all the states and territories, and shows that, of the 12,690,152 families in the whole country, almost 48 per cent. own their farms and homes, almost 28 per cent. have incumbrance, and over 72 per cent. have no incumbrance.

A Cincinnati chemist has invented an artificial milk made of water, fats and other ingredients, which, it is claimed, cannot be told, by taste or use, from genuine. It will raise a cream from which butter can be churned and it will turn sour and can be made into cheese. At last the march of invention has reached old Brindley. But the farmers of Allegany will keep on raising cows a while yet.

The twenty-eighth National Encampment of the G. A. R. will be held in Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 10 to 15. General Benjamin Harrison, Gov. William McKinley, General Horace Porter, General Daniel Butterfield and many other prominent officers of the late war will be in attendance. Many pleasant social events have been planned for the week's encampment, among them an "outing" on the 12th, at the mammoth Westinghouse buildings, East Pittsburg, a reception the 13th, and a grand display of fireworks from the floats on the Monongahela river the same evening.

If William Stanley wins his suit against Congressman Bynum stump-speaking will become an exceedingly dangerous occupation. Mr. Bynum was a candidate for Congress in 1892. In his enthusiasm it is alleged, he promised that in case of Grover Cleveland's election wheat would bring $1.25 a bushel. Farmer Stanley in his complaint alleges that, trusting this statement, he voted for Cleveland and planted a large area of wheat. His crop aggregated 5,300 bushels. Cleveland was elected but Bynum's assurances regarding wheat were not fulfilled. In fact the price realized was between one-third and one-half what the campaign orator promised. Mr. Stanley, therefore, thinks Bynum is responsible to him for the difference between the price received and the price promised from the platform and a lawyer has assured him that he has a good case. If the suit goes against Bynum, the stump orator's wings will be sadly clipped.

Resolutions.

Adopted by the Forest Home Lodge, No. 39, I. O. G. T., Andover N. Y., Sept. 10, 1894:

Whereas, God in his Allwise Providence has seen fit to remove our brother, V. D. Sackett from us by death.

Resolved, That as a Lodge we regret the loss of brother Sackett, a faithful Templar for nearly 38 years.

Resolved, That as brothers and sisters we sincerely sympathize with the family of our departed brother.

Resolved, That these resolutions be printed in the ANDOVER NEWS and the Official Organ, and that a copy be presented to the bereaved family of brother V. D. Sackett.

CHARLES COCHRANE,
A. A. MCCARRN,
HENRY CARR,
JOHN SWAIN, Committee.

Mrs. Effie J. Sackett wishes to thank those who rendered assistance during the illness, death and burial of her late husband. Especial mention is made of members of the G. A. R.

A Cannon to Loosen Bolts.

Hornellsville corr. NEW YORK SUN.
One of the most difficult operations in the repairing or rebuilding of locomotives is the removing of old bolts from the frames of engines. These bolts are originally machine-fitted to their place, which alone would make their removal difficult, but as they are always badly rusted, the process is doubly tedious. The method that has always been in use is to force them out by upward blows from heavy hammers, but frequently the drill has to be used before the work could be accomplished. Some time ago a workman in the Erie Railway shops at this place conceived the idea that these bolts could be quickly and effectively removed by the use of a projectile fired from a cannon.

The master mechanic resolved to test the idea, and a steel mortar-shaped piece of ordnance was made at the shops for the purpose. It has a two-inch bore seven inches deep. This is fitted with a steel projectile the same length of the bore, two or three inches of the upper end being drilled down to act as a punch. The first test of this novel tool in locomotive building was made on Saturday. The mortar was loaded and the drill projectile placed beneath a bolt in an engine frame. At the first discharge the bolt, a particularly obstinate one, was driven from its hold. The entire frame was dispossessed of its numerous bolts by the projectile in a much shorter time than a single bolt was ever taken out by the old method. The success of the ordnance tool will make an important revolution in the work of locomotive repairing.

On account of the Annual Reunion of the 107th Regiment, N. Y. Volunteers held at Elmira, Sept. 17th, the Erie Railroad will make reduced rates from Olean and all stations to Hornellsville. Tickets will be good returning on or before Sept. 18th, and good on all regular trains going or coming.
