How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

Will You!

"Anything is good enough for a boy." Will you take that attitude toward your boy, and so cut him off from one of the manliest of virtues—personal pride, not conceit.

It is honest and fine conversation is good for him, why not honest and fine clothes? Does he not, at his young and eager age absorb the character of the surroundings more than he will ever again in his life? Shall we surround him with honest, strong and fine clothes, hats, furnishings? We help you by selling good furnishings cheaper than anybody else, and such clothes are not sold elsewhere.

Furnishings

Our furnishing department is full of good things—early—in keeping with our clothes. Some popular articles are good enough as they are—Earl & Wilson's collars and cuffs, Clark's gloves, Shawkin's socks. But not all can be the best; sometimes we see a better way, and that is the way we go—we have no prejudices.

Your money oack if you want it—not because you'll want it, but to show our absolute faith in what we say.

Mackintoshes

At low prices—less than that sometimes—for new, slightly Mackintoshes, thoroughly well made. Prices, $4.50 to $20.00

Men's Clothing To Order

Cloth may be right, cutting even may be right, but it doesn't follow that the suit will be right. Making and finishing are just as important. Sewers and pressers can spoil the work of the most artistic cutters.

We take good care that every step in the get-up of a suit shall be by competent people.

Scotch and English Cheviots in styles for Fall, and Worsted effects in seasonable weights, and are now going into the most stylish suits at $20, $25, $30 and $35.

Among the new Worsted Trousering ($7.00 the pair) are some of the newest and neatest patterns of the season.

Coat and Vest of Imported Cheviot, Worsted and Thibet Cloth, $15, $18.50, $20 and $22.50.

DOING WELL.

The New Board of Trade is Evidently in the Field for Business.

The new Board of Trade held a meeting Monday evening, with President Atwood in the chair, Secretary Benedict at the desk, and a good attendance of members. The Constitution and By-laws, as adopted at the previous meeting, were read, and those present affixed their signatures to the same and paid into the treasury the membership fee which is three dollars for each member.

Considerable other detail business was transacted, and it was decided to leave the charter list open for two weeks, during which time any person may become a member by signing the roll and paying the membership fee. After the expiration of the two weeks members will be balloted for at meetings of the Board. The roll may be found with the Secretary, H. A. Benedict. The next meeting will be held at L. C. VanFleet's office two weeks from last Monday evening—October 8th.

After the meeting had adjourned, the Board of Managers, consisting of the officers and Directors of the Board of Trade, held a meeting, at which it was decided to order printed for distribution 2,000 copies of the article in last week's News concerning improvements in Andover during the past year.

The question of making an effort to secure the establishment of a milk condenser in this place was also discussed at some length, and there is a probability that a canvass of the surrounding territory will be made for the purpose of ascertaining the number of cows now kept within a radius from six to ten miles, and also the number that could be kept provided the milk could be disposed of at a price which would warrant the necessary increased investment. It would be advisable for the farmers to give the matter some thought in order to answer readily such questions as will be asked them by the canvassers. To give the farmers an idea of prices paid for milk, we will state that the New York Condensed Milk Company paid during the past six months the following prices at its condenseries in Purdys, Wassaic, Brewster, and Walkill, N. Y.: For April, 3 cents per quart; May, 2½; June, 2; July, 2; August, 2½; September, 2½. The average for the six months about 2½ cents. During the winter months the price is increased somewhat, thus raising the average price for the year. Farmers should be prepared to give an accurate estimate of the number of cows they would keep—don't guess at it, but figure out how many cows you could keep to each acre of land, and multiply this by the number of available acres you own, so that when the totals are footed up, the Board of Trade will know as nearly as possible what may be depended on in this territory. A little previous work by those who keep cows will greatly facilitate the work of making the canvass.

It should also be borne in mind that it will be necessary for a milk condenser to receive milk at all seasons of the year, and while no definite idea can be given as to who will be expected to supply milk in winter, and who in summer, yet it would, perhaps, be a good idea for the farmers of this territory to investigate the matter of producing winter milk, as it is certain that if a condenser should be located here the supply of milk should be practically the same during each month of the year.

It is hoped that every business man in Andover, as well as others who are interested in the growth of our village, will become members of the Board of Trade. It has been fully demonstrated, not only here, but in every town, that no material growth will come without an effort to obtain it; and also that well-directed efforts never fail to attain results.

Collins-Brown.

