THE ANDOVER NEWS.

The News office is located in the Prest block on Main street. Entrance through the hallway, first door north of Lever's harness store.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishing Association held at Hollivar, April 23, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices, and not less than 1 cent per line for ordinary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding events to be charged for at not less than 2 cents per line.

Few of Andover's Advantages.

Five churches.
A Union School and Academy that is not belittled by any school of its class as an institution of learning.
A newspaper that prints the news and what it can to advertise the town and advantages, and also believes in doing whatever will increase those advantages.
An incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the inhabitants the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation.
Handsome residences, pleasant, shaded streets, good sidewalks, all contributing to make this one of the most desirable places of residence that can be found.
An abundant supply of natural gas for lights, the convenience of which cannot be overestimated.
A perfect system of water works, insuring protection from fire and an unlimited quantity of the purest of spring water for domestic use.

Wells' Cure is sold on a guarantee. It is the most efficient consumption. It is the best Cough Cure. Only one cent a bottle, 50c, 80c, and $1.

Milk Maids' Convention one week from tonight.

Rev. Anna Shaw will speak in Prest's opera house Sept. 15.

Miss Jennie Fosbury began teaching Monday in school district No. 7, Hartsville.

There will be no meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps this week Saturday evening.

Don't fail to hear Rev. Anna Shaw this week Saturday evening, at Prest's opera house.

The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. H. A. Benedict on Monday evening, Sept. 17, for reorganization.

The annual election of Trustees of the M. E. Church will be held at the church on Tuesday evening, Sept. 18, at 7:30 p. m.

There will be no service at the Presbyterian church the next two Sundays, as the pastor Rev. G. M. Janes, is taking his vacation.

Married, at the M. E. parsonage, by Rev. J. M. Leach, Saturday evening, Sept. 8, 1894, Mr. Clarence Ray and Miss Minnie Vaughn, both of Alfred.

The Mutual Gas Company's well on Gordon Pease's farm was finished Monday and is a good gas producer. Only a small showing of oil was found.

Thirty persons were received into the full membership in the M. E. church last Sunday morning, 15 of them being young men. Others will be received later on.

The two horse power steam engine now in use in the News office is offered for sale. We shall soon substitute a water motor, and the engine will be sold at a reasonable price.

John Swain, Henry Carr and J. W. Richardson are the delegates elected from Forest Home Lodge, I. O. G. T. of this place to the County Lodge which will meet in Black Creek September 25 and 26.

A great improvement has been made at the parochial residence in this place. The house has been enlarged and repaired, the grounds graded, and the residence is one of the most pleasant and attractive in the whole village.

Thomas White is very ill at the home of John Baker, on Pixley Hill. He is a brother of Matthew White, whose death is announced in this issue. The patient yesterday was thought to be slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Talcott G. Brown have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter Lena, to Melvin Collins. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents in the town of Alfred, on Thursday, Sept. 20.

The subject of Rev. Anna Shaw's address at Prest's opera house Saturday evening of this week will be "Woman's War For Peace." This is one of her best lectures and no one should fail to take advantage of this opportunity to hear it.

The entertainment which was to have been given at Wellsville this evening by the Sappho Quartette of that place and the Euterpe Club of Andover, has been postponed on account of the death of a relative of one of the members of the Sappho Quartette.

In response to requests for a Statement more easily understood, a Condensed Report of the last Official Quarterly Report of the Andover State Bank will be found in this issue of the News in the place usually occupied by their regular advertisement.

Don't fail to read the names of the Milk Maids, printed in another column. You may have the idea that not one of them ever saw a cow milked, to say nothing of milking one themselves; perhaps you'll change your mind if you attend the convention.

Miss Grace Lanphear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lanphear of this place, captured a handsome prize in the bicycle races at the Wellsville Fair last Saturday. She is now the possessor of a ten dollar cup which was offered to the most graceful lady rider.

Next Sunday will be observed as Fathers' Day at the M. E. church. An appropriate and beautiful song service has been prepared for the occasion, and an offering for the relief of the sick and old ministers of the church will be received. It is expected that Rev. E. A. Rice will be present.

Pardon Bros. and James McGinty & Sons, well known produce dealers of this place, have formed a partnership under the name of the Pardon & McGinty Produce Co. The new firm will carry on practically the same business that has been done heretofore by the two firms separately, namely, the buying and shipping of live stock, hay, straw, grain and general country produce, and with the increased facilities afforded by the joining of capital and energy, will be enabled to offer the farmers every advantage in disposing of their commodities.

Five days of exciting sport are assured on the Babcock Kite Track at Hartsville, Sept. 24 to 28.

Sixteen different classes will be run off and a field of 365 has been entered for the $16,000 offered in purses which assures one of the greatest weeks of sport ever seen in this section of the state. The Babcock Kite Track is one of the best in the state and the entries include many well known grand circuit performers so that all who attend may confidently count on getting their money's worth and much more besides.

Mrs. Mourhess will have a supply of new felt hats the last of this week, and the ladies are invited to inspect them.
