

THE ANDOVER NEWS
ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., Sept. 26, 1894.

Signs indicate that David B. Hill would not be averse to leading a let-well-enough-alone political movement.

The average man doesn't care which political party is helped by improved business, just so we get the improved business.

Willie Breckenridge doesn't sneer at the power of woman in politics, now that he has had time to quietly think over the matter.

If the failure to use good English is a sufficient reason for turning down a Congressman, as certain Kentuckians are alleging it to be, lots of the old members will have to go.

Mr. Cleveland, it is said, desires the nomination of Daniel Lamont for Governor. The Elmira Gazette says it seems a little risky to try one of Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet officers on the people of New York this fall.

After having seriously considered the matter Gov. Flower has determined to content himself this year with setting a splendid example for certain governors in western states. In other words he declines to be a candidate for renomination.

The argument in favor of reducing the Senatorial term from six to four years, because the former period "is too long to trust the average public man where temptation to err is so great," is a little startling, but that doesn't make it any the less worthy of careful consideration.

In selecting the twenty-five "immortals," whose statues or busts are to be placed in the new congressional library at Washington, Librarian Spafford has named Fulton and Henry for places inside, and Franklin, Irving, Emerson and Hawthorne for places outside the building. These are the only Americans in the list.

Miss Frances Willard may not be able to cope with Mrs. Lease and Mrs. Gougar in picturesque vituperation, but her declaration that the statements concerning her having left the prohibition party and having drunk wine in a public place were "as false as a gambler's word or a drunkard's joy" indicates that she has a vocabulary not to be despised.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

The following are the amendments to the State Constitution which have been adopted by the Constitutional Convention:

Abolishing the office of coroner. Providing that no bill shall be passed by the Legislature unless it shall have been printed and upon the files for at least three days.

Providing that the Speaker of the Assembly shall be the next in order of succession to President of the Senate when the gubernatorial offices shall become vacant.

Doing away with the $5,000 maximum limit which the law now fixes as the sum that may be recovered in actions for death by accident.

Providing that when the Lieutenant-Governor shall refuse to put a question the Senate shall be at liberty to choose a presiding officer who will put it.

Providing that no inmate of a charitable institution shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence by being such an inmate.

Permitting the sale of the Syracuse salt springs.

Allowing the use of ballot machines at elections.

Requiring aliens to be naturalized ninety days before they can vote.

Fixing the first Wednesday in January for the beginning of the Legislature's session.

Prohibiting public officers from taking passes.

Forbidding convict contract labor. In relation to the terms of state officers.

For the separation of state and local elections.

INDEPENDENCE NEWS.

The heavy rain the 19th effectually squelched the camp fire.

Elder Kenyon purchased a cow while in Nile, and she was brought to Independence last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Lewis visited relatives in Brookland, Pa., last week.

What will pick the apple quicker, Than a six-tined apple-picker? Unless one climb the tree and pick Them by hand, or give 'em a kick.

Harvesters are busy now a-days in the buckwheat fields.

Mr. Miles F. Livermore of Andover, and his best girl were callers at his parents' home Sunday afternoon.

Comrade Jackson O'Dell went to Alfred Friday, and will return Monday.

The campfire was postponed till the 25th inst., at the same place, viz: Bloss' Grove.

Mrs. George Bassett and children of Alfred, were guests of her father, Comrade J. O'Dell, several days last week, and returned home Saturday.

The balmy, smoky days have come, The dreamiest of the year, When bees go hunting, with a hum, For honey, sweet and clear.

(It has rained since composing the above "poem." Just my luck!)

Mr. J. T. Livermore is at work on his new wood-house (when weather permits,) which is a large, roomy, substantial structure, with a commodious store-room in the second story. The frame is inclosed and the rafters placed, and at the present rate of progress it will soon be ready for use.

This place, vulgarly styled "Toad Hollow," but more familiarly known as Green's Corners, is growing, as well as Andover, as during the last two or three years several new barns, to say nothing of hog pens, poultry houses, etc., have been erected, a number of old houses repaired and gas introduced. However, I am glad to learn of Andover's pluck and prosperity. Keep the ball rolling.

GUMPTION.

I am now prepared to do all kinds of job work, repairing, saw filing, etc., on short notice. Carpenter shop in rear of W. Lanphear's mill, Andover.