The marriage of Mr. Melvin Collins and Miss Lena Brown, at the home of the bride's parents in East Valley, Alfred, Sept. 20th, was an event of great interest in that locality. Brown's cheese factory was literally crowded with guests, the number being estimated as high as 150. The bridal party stood under an evergreen arch intertwined with flowers and surmounted by a floral bell, the bride attended by Miss Josie Parker as bridesmaid, and the groom by Mr. Ray Smith as best man, while Rev. L. A. Platts pronounced the marriage service. The wedding march, "The March for the Many," rendered by Mrs. Jennie Cartwright, was an original composition by the performer, and was highly meritorious. The wedding supper was all that could be desired. The testimonials of regard presented to the bride and groom were many and valuable, reaching a cash value of about $150, and evidencing the esteem in which the young people are held. The News extends sincere congratulations.

A Woman Horse Thief.

Deputy Sheriff Haynes of Hornellsville and Mr. VanDuzen, of the firm of VanDuzen & Satterlee, Hornellsville liverymen, were in Andover last Wednesday afternoon looking for a horse that had been stolen by a woman. The morning previous the woman had been at VanDuzen & Satterlee's livery stable. She had a horse and carriage, and claimed she had driven from Addison. She said her horse was tired, and wanted a fresh one to drive to Alfred. The above named liverymen accommodated her with one of their horses, and she came on toward Alfred with her own buggy and the Hornellsville horse. In the afternoon of the same day Mr. VanDuzen learned that the woman had been seen with the rig between Alfred and Andover. This fact excited his suspicions, and he endeavored to locate her by using the telephone. He came to Andover on Wednesday, accompanied by the deputy sheriff, who had a warrant for her arrest. He telephoned from here to southern points, but could get no trace of his stolen horse. Thursday afternoon he learned that the rig was at Belvidere, and that the woman had bought a ticket at that place for Jamestown.

It was learned that the woman had driven from Elmira, instead of Addison as she claimed, and the horse she left at Hornellsville was one she had hired at Elmira.

DAVID B. HILL FOR GOVERNOR.

The Democratic State Convention, in session at Saratoga today nominated David B. Hill for Governor.

Daniel N. Lockwood of Buffalo was nominated for Lieutenant Governor.

Ex-Judge Farnum of Wellsville declined the nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals and W. J. Gaynor of Brooklyn was nominated.

Death of Mrs. F. E. Comstock.

Olive A., wife of Dr. F. E. Comstock, died at her home in this village, Tuesday, Sept. 25th, 1894, at about three o'clock p. m. For the past three years Mrs. Comstock had suffered from a peculiar and rare disease of the nerves, which is pronounced incurable by the leading specialists. She consulted the best physicians in the United States, but was not able to secure more than temporary relief. For the past two or three weeks she has been failing rapidly, and an attack of heart failure brought the end sooner, perhaps, than had really been expected.

The deceased was born in Wirt, this county, Sept. 23d, 1860, and was the youngest daughter of Smith and Eliza Brown. She came to Andover about 23 years ago, and lived with her brother, A. D. Brown. She was graduated from Andover Union School in 1880, and afterward taught in the same school for six years, being preceptress for two years. She was married to Dr. Comstock Nov. 1st, 1863, and was the mother of two children—Rock Livingstone, aged 5 years, and Mildred Antoinette, aged 3. She was a member of the Andover M. E. Church, and was very active in church work as long as health permitted. She was a consistent Christian, a faithful and affectionate wife and mother, a true friend, and a respected and worthy member of society.

The deceased leaves, besides a husband and two children, three brothers and three sisters: A. D. Brown of Andover; E. Demster Brown of Sherman; N. Y.; Cornelius B. Brown of Mills, Pa.; Mrs. Polly Earley of Wellsville; Mrs. Nettie Hall of Horseheads; Mrs. Cornelia Saunders of Roxville, N. Y.

Deepest sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing husband, children and relatives in the great affliction that has come upon them, and if kind words and deeds could avail at this time, the burden of sorrow would be greatly lightened.

Funeral services will be held at the M. E. Church tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Woman Suffrage Still Alive.

From the New York Sun.

The New York City Woman Suffrage League does not seem to be in the least depressed by the stand the Constitution Convention has taken against giving women the right to vote. As soon as Mrs. Lillie Devereux Blake, Dr. Mary Putnam Jacobi, Miss Harriette A. Keyser, and the other leaders of the delegation of suffragists returned from Albany they set about starting another vigorous campaign. Speakers were selected and committees were appointed to carry on the work. Yesterday Miss Harriette A. Keyser reopened and dusted out the suffrage headquarters at 10 East Fourteenth street. Piles of petitions and circulars and big boxes of envelopes indicated the energy with which the campaign will be conducted before the next session of the Legislature opens.

Miss Keyser said that the adverse action of the Constitutional Convention made it impossible for the suffragists to stop fighting. No definite plan of campaign had been laid out, but the energies of the suffragists would be bent toward influencing the next Legislature. The suffragists intend to make things lively this autumn and winter as they did last spring.
